Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements included in this Report and the documents incorporated into this document by reference are "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). Such forward-looking statements include statements about our plans and objectives, including our future financial condition, anticipated capital expenditures, anticipated distributions, and our belief that we have the liquidity and capital resources necessary to meet our known obligations and to make additional real estate acquisitions and capital improvements when appropriate to enhance long-term growth. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by the use of terms such as "expects," "anticipates," "intends," "plans," "believes," "seeks," "estimates," "will," "assumes," "may," "projects," "outlook," "future," and variations of those words and similar expressions. These forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties, and other factors, that may cause the actual results, performance, or achievements to be materially different from the results of operations, financial conditions, or plans expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. Although we believe the expectations reflected in our forward-looking statements are based upon reasonable assumptions, we can give no assurance that our expectations will be achieved. Any statements contained herein that are not statements of historical fact should be deemed forward-looking statements. As a result, reliance should not be placed on these forward-looking statements, as these statements are subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties, and other factors beyond our control and could differ materially from our actual results and performance.

The following factors, among others, including without limitation the risk factors set forth in Item 1A, Risk Factors, could cause our future results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements:

- inflation and price volatility in the global economy;
- uncertain global macro-economic and political conditions, the impact of actual or threatened wars or other international conflicts, such as in Ukraine, the Middle East, and South America, including sanctions imposed by the U.S. and other countries, on inflation, trade, and general economic conditions;
- deteriorating economic conditions and rising unemployment rates, energy costs, and inflation, in the markets where we own apartment communities or in which we may invest in the future;
- rental conditions in our markets, including occupancy levels and rental rates, our potential inability to renew residents or obtain new residents upon expiration of existing leases, our ability to identify and consummate attractive acquisitions and dispositions on favorable terms, our ability to reinvest sales proceeds successfully, our inability to accommodate any significant decline in the market value of real estate serving as collateral for our debt and mortgage obligations; changes in tax and housing laws, including rent control laws, or other factors;
- timely access to material and labor required to renovate and maintain apartment communities;
- adverse changes in our markets, including future demand for apartment homes in those markets, barriers of entry into new markets, limitations on our ability to increase rental rates, our ability to identify and consummate attractive acquisitions and dispositions on favorable terms, our ability to reinvest sales proceeds successfully, and inability to accommodate any significant decline in market value of real estate serving as collateral for our debt and mortgage obligations;
- pandemics or epidemics and any effects on our employees, residents, and commercial tenants, third party vendors and suppliers, and apartment communities, as well as our cash flow, business, financial condition, and results of operations;
- the process and results of our review of strategic alternatives;
- reliance on a single asset class (multifamily) and certain geographic areas (Midwest and Mountain West regions) of the U.S.;
- inability to expand our operations into new or existing markets successfully;
- failure of new acquisitions to achieve anticipated results or be efficiently integrated;
- inability to complete lease-up of our projects on schedule and on budget;
- failure to reinvest proceeds from sales of properties into tax-deferred exchanges, which could necessitate special dividend and/or tax protection payments;
- inability to fund capital expenditures out of cash flow;
- inability to pay, or need to reduce, distributions on our common shares;
- inability to raise additional equity capital, if needed;
- financing risks, including our potential inability to meet existing covenants in our existing credit facilities or to obtain new debt or equity financing on favorable terms, or at all;
- level and volatility of interest or capitalization rates or capital market conditions;

- loss contingencies and the availability and cost of casualty insurance for losses;
- uninsured losses due to insurance deductibles, uninsured claims or casualties or losses in excess of applicable coverage;
- inability to continue to satisfy complex tax rules in order to maintain our status as a REIT for federal income tax purposes, inability of the Operating Partnership to satisfy the rules to maintain its status as a partnership for tax purposes, and the risk of changes in laws affecting REITs;
- inability to attract and retain qualified personnel;
- cyber liability or potential liability for breaches of our privacy or information security systems;
- recent developments in artificial intelligence, including software used to price rent in apartment communities;
- inability to address catastrophic weather, natural events, and climate change;
- inability to comply with laws and regulations, including those related to the environment, applicable to our business and any related investigations or litigation; and
- other risks identified in this Report, in our other reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), or in other documents that we publicly disseminate.

Readers should carefully review our financial statements and the notes thereto, as well as the section entitled "Risk Factors" in Item 1A of this Report and the other documents we file from time to time with the SEC.

In light of these uncertainties, the events anticipated by our forward-looking statements might not occur. We undertake no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. The foregoing review of factors that could cause our actual results to differ materially from those contemplated in any forward-looking statements included in this Report should not be construed as exhaustive.

PART I

Item 1. Business

OVERVIEW

Centerspace ("we," "us," "our," "Centerspace," or the "Company") is a real estate investment trust ("REIT") organized under the laws of North Dakota that is focused on the ownership, management, acquisition, development, and redevelopment of apartment communities. Our current emphasis is on making operational enhancements that will improve our residents' experience, redeveloping some of our existing apartment communities to meet current market demands, and acquiring new apartment communities in large, attractive markets, including the Minneapolis/St. Paul, Denver, Boulder/Fort Collins, and Salt Lake City metropolitan areas.

We focus on investing in markets characterized by stable and growing economic conditions, strong employment, and an attractive quality of life that we believe, in combination, lead to higher demand for our apartment homes and retention of our residents. As of December 31, 2025, we owned 61 apartment communities, containing 12,262 homes and having a total real estate investment amount, net of accumulated depreciation, of $1.9 billion. Our corporate headquarters is located in Minot, North Dakota. We also have a corporate office in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Website and Available Information

Our internet address is www.centerspacehomes.com. We make available, free of charge, through the "SEC filings" tab under the Investors section of our website, our annual reports on Form 10-K, quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, current reports on Form 8-K, amendments to such reports, proxy statements for our Annual Meetings of Shareholders, and other documents filed or furnished pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act as soon as reasonably practicable after such reports are filed with or furnished to the SEC. These reports are also available at www.sec.gov. We also make press releases, investor presentations, and certain supplemental information available on our website. Current copies of our Code of Conduct; Code of Ethics for Senior Financial Officers; and Charters for the Audit, Compensation, and Nominating and Governance Committees of our Board of Trustees are also available on our website under the "Corporate Governance" tab under the Investors section of our website. Copies of these documents are also available free of charge to shareholders upon request addressed to the Secretary at Centerspace, P.O. Box 1988, Minot, North Dakota 58702-1988. Information on our website does not constitute part of this Report.

STRUCTURE

We were organized under the laws of North Dakota on July 31, 1970 and have operated as a REIT under Sections 856-858 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), since our formation. On February 1, 1997, we were restructured as an Umbrella Partnership Real Estate Investment Trust ("UPREIT"), and we conduct our daily business operations primarily through our operating partnership, Centerspace, LP (the "Operating Partnership"). The sole general partner of Centerspace, LP is Centerspace, Inc., a North Dakota corporation and our wholly owned subsidiary. All of our assets and liabilities have been contributed to Centerspace, LP, through Centerspace, Inc., in exchange for the sole general partnership interest in Centerspace, LP. Centerspace, LP holds substantially all of the assets of the Company. Centerspace, LP conducts the operations of the business and is structured as a partnership with no publicly traded equity. Contributions of properties to the Company can be structured as tax-deferred transactions through the issuance of limited partnership units ("Units"), which is one of the reasons the Company is structured in this manner. As of December 31, 2025, Centerspace, Inc. owned an 85.6% interest in Centerspace, LP. The remaining interest in Centerspace, LP is held by individual limited partners.

BUSINESS STRATEGIES

Our business is focused on our mission - to provide a great home - for our residents, our team members and our investors. We fulfill this mission by providing renters well-located options in various price ranges. While fulfilling our mission, we seek consistent earnings growth through exceptional operations, disciplined capital allocation, and market knowledge and efficiencies. Our operations and investment strategies are the foundation for fulfilling our mission and furthering our vision of being a premier provider of apartment homes in vibrant communities by focusing on integrity and serving others.

Operations Strategy

We manage our apartment communities with a focus on providing an exceptional resident experience and maximizing our property financial results. Our initiatives to optimize our operations include:

- Providing an exceptional customer experience to enhance resident satisfaction and retention;
- Attracting, developing, and retaining diverse talent to enable a culture of engagement;
- Scaling our business to enhance efficiencies;
- Leveraging technology and systems; and
- Advancing an organizational commitment to Environmental, Social, and Governance ("ESG") initiatives.

Investment Strategy

Our business objective under our current strategic plan is to employ an investment strategy that encompasses:

- Seeking opportunities to increase distributable cash flow;
- Managing our balance sheet to maintain flexibility and enhance growth opportunities; and
- Investing in high-quality and efficient rental communities.

FINANCING AND DISTRIBUTIONS

To fund our investment and capital activities, we rely on a combination of issuance of common shares, preferred shares, Units in exchange for property, and borrowed funds. We regularly issue distributions to our shareholders and Unitholders. Each of these is described below.

At-the-Market Offering Program

We have entered into an equity distribution agreement in connection with an at-the-market offering program ("ATM Program") through which we may offer and sell common shares in amounts and at times determined by management. The maximum aggregate offering price of common shares available for offer and sale under the ATM Program is $500.0 million. Under the ATM Program, we may enter into separate forward sale agreements. The proceeds from the sale of common shares under the ATM Program may be used for general corporate purposes, including the funding of acquisitions, construction or mezzanine loans, community renovations, and the repayment of indebtedness. There were no sales of common shares under the ATM Program during the year ended December 31, 2025. During the year ended December 31, 2024, we issued 1.6 million common shares under the ATM Program at an average price of $71.66 per share, net of commissions. Total consideration, net of commissions and issuance costs, was approximately $112.0 million. As of December 31, 2025, we had common shares having an aggregate offering price of up to $262.9 million remaining available under the ATM Program.

Bank Financing and Other Debt

As of December 31, 2025, we owned 44 apartment communities that were not encumbered by mortgages and which were available to provide credit support for our unsecured borrowings. Our primary unsecured credit facility (the "Unsecured Credit Facility" or "Facility") is a revolving, multi-bank line of credit, with Bank of Montreal serving as administrative agent. In May 2025, we exercised the accordion feature of the Facility, expanding the borrowing capacity by $150.0 million to $400.0 million. Prior to the exercise of the accordion feature, the line of credit had total commitments and borrowing capacity of up to $250.0 million, based on the value of unencumbered properties. As of December 31, 2025, the additional borrowing availability was $246.0 million beyond the $154.0 million drawn, priced at an interest rate of 5.12%. As of December 31, 2024, the Company had additional borrowing availability of $206.0 million beyond the $44.0 million drawn under the Facility, priced at an interest rate of 5.81%. This Facility matures in July 2028, with an option to extend maturity for up to two additional six-month periods.

The Secured Overnight Financing Rate ("SOFR") is the benchmark alternative reference rate under the Facility. As amended, the interest rates on the line of credit are based on the consolidated leverage ratio, at our option, on either the lender's base rate plus a margin, ranging from 20-80 basis points, or daily or term SOFR, plus a margin that ranges from 120-180 basis points with the consolidated leverage ratio described under the Third Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, as amended.

We have an operating line of credit agreement with US Bank, N.A. which has a borrowing capacity of up to $10.0 million and pricing based on SOFR. This operating line of credit terminates in September 2026 and is designed to enhance treasury management activities and more effectively manage cash balances. As of December 31, 2025, there was $925,000 outstanding on this line of credit, priced at an interest rate of 5.91%, compared to $3.4 million outstanding as of December 31, 2024, priced at an interest rate of 6.56%.

We have a private shelf agreement with PGIM, Inc., an affiliate of Prudential Financial, Inc., and certain affiliates of PGIM, Inc. (collectively, "PGIM") under which we have issued $175.0 million in unsecured senior promissory notes ("Unsecured Shelf Notes"). On October 28, 2024, the shelf agreement was amended to extend the period of time during which we may borrow money to October 2027 and to increase the borrowing capacity to $300.0 million. We issued $125.0 million of senior unsecured promissory notes ("Unsecured Club Notes", and, collectively with the Unsecured Shelf Notes, the "unsecured senior notes") under a separate private note purchase agreement with PGIM and certain other lenders. The following table shows the notes issued under both agreements as of December 31, 2025 and 2024.

		Amount	Maturity Date	Fixed Interest Rate
Series A	$	75,000	September 13, 2029	3.84 %
Series B	$	50,000	September 30, 2028	3.69 %
Series C	$	50,000	June 6, 2030	2.70 %
Series 2021-A	$	35,000	September 17, 2030	2.50 %
Series 2021-B	$	50,000	September 17, 2031	2.62 %
Series 2021-C	$	25,000	September 17, 2032	2.68 %
Series 2021-D	$	15,000	September 17, 2034	2.78 %

We have a $198.9 million Fannie Mae Credit Facility Agreement ("FMCF"). The FMCF is currently secured by mortgages on 7 apartment communities. The notes are interest-only, with varying maturity dates of 7, 10, and 12 years, at a blended weighted average fixed interest rate of 2.78%. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the FMCF had a balance of $198.9 million.

As of December 31, 2025, we owned 10 apartment communities that served as collateral for mortgage loans, in addition to the apartment communities secured by the FMCF. All of these mortgage loans were non-recourse to us other than for standard carve-out obligations. Interest rates on mortgage loans range from 2.78% to 5.04%, and the mortgage loans have varying maturity dates from June 1, 2026, through June 1, 2060.

As of December 31, 2025, our ratio of total indebtedness to total gross real estate investments was 41.8%. Our borrowings are subject to customary covenants and limitations. We believe we were in compliance with all such covenants and limitations as of December 31, 2025.

Issuance of Securities in Exchange for Property

Our organizational structure allows us to issue shares and Units of Centerspace, LP in exchange for real estate contributions. The Units generally are redeemable, at our option, for cash or common shares on a one-for-one basis. Generally, Units receive the same per unit cash distributions as the per share dividends paid on common shares.

Our Declaration of Trust, as amended (our "Declaration of Trust"), does not contain any restrictions on our ability to offer limited partnership Units of Centerspace, LP in exchange for property. As a result, any decision to do so is vested solely in our Board of Trustees.

We had 59,400 Series D preferred units outstanding as of December 31, 2025. Each Series D preferred unit has a par value of $100. The Series D preferred unit holders receive a preferred distribution at the rate of 3.862% per year and have a put option which allows the holder to redeem any or all of the Series D preferred units for cash equal to the issue price. Each Series D preferred unit is convertible, at the holder's option, into 1.37931 Units. The Series D preferred units have an aggregate liquidation preference of $5.9 million. The holders of the Series D preferred units do not have voting rights.

We had 1.6 million Series E preferred units outstanding as of December 31, 2025. Each Series E preferred unit has a par value of $100. The Series E preferred unit holders receive a preferred distribution at the rate of 3.875% per year. Each Series E preferred unit is convertible, at the holder's option, into 1.20482 Units. The Series E preferred units have an aggregate liquidation preference of $157.0 million. The holders of Series E preferred units do not have voting rights.

Distributions to Shareholders

The Code requires a REIT to distribute 90% of its net taxable income, excluding net capital gains, to its shareholders, and to either distribute 100% net capital gains or pay a corporate level tax in lieu thereof. We have distributed, and intend to continue to distribute, enough of our taxable income to satisfy these requirements. Our general practice has been to target cash distributions to our common shareholders and the holders of limited partnership Units of approximately 65% to 90% of our funds from operations and to use the remaining funds for capital improvements or the reduction of debt. Distributions to our common shareholders and unitholders in the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024 totaled approximately 65% and 67%, respectively, on a per share and Unit basis of our funds from operations.

For additional information on our sources of liquidity and funds from operations, see Item 7, "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations -- Liquidity and Capital Resources."

HUMAN CAPITAL

We strive to foster a great work environment and offer an exceptional experience through competitive pay, benefits, and training programs to our employees, who we refer to as team members. Our objective is to attract, develop, retain, and reward individuals with the talent and skills to help support our business objectives and make our communities home for our residents. As of December 31, 2025, we had 349 employees (334 full-time and 15 part-time) across multiple states.

Compensation and benefits. Our total rewards program includes competitive compensation, a robust benefits program including: paid leave, paid holidays, volunteer time, health and dental benefits, discounted rental rates on our apartments, employee assistance program, life insurance, 401(k) plan, tuition reimbursement and more. We take great pride in our pay for performance strategy where team members are aligned with overall company performance as well as specific performance metrics based on roles. Our annual performance management process invites team members to complete a self-evaluation along with their manager's assessment. The results of these assessments are a component of the merit increase and pay for performance strategy. As of December 31, 2025, the average tenure of our team members was 4.7 years.

Environmental, Social, and Governance. As part of our ESG initiatives, we publish an annual ESG report detailing our efforts related to furthering our mission, including through providing corporate sponsorship in the communities which we serve, offering paid time off for team members to volunteer, training and compensation programs. During the year ended December 31, 2025, team members completed over 2,700 volunteer hours.

Training and development. Training our team members is important, and we facilitate that through a learning management system which allows us to provide custom training as well as utilize a library of multifamily focused courses specializing in customer service, sales, leadership, diversity, fair housing, safety, and cyber security. We partnered with Interplay Learning to bring a library of maintenance courses that provide immersive, hands-on learning using virtual reality to complete training designed for continuing education and onboarding. During the year ended December 31, 2025, team members completed approximately 14,800 training courses and attended nearly 6,600 online training events.

Team member engagement. We conduct a team member engagement survey annually, where we encourage all team members to provide feedback on our performance. The survey and others conducted throughout the year allow team members to provide feedback anonymously. The results are discussed and presented within functional teams and company-wide.

Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion. We are committed to creating a culture that is inclusive, equitable, and diverse by fostering an environment where everyone can participate and everybody belongs. We are committed to becoming a better reflection of the world we live in and the communities we serve. We strive to develop enduring change by recognizing talent with different backgrounds and experiences with shared goals, and by nurturing an environment where every team member can bring their whole selves to work. It is through an active focus on policies, procedures, and best practices along with increased awareness and education. As of December 31, 2025, 79.7% of our team members self-identified as white, 7.7% as Hispanic and/or Latino, 2.9% as Black or African American, and 9.7% other ethnicities. As of December 31, 2025, 47.0% of our total team members, 57.0% of our senior management, and 57.1% of our Board of Trustees self-identified as female.

INSURANCE

We purchase general liability and property insurance coverage for each of our properties. We also purchase limited terrorism, environmental, and flood insurance as well as other types of insurance coverage related to a variety of risks and exposures. There are certain types of losses that may not be covered or could exceed coverage limits. Due to changing market conditions, our insurance policies are also subject to increasing deductibles and coverage limits. Based on market conditions, we may change or potentially eliminate insurance coverages or face higher deductibles or other costs. Although we believe that we have adequate insurance coverage on our properties, we may incur losses, which could be material, due to uninsured risks, deductibles and/or losses in excess of coverage limits, any of which could have a material adverse effect on our business. See Item 1A. Risk Factors - "Our current or future insurance may not protect us against possible losses."

COMPETITION

There are numerous housing alternatives that compete with our apartment communities in attracting residents. Our apartment communities compete directly with other apartment communities, condominiums, and single-family homes in the areas in which our properties are located. If the demand for our apartment communities is reduced or competitors develop or acquire competing housing, rental and occupancy rates may decrease, which could have a material adverse effect on our business. Additionally, we compete with other real estate investors, including REITs, to acquire properties. This competition affects our ability to acquire properties we want to add to our portfolio and the cost of those acquisitions. See Item 1A. Risk Factors - "Competition could limit our ability to acquire attractive investment opportunities and could increase the costs of those opportunities, which may adversely affect our profitability and impede our growth."

GOVERNMENT REGULATION

See the discussion under the caption "Risks Related to Our Properties and Operations -- We may face opposition from governmental authorities or third parties alleging that our activities are anti-competitive" in Item 1A, Risk Factors, for information concerning the potential effects of compliance with anti-trust regulations. We may be responsible for potential liabilities under environmental laws" in Item 1A, Risk Factors, for information concerning the potential effects of environmental matters on our business, "Complying with laws benefiting disabled persons or other safety regulations and requirements may affect our costs and investment strategies" in Item 1A, Risk Factors, for information concerning the potential effects of compliance with disabled persons and other safety regulations on our business, "Changes in federal or state laws and regulations relating to climate change could increase our costs, including capital expenditures to improve the energy efficiency of our existing communities or new development communities without a corresponding increase in revenue" in Item 1A, Risk Factors, for information concerning the potential effects of climate change regulation on our business, "Complying with zoning and permitting law may affect our acquisition, redevelopment, and development costs" in Item 1A. Risk Factors, for information concerning the potential costs associated with zoning and permitting regulations, and "Multifamily residential properties may be subject to rent stabilization regulations and other restrictions which limit our ability to raise rents above specified maximum amounts and could give rise to claims by residents that their rents exceed such specified maximum amounts" in Item 1A. Risk Factors for information concerning potential rent control regulations.

Item 1A. Risk Factors

We face certain risks related to our ownership of apartment communities and operation of our business. Set forth below are the risks that we believe are material to our shareholders and unitholders. You should carefully consider the following risks in evaluating our properties, business, and operations. Our business, financial condition, cash flows, results of operations, value of our real estate assets and/or the value of an investment in our stock or Units are subject to various risks and uncertainties, including those set forth below, any of which could cause our actual operating results to vary materially from our recent results or from our anticipated future results.

Risks Related to Our Strategic Alternatives Review Process

Our Review of Strategic Alternatives May Not Result in an Executed or Consummated Transaction or Transactions, and the Process of Reviewing Strategic Alternatives or its Conclusion Could Adversely Affect our Business and Our Shareholders. On November 11, 2025, we confirmed that our Board of Trustees had initiated a review of the Company's strategic alternatives, and that the Board of Trustees is actively considering a wide range of options including, among other things, a sale, merger and other business combinations, as well as continuing to execute on our independent business strategy. We are actively working with our financial and legal advisors in connection with our strategic alternatives review process.

We may not be able to identify or consummate a suitable transaction or transactions and do not currently have any commitments relating to any transactions. We may not be able to successfully implement a strategic transaction we pursue, and even if we determine to pursue one or more strategic transactions, we may be unable to do so on acceptable financial terms and any such transaction or transactions may not improve the market price of our common stock. Pursuing strategic alternatives is subject to risks, including those outlined herein, and if we are unsuccessful in consummating a strategic transaction or transactions, our business could be materially adversely affected. We have and will continue to incur substantial expenses associated with identifying, evaluating and negotiating potential strategic alternatives. In addition, the process could negatively impact our ability to recruit and retain qualified personnel, business partners and other stakeholders important to our success. Further, the process may be time consuming and disruptive to our business operations, could divert the attention of management and our Board of Trustees from our business and could expose us to potential litigation in connection with this process or any resulting transaction or transactions.

Risks Related to Our Properties and Operations

We depend on residents for rental payments, which account for most of our revenue, and low occupancy rates or lease terminations could reduce our revenues from rents. The value of our properties and our ability to make distributions depend on the ability of our residents to generate enough income to pay their rents on time. The success of our properties depends on the occupancy levels, rental income and operating expenses of our properties and our business. Residents' inability to timely or fully pay their rents may be impacted by their employment prospects and other constraints on their personal finances, including debts, purchases and other factors. These and other changes beyond our control may adversely affect our residents' ability to make their required lease payments. If residents default on their leases or fail to renew their leases, we may be unable to re-lease the property for the rent previously received. Our apartment leases are generally for a term of 12 months or less. The short-term nature of these leases generally serves to reduce our risk to adverse effects of inflation and increases in operating costs, as our leases allow for adjustments in the rental rate at the time of renewal, which may enable us to seek increases. However, because these leases generally allow residents to leave at the expiration of the lease term without penalty, our rental revenues are impacted by declines in market rents more quickly than if our leases were for longer terms. Furthermore, we may be unable to increase rents, whether due to market conditions or applicable law, at a rate consistent with inflation or our increased operating costs. In addition, we may be unable to sell a property with low occupancy without incurring a loss. These events and others could cause us to reduce the amount of distributions we make to shareholders and may also cause the value of our common shares to decline.

Uncertain global macro-economic and political conditions could materially adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition. Our results of operations are materially affected by economic and political conditions in the United States and internationally, including inflation, deflation, interest rates, recession, availability of capital, and the effects of governmental initiatives to manage economic conditions. Actual or threatened wars or other international conflicts, such as those in Ukraine, the Middle East, and South America, resulting sanctions and related countermeasures by the United States and other countries, could lead to market disruptions, including significant volatility in the credit and capital markets and the economy in general, which could weaken our operations and financial performance. Any development or escalation of these conflicts, or any new conflicts, including those resulting from the policies of the U.S. Presidential Administration, could significantly affect worldwide political stability and cause turmoil in the capital markets and generally in the global financial system. Additionally, geopolitical and macroeconomic consequences of these events cannot be predicted but could severely impact the world economy.

There is also substantial uncertainty surrounding tariffs and international trade relations, and it is difficult for us to predict future trade measures and the impact they will have on our business and operations. New or existing tariffs, along with any additional tariffs or trade restrictions that may be implemented by the U.S. or retaliatory trade measures or tariffs implemented by other countries, could result in reduced economic activity, increased costs in operating our business, reduced spending on housing, limits on trade with the U.S. or other potentially adverse economic outcomes.

In addition, there may be political crises, civil unrest, or another outbreak or escalation of hostilities among various actors in the markets in which we operate, including Minneapolis, which could threaten the safety of our residents, subject our communities to increased risk of damage and could worsen the long-term attractiveness of our communities if they persist. The occurrence of any of these could cause current or potential residents to delay or decrease spending on housing as their budgets are impacted by economic or political conditions. The inability of current and potential residents to pay market rents may adversely affect our earnings and cash flows. In addition, deterioration of conditions in worldwide credit markets could limit our ability to obtain financing to fund our operations and capital expenditures.

Our financial performance is subject to risks associated with the real estate industry and ownership of apartment communities. These risks include, but are not limited to, the following:

- downturns in national, regional, and local economic conditions (particularly increases in unemployment);
- competition from other apartment communities and alternative housing;
- local real estate market conditions, including an oversupply of apartments or other housing, or a reduction in demand for apartment communities;
- the attractiveness of our apartment communities to residents as well as residents' perceptions of the safety, convenience, and attractiveness of our apartment communities and the areas in which they are located;
- changes in interest rates and availability of attractive financing that might make other housing options, like home ownership, more attractive;
- our ability to collect rents from our residents;
- vacancies, changes in rental rates, and the periodic need to repair, renovate, and redevelop our apartment communities;
- increases in operating costs, including real estate taxes, state and local taxes, insurance premiums and other expenses, utilities, and security costs, many of which remain constant when circumstances reduce revenues from a property;
- increases in compensation costs due to the tight labor market in many markets in which we operate;
- technological changes, such as artificial intelligence;
- our ability to provide adequate maintenance for our apartment communities;
- our ability to provide adequate insurance on our apartment communities; and
- changes in tax laws and other government regulations that could affect the value of REITs generally or our business in particular.

Our property acquisition activities may not produce the cash flows expected and could subject us to various risks that could adversely affect our operating results. We have acquired and intend to continue to pursue the acquisition of apartment communities, but the success of our acquisition activities is subject to many risks, including the following:

- acquisition agreements are subject to customary closing conditions, including completion of due diligence investigations, and we may be unable to complete an acquisition after making a non-refundable deposit and incurring other acquisition-related costs;
- actual results may differ from expected occupancy, rental rates, and operating expenses of acquired apartment communities, or from those of our existing apartment communities;
- we may be unable to obtain financing for acquisitions on favorable terms, or at all;
- competition for these properties could cause us to pay higher prices or prevent us from purchasing a desired property at all;
- we may be subject to unknown liabilities from acquired properties, with either no or limited recourse against prior owners or other third parties; and
- we may be unable to efficiently integrate new acquisitions into our existing operations.

We may be unable to acquire or develop properties and expand our operations into new or existing markets successfully. We intend to explore acquisitions or developments of properties in new and existing geographic markets. Acquiring or developing new properties and expanding into new markets introduces several risks, including, but not limited to, the following:

- we may be unable to identify suitable properties or other assets that meet our acquisition or development criteria or consummate acquisitions or developments on satisfactory terms, or at all;
- we may be unable to maintain consistent standards, controls, policies, and procedures, or realize the anticipated benefits of the acquisitions within our expected time frame, or at all;
- development and redevelopment activities associated with new properties are subject to a number of risks, including risks associated with construction work, cost overruns, project delays, or other factors that may increase the expected costs of a project;
- acquisitions and divestitures could divert our attention from our existing properties and could cause us to lose key employees or be unable to attract highly qualified new employees;
- unfamiliarity with the dynamics and prevailing market conditions or local government or permitting procedures of any new geographic markets could adversely affect our ability to successfully expand into or operate within those markets or cause us to become more dependent on third parties in new markets because of our inability to directly and efficiently manage and otherwise monitor new properties in new markets;
- we may make assumptions about the expected future performance of acquired properties, including expected occupancy, rental rates, and cash flows, that prove to be inaccurate; and
- we may improperly estimate the costs of repositioning or redeveloping an acquired property.

We also may abandon opportunities to enter new markets that we have begun to explore for any reason and may, as a result, fail to recover expenses already incurred.

We depend on a concentration of our investments in a single asset class, making our results of operations more vulnerable to a downturn or slowdown in the sector or other economic factors. Substantially all of our investments are concentrated in the multifamily housing sector. As a result, we are subject to risks inherent in investments in a single asset class. A downturn or slowdown in the demand for multifamily housing may have more pronounced effects on our business and results of operations or on the value of our assets than if our investments were diversified into more than one asset class.

Our operations are concentrated in certain regions of the United States, and we are subject to general economic conditions in the regions in which we operate. Our overall operations are concentrated in the Midwest and Mountain West regions of the United States. Our performance could be adversely affected by economic conditions in, and other factors relating to, these geographic areas, including supply and demand for apartments in these areas, zoning and other regulatory conditions, and competition from other communities and alternative forms of housing. In particular, our performance is influenced by job growth, wage growth, and unemployment rates in the areas in which we operate. If economic conditions, job growth, wage growth, and unemployment in any of these markets deteriorate or any of these areas experience natural disasters or more pronounced effects of climate change, the value of our portfolio, our results of operations, and our ability to make payments on our debt and to make distributions could be adversely affected.

Our business depends on our ability to continue to provide high quality housing and consistent operation of our apartment communities, the failure of which could adversely affect our business and results of operations. Our business depends on providing our residents with quality housing and reliable services, including utilities, along with the consistent operation of our communities and their associated amenities, including covered parking, swimming pools, clubhouses with fitness facilities, playground areas, and other similar features. We may be required to undertake significant capital expenditures to renovate or reconfigure our communities in order to attract new residents and retain existing residents. The delayed delivery, material reduction, or prolonged interruption in any of these services may cause our residents to terminate their leases, may lead to the reduction of rents, and may increase our costs. In addition, we may fail to provide quality housing and continuous access to amenities as a result of other factors, including mechanical failure, power failure, inclement weather, physical or electronic security breaches, vandalism or acts of terrorism, or other similar events. Any of these issues could cause our residents to terminate or fail to renew their leases, could expose us to additional costs or liability claims, and could damage our reputation, any of which could impact our ability to provide quality housing and consistent operation of our apartment communities, which in turn could materially affect our business and results of operations.

Inflation and price volatility in the global economy could hurt our business and results of operations. During the past several years, inflation in the United States rose to levels not experienced in recent decades, including rising energy prices, prices for consumer goods, interest rates, wages, and currency volatility. These increases and any fiscal or other policy interventions by the U.S. government in reaction to such events could harm our business by increasing our operating costs and our borrowing costs, as well as decreasing the capital available to our residents and prospective residents who wish to rent in our communities. Although we believe that we could increase rent to combat inflation, the cost to operate and maintain communities could increase faster or at a rate greater than our ability to increase rents, which could adversely affect our results of operations. We may also be limited by law in our ability to increase rents. See "Multifamily residential properties may be subject to rent stabilization regulations and other restrictions which limit our ability to raise rents above specified maximum amounts and could give rise to claims by residents that their rents exceed such specified maximum amounts." See "Adverse changes in tax laws and other laws may affect our liabilities relating to our properties and operations."

Catastrophic weather, natural events, and climate change could adversely affect our business. Some of our apartment communities are located in areas that may experience catastrophic weather and other natural events from time to time, including snow or ice storms, fires, flooding, tornadoes, or other severe or inclement weather. These natural events could cause damage or losses that may be greater than insured levels. If a loss occurs in excess of insured limits, we could lose all or a portion of our investment in an affected property as well as future revenue from that apartment community. We may continue to be obligated to repay mortgage indebtedness or other obligations related to an affected apartment community.

If climate change causes an increase in catastrophic weather events, such as severe storms, fires, or floods, our properties may be susceptible to an increased risk of weather-related damage. In addition, we may experience extreme weather conditions and prolonged changes in precipitation and temperature, all of which could cause physical damage to, and a decrease in demand for, our apartment communities located in these areas. If the effect of any such climate change were to be material, or occur for a long time, our business may be adversely affected.

Our current or future insurance may not protect us against possible losses. We carry comprehensive liability, fire, cyber, extended coverage, and other insurance covering our properties and our business at levels that we believe to be adequate and comparable to coverage customarily obtained by others in our industry. However, the coverage limits of our current or future policies may be insufficient to cover the full cost of repair or replacement of all potential losses, or our level of coverage may not remain available in the future or, if available, may be available only at unacceptable cost or with unacceptable terms. We also do not maintain coverage for certain catastrophic events like hurricanes and earthquakes because the cost of such insurance is deemed by management to be higher than the risk of loss due to the location of our properties. In most cases, we have to renew our insurance policies annually and negotiate acceptable terms for coverage, exposing us to the volatility of the insurance markets, including the possibility of rate increases. In addition, a reduction of the number of insurance providers or the unwillingness of existing insurance providers to write insurance for multifamily properties may reduce the potential availability and increase the cost for obtaining insurance on our properties. Any material increases in insurance rates or decrease in available coverage in the future could adversely affect our results of operations.

Changes in federal or state laws and regulations relating to climate change could increase our costs, including capital expenditures to improve the energy efficiency of our existing communities or new development communities without a corresponding increase in revenue. Among other things, "green" building codes may seek to reduce emissions and other environmental impacts through the imposition of standards for design, construction materials, water and energy usage and efficiency and waste management. The imposition of such requirements in the future, including the imposition of new energy efficiency standards or requirements relating to resistance to inclement weather, could increase the costs of maintaining or improving our properties without a corresponding increase in revenue, thereby adversely impacting our financial condition or results of operations. The effect of climate change also may increase the cost of, or make unavailable, property insurance or other hazard insurance on terms we find acceptable or necessary to adequately protect our properties.

Multifamily residential properties may be subject to rent stabilization regulations and other restrictions which limit our ability to raise rents above specified maximum amounts and could give rise to claims by residents that their rents exceed such specified maximum amounts. Rent control or rent stabilization laws and other regulatory restrictions may limit our ability to increase rents and otherwise charge residents fees and pass through new or increased operating costs to our residents. There has been a recent increase in municipalities and other local governments, including those in locations where we own properties, considering or being urged by advocacy groups to consider rent control or rent stabilization laws and regulations or take other actions which could limit our ability to raise rents based solely on market conditions. In addition, the multifamily housing industry has faced increased scrutiny over fees charged to residents. In January 2025, the Federal Trade Commission filed a lawsuit against the nation's largest landlord for deceiving consumers about rent prices by charging "numerous mandatory fees" in addition to monthly rent. These restrictions, initiatives, government enforcement actions and any other future enactments of rent control or rent stabilization laws or other laws regulating multifamily housing, as well as any lawsuits against us arising from such rent control or other laws, may reduce rental revenues or increase operating costs. Such laws and regulations would limit our ability to charge market rents and fees, increase rents, evict residents, or recover increases in our operating expenses and could reduce the value of our multifamily properties or make it more difficult for us to dispose of properties in certain circumstances. Expenses associated with our investment in these multifamily properties, such as debt service, real estate taxes, insurance and maintenance costs, are generally not reduced when circumstances reduce rental income from the community. Furthermore, such regulations may impair our ability to attract higher-paying residents to our properties.

We may face opposition from governmental authorities or third parties alleging that our activities are anti-competitive. The residential real estate industry has recently faced increased scrutiny from regulators claiming that certain market tools employed by property owners to evaluate market rents leads to anti-competitive behavior. In January 2025, the U.S. Justice Department and the Attorneys General for several states filed complaints against six of the nation's largest landlords alleging that those landlords committed antitrust violations by participating in algorithmic pricing schemes that harmed renters. Although we were not a party to the lawsuit, we cannot assure you that we will not face a similar inquiry. If we were to face such a lawsuit or investigation, we may have to spend a significant amount of time and expense to respond and could be required to pay penalties or settle such claims. In addition, we may be forced to abandon certain tools we use to evaluate rental markets, forego certain acquisitions, or dispose of one or more of our properties. Any increased oversight and regulation or new laws could increase our compliance expenses, restrict or curtail certain of our operating activities, and increase the risk of third-party litigation. Any of the foregoing could have an adverse impact on our results of operations.

Competition could limit our ability to acquire attractive investment opportunities and could increase the costs of those opportunities, which may adversely affect our profitability and impede our growth. We compete with many kinds of institutions, including other REITs, private partnerships, individuals, pension funds, and banks in attracting residents and finding investment opportunities. Many of these institutions are active in the markets in which we invest and have greater financial and other resources than we do, including access to capital on more favorable terms. Our apartment communities compete directly with other multifamily apartment communities, single-family homes, condominiums, and other short-term rentals. This competition could increase prices for properties of the type we may pursue. As a result, we may be unable to acquire attractive apartment communities at desirable prices, or at all, which could adversely affect our profitability and impede our growth.

Because real estate investments are relatively illiquid and various other factors limit our ability to dispose of assets, we may be unable to sell properties when appropriate. We may have limited ability to change our portfolio by selling properties quickly in response to our strategic plan and changes in economic or other conditions, the prohibitions under the federal income tax laws on REITs holding property for sale, and related regulations. In some cases, the Code imposes penalties on a REIT that sells property held for less than two years and limits the number of properties it can sell in a given year. Our ability to dispose of assets also may be limited by constraints on our ability to use disposition proceeds to make acquisitions on financially attractive terms. Some of our properties were acquired using limited partnership Units of Centerspace, LP, our operating partnership, and are subject to certain tax-protection agreements that restrict our ability to sell these properties in transactions that would create current taxable income to the former owners. As a result, we are motivated to structure the sale of these assets as tax-free exchanges, the requirements of which are technical and may be difficult to achieve.

Inability to manage growth effectively may adversely affect our operating results. We have experienced significant growth at various times in the past and may do so in the future, mainly through the acquisition of additional real estate properties. Effective management of rapid growth presents challenges, including:

- the need to expand our management team and staff;
- the need to enhance internal operating systems and controls; and
- the ability to consistently achieve targeted returns on individual properties.

We may be unable to maintain similar rates of growth in the future or manage our growth effectively.

Adverse changes in tax laws and other laws may affect our liabilities relating to our properties and operations. Increases in real estate taxes, including recent property tax increases in several of the markets in which we operate, and service and transfer taxes may adversely affect our cash available for distributions and our ability to service our debt. Similarly, changes in laws that increase the potential liability for environmental conditions or that affect development, construction, and safety requirements may result in significant unanticipated costs. Future enactment of rent control or rent stabilization laws or other laws regulating apartment communities may reduce rental revenues or increase operating costs. See "Multifamily residential properties may be subject to rent stabilization regulations and other restrictions which limit our ability to raise rents above specified maximum amounts and could give rise to claims by residents that their rents exceed such specified maximum amounts."

We may be unable to retain or attract qualified management. We depend on our senior officers for essentially all aspects of our business operations. Our senior officers have experience in the real estate industry, and the loss of any one of them would likely have a significant adverse effect on our operations and could adversely impact our relationships with lenders and industry personnel. Except for our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, we do not have employment contracts with any of our senior officers. The employment contracts require between 30 and 60 days' advance notice before termination by our Chief Executive Officer or Chief Financial Officer. Any other senior officer may terminate his or her relationship with us at any time, without providing advance notice. If we fail to effectively manage a transition to new personnel, or if we fail to attract and retain qualified and experienced personnel on acceptable terms, it could adversely affect our business.

We may be unable to attract and retain qualified employees. We face tight labor markets in many markets in which we operate, and we depend on employees at our apartment communities to provide attractive homes for our residents. Further, inflation may necessitate increasing employee wages and salaries to retain our employees. The loss of key personnel at these apartment communities, or the inability or cost of replacing such personnel at such communities, could hurt our business and results of operations.

The failure of third-party management companies to properly manage our properties could adversely affect our results of operations. We rely on property management companies to manage some of our properties. These management companies are responsible for, among other things, leasing and marketing rental units, evaluating and selecting tenants, collecting rent, paying certain operating expenses and maintaining our properties. If these property management companies do not perform their duties properly, the occupancy rates and rental rates at the properties managed by such property managers may decline and the expenses at such properties may increase. In addition, the loss of our property managers could result in a decrease in occupancy rates, rental rates or both or an increase in expenses. In addition, we may be unable to terminate an underperforming management company. If we are unable to terminate an underperforming property manager on a timely basis, our occupancy and rental rates may decrease and our expenses may increase.

We face risks associated with cyber-attacks, cyber intrusions, or otherwise, which could pose a risk to our systems, networks, and services. We face risks associated with security breaches or disruptions, whether through cyber-attacks or cyber intrusions over the Internet, malware, computer viruses, attachments to emails, or persons inside our organization. The risk of a security breach or disruption, particularly through cyber-attacks or cyber intrusion, including by computer hackers, foreign governments, and cyber terrorists, has generally increased as the number, intensity, and sophistication of attempted attacks and intrusions around the world have increased. In the normal course of business, we and our service providers (including service providers engaged in providing web hosting, property management, leasing, accounting and payroll software/services) collect and retain certain personal information provided by our residents, employees, and vendors. We also rely extensively on computer systems to process transactions and manage our business.

Even the most well-protected information, networks, systems, and facilities remain potentially vulnerable because the techniques used in such attempted security breaches evolve and generally are not recognized until launched against a target. In some cases, these breaches are designed to be undetected and, in fact, may not be detected. Accordingly, we and our service providers may be unable to anticipate these techniques or to implement adequate security barriers or other preventative measures, thereby making it impossible to entirely mitigate this risk. The risk of a breach or security failure, particularly through cyber-attacks or cyber-intrusion, has generally increased because of the rise in new technologies, including artificial intelligence, and the increased sophistication and activities of the perpetrators of attempted attacks and intrusions. A security breach or other significant disruption involving computer networks and related systems could cause substantial costs and other negative effects, including litigation, remediation costs, costs to deploy additional protection strategies, compromising of confidential information, and reputational damage adversely affecting investor confidence.

The costs of mitigating cybersecurity risks are significant and are likely to increase in the future. These costs include, but are not limited to, retaining services of cybersecurity experts, maintaining insurance, compliance costs arising out of existing and future cybersecurity, data protection, privacy laws, regulations, and related reporting obligations, and costs related to maintaining data backups and other damage-mitigation services.

We previously suffered a ransomware attack on our information technology systems. The incident did not have a material impact on our business, operations, or financial results. However, despite every measure we take to address cybersecurity matters, and although we have not experienced any material losses relating to any cyber-attack, we cannot assure you that we will not suffer losses related to cyber-attacks in the future.

Security breaches could compromise our information and expose us to liability, which would cause our business and reputation to suffer. Information security risks for data privacy have generally increased in recent years because of the rise in new technologies and the increased sophistication and activities of perpetrators of cyber-attacks. In the ordinary course of our business we acquire and store sensitive, private data, including intellectual property, our proprietary business information and personally identifiable information of our prospective and current residents, our employees, our unitholders and third-party service providers in our offices and on our networks and website and on third-party provider networks. We may share some of this information with service providers who assist us with certain aspects of our business. The secure processing and maintenance of this information is critical to our operations and business and growth strategies. While we and our service providers employ a variety of data security measures to protect confidential information on our systems and periodically review and improve our data security measures, we cannot provide assurance that we or our service providers will be able to prevent unauthorized access to this personal information, that our efforts to maintain the security and integrity of the information that we and our service providers collect will be effective, or that attempted security breaches or disruptions would not succeed or be damaging. Any such breach could compromise our networks, and the information stored there could be accessed, publicly disclosed, lost or stolen. Any such access, disclosure, or other loss of information could lead to legal claims or proceedings, liability under laws that protect the privacy of personal information, regulatory penalties, disruption to our operations and the services we provide to customers or damage our reputation. In addition, a security breach could require that we expend significant additional resources to repair and enhance our information security systems. Furthermore, we could experience material harm to our financial condition, cash flows, and the market price of our common shares, misappropriation of assets, compromise or corruption of confidential information collected in the course of conducting our business, liability for stolen information or assets, increased cybersecurity protection and insurance costs, regulatory enforcement, litigation, and damage to our stakeholder relationships.

The development and use of artificial intelligence in the workplace presents risks and challenges that may adversely impact our business and operating results. We have begun leveraging artificial intelligence for certain of our operations. Failure to invest adequately in artificial intelligence may result in us lagging behind our competitors in terms of improving operational efficiency and achieving superior outcomes for our business and our residents. As we embark on these initiatives, we may encounter challenges such as a shortage of appropriate data to train internal artificial intelligence models, a lack of skilled talent to effectively execute our strategy of leveraging artificial intelligence internally, or the possibility that the tools we use may not deliver the intended value. Use of third-party artificial intelligence tools can also bring information security, data privacy and legal risks. Failure to successfully implement and manage artificial intelligence could negatively impact our business and operating results.

We may be responsible for potential liabilities under environmental laws. Under various federal, state and local laws, ordinances, and regulations, we, as a current or previous owner or operator of real estate, may be liable for the costs of removal or remediation of hazardous or toxic substances in, on, around, or under that property. These laws may impose liability without regard to whether we knew of, or were responsible for, the presence of the hazardous or toxic substances. The presence of these substances, or the failure to properly remediate any property containing these substances, may adversely affect our ability to sell or rent the affected property or to borrow funds using the property as collateral. In arranging for the disposal or treatment of hazardous or toxic substances, we also may be liable for the costs of removal or remediation of these substances at that disposal or treatment facility, whether or not we own or operate the facility. In connection with our current or former ownership (direct or indirect), operation, management, development, and control of real properties, we may be liable for removal or remediation costs for hazardous or toxic substances at those properties, as well as certain other costs, including governmental fines and claims for injuries to persons and property. Although we are unaware of any such claims associated with our existing properties that would have a significant adverse effect on our business, potential future costs, and damage claims may be substantial and could exceed any insurance coverage we may have for such events or such coverage may not exist. The presence of such substances, or the failure to properly remediate any such impacts, may adversely affect our ability to borrow against, develop, sell, or rent the affected property. Some environmental laws create or allow a government agency to impose a lien on the impacted property in favor of the government for damages and costs it incurs as a result of responding to hazardous or toxic substances.

Environmental laws also govern the presence, maintenance, and removal of asbestos, and require that owners or operators of buildings containing asbestos properly manage and maintain the asbestos; notify and train those who may come into contact with asbestos; and undertake special precautions if asbestos would be disturbed during renovation or demolition of a building. Indoor air quality issues may also require special investigation and remediation. These air quality issues can result from inadequate ventilation, chemical contaminants from indoor or outdoor sources, or natural or biological contaminants such as radon, molds, pollen, viruses, and bacteria. Asbestos or air quality remediation programs could be costly, necessitate the temporary relocation of some or all of the property's residents, or require rehabilitation of an affected property.

It is generally our policy to obtain a Phase I environmental study on each property that we seek to acquire. A Phase I environmental study generally includes a visual inspection of the property and the surrounding areas, an examination of current and historical uses of the property and the surrounding areas, and a review of relevant state and federal documents but does not involve invasive techniques such as soil and ground water sampling. If the Phase I indicates any possible environmental problems, our policy is to order a Phase II study, which involves testing the soil and ground water for actual hazardous substances. However, Phase I and Phase II environmental studies, or any other environmental studies undertaken with respect to any of our current or future properties, may not reveal the full extent of potential environmental liabilities. We currently do not carry insurance for environmental liabilities. Any environmental liability we encounter could hurt our results of operations and financial condition.

Expanding social media usage could present new risks. The use of social media could cause us to suffer broad reputational damage. Negative posts or comments about us through social media, whether by residents or prospective residents, could damage our reputation or that of our apartment communities, whether or not such claims or posts are valid, which in turn could adversely affect our business and results of operations. Similarly, disclosure of any non-public sensitive information relating to our business or our residents or prospective residents could damage our reputation, our business, or our results of operations. The continuing evolution of social media will present us with new and ongoing challenges and risks, the effects of which we cannot predict.

Risks related to properties under development, redevelopment, or newly developed properties may adversely affect our financial performance. We may be unable to obtain, or may suffer delays in obtaining, necessary zoning, land-use, building, occupancy, and other required governmental permits and authorizations, which could lead to increased costs or abandonment of projects. We may be unable to obtain financing on favorable terms, or at all, and we may be unable to complete lease-up of a property on schedule. The resulting time required for development, redevelopment, and lease-up means that we may have to wait years for significant cash returns.

Complying with zoning and permitting law may affect our acquisition, redevelopment, and development costs. We face risks associated with zoning and permitting of our communities, most of which are governed by municipal, county, and state regulations. We may be liable for costs associated with bringing communities into compliance and may face costs or delays when seeking approvals for redevelopment or development projects within our portfolio. Some regulations related to zoning or permitting allow governmental entities to discontinue operations if violations are left uncured, which would significantly impact our business. Although we are not aware of any non-compliance at our communities, any failure to comply could have a significant adverse effect on our business.

Future cash flows may be insufficient to ensure recoverability of the carrying value of our real estate assets. We periodically evaluate the recoverability of the carrying value of our real estate assets under United States generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). Factors considered in evaluating impairment of our real estate assets held for investment include recurring net operating losses and other significant adverse changes in general market conditions that are considered permanent. Generally, a real estate asset held for investment is not considered impaired if the estimated undiscounted future cash flows of the asset over its estimated holding period exceed the asset's net book value at the balance sheet date. Assumptions used to estimate annual and residual cash flow and the estimated holding period of these assets require the judgment of management. If we cannot recover the carrying value of our real estate assets, our results of operations could suffer.

Complying with laws benefiting disabled persons or other safety regulations and requirements may affect our costs and investment strategies. Federal, state, and local laws and regulations designed to improve disabled persons' access to and use of buildings, including the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, may require modifications to, or restrict renovations of, existing buildings that may require unexpected expenditures. These laws and other safety regulations may require us to add structural features to buildings under construction. Legislation or regulations that may be adopted in the future may impose further burdens or restrictions on us with respect to improved access to, and use of these buildings by, disabled persons. Noncompliance could cause the imposition of fines by government authorities or the award of damages to private litigants. The costs of complying with these laws and regulations may be substantial, and limits or restrictions on construction, or the completion of required renovations, may limit the implementation of our investment strategy or reduce overall returns on our investments.

A potential future pandemic or other outbreak of a highly infectious or contagious diseases may materially and adversely impact and disrupt our business, income, cash flow, results of operations, financial condition, liquidity, prospects, and ability to service our debt obligations, and our ability to pay dividends and other distributions to our equityholders. The COVID-19 pandemic had, and any future pandemic may have, an impact on our financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows, as well as an adverse effect our residents and commercial tenants, the real estate market, and the global economy and financial markets generally. The effects of any such outbreak are highly uncertain and cannot be predicted with confidence, including the scope, severity, and duration of the epidemic, pandemic, or other outbreak, the actions taken to contain it or mitigate its impact, and the direct and indirect economic effects of the outbreak and containment measures. Global outbreaks of infectious diseases may also exacerbate certain of the other risks described in this "Risk Factors" section.

Risks Related to Our Indebtedness and Financings

Our inability to renew, repay, or refinance our debt may prompt losses. We incur considerable debt in the ordinary course of our business and in connection with acquisitions of real properties. Because we have a limited ability to retain earnings as a result of the REIT distribution requirements, we will generally have to refinance debt that matures with new debt or equity. We are subject to the normal risks associated with debt financing, including the risks that:

- our cash flow will be insufficient to meet required payments of principal and interest, particularly if net operating income is reduced significantly due to the effects of the uncertain global macroeconomic and political conditions including inflation, and price volatility;
- we will not be able to renew, refinance, or repay our indebtedness when due; and
- the terms of any renewal or refinancing are at terms less favorable than the terms of our current indebtedness.

These risks increase when credit markets are tight and interest rates are high. In general, when the credit markets are tight, we may encounter resistance from lenders when we seek financing or refinancing for properties or proposed acquisitions, and the terms of such financing or refinancing are likely to be less favorable to us than the terms of our current indebtedness.

We anticipate that we will need to refinance a significant portion of our outstanding debt as it matures. We cannot guarantee that any refinancing of debt with other debt will be possible on terms that are favorable or acceptable to us. If we cannot refinance, extend, or pay principal payments due at maturity with the proceeds of other capital transactions, our cash flows may not be sufficient in every year to repay debt as it matures. If we cannot refinance our indebtedness on acceptable terms, or at all, we may be forced to dispose of one or more properties on disadvantageous terms, which may lead to losses. These losses could have a significant adverse effect on our business, our ability to make distributions to our shareholders, and our ability to pay amounts due on our debt. If a property is mortgaged to secure payment of indebtedness and we cannot meet mortgage payments or refinance the debt at maturity, the mortgagor could foreclose upon the property, appoint a receiver, and receive an assignment of rents and leases or pursue other remedies, including taking ownership of the property, all with a consequent loss of revenues and asset value. Foreclosures also could affect our ability to obtain new debt and could create taxable income without accompanying cash proceeds, thereby hindering our ability to meet the REIT distribution requirements of the Code and impeding our ability to obtain financing for our other properties.

Restrictive covenants in our debt agreements may limit our operating and financial flexibility, and our inability to comply with these covenants could have significant implications. Our indebtedness, which at December 31, 2025 totaled outstanding borrowings of approximately $1.1 billion, contains significant restrictions and covenants. These restrictions and covenants include financial covenants relating to fixed charge coverage ratios, maximum secured debt, maintenance of unencumbered asset value, and total debt to total asset value, among others and certain non-financial covenants. These may limit our ability to make future investments and dispositions, add incremental secured and recourse debt, and add overall leverage. Our ability to comply with these covenants will depend on our future performance, which may be affected by events beyond our control. Our failure to comply with these covenants would be an event of default. An event of default under the terms of our indebtedness would permit the lenders to accelerate indebtedness under effected agreements, which would include agreements that contain cross-acceleration provisions with respect to other indebtedness.

Mortgage debt obligations expose us to the possibility of foreclosure, which could result in the loss of our investment in a property or group of properties subject to mortgage debt. As of December 31, 2025, 17 of our properties were encumbered by mortgages. Incurring mortgage and other secured debt obligations increases our risk of property losses because defaults on indebtedness secured by property may prompt foreclosure actions initiated by lenders and ultimately our loss of the property securing any loans for which we are in default. Any foreclosure on a mortgaged property or group of properties could adversely affect the overall value of our portfolio of properties. For tax purposes, a foreclosure of any of our properties that is subject to a nonrecourse mortgage loan would be treated as a sale of the property for a purchase price equal to the outstanding balance of the debt secured by the mortgage. If the outstanding balance of the debt secured by the mortgage exceeds our tax basis in the property, we would recognize taxable income on foreclosure, but would not receive any cash proceeds, which could hurt our ability to meet the distribution requirements applicable to REITs under the Code.

Conditions in the capital and credit markets, including higher interest rates, may adversely affect our access to various sources of capital or financing and the cost of capital, which could affect our business activities and earnings. In periods when the capital and credit markets experience significant volatility, the amounts, sources, and cost of capital available to us may be adversely affected. If sufficient sources of external financing are unavailable to us on cost effective terms, we could be forced to limit our acquisition, development, and redevelopment activities or take other actions to fund our business activities and repay our debt, such as selling assets. If we are able and choose to access capital at a higher cost than we have experienced in recent years (reflected in higher interest rates for debt financing or a lower stock price for equity financing), our earnings per share and cash flow could be adversely affected.

We have incurred, and may in the future incur, additional indebtedness that bears interest at a variable rate. We also have an Unsecured Credit Facility that bears interest at variable rates based on amounts drawn. An increase in interest rates would increase our interest expense and increase the cost of refinancing existing debt and issuing new debt, which would adversely affect our cash flow and ability to make distributions to our shareholders. In addition, if we need to repay existing debt during periods of rising interest rates, we could have to liquidate one or more of our investments at times that may not permit realization of the maximum return on such investments. The effect of prolonged interest rate increases could adversely impact our ability to make acquisitions and develop properties. The potential for rising interest rates could limit our ability to refinance portions of our fixed-rate indebtedness when it matures and would increase our interest costs. As a result, any increase in interest rates could reduce the cash available for distribution to shareholders.

Financial and real estate market disruptions could adversely affect the multifamily property sector's ability to obtain financing from Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac, which could adversely impact us. The Federal National Mortgage Association ("Fannie Mae") and the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation ("Freddie Mac") are major sources of financing for the multifamily housing sector, and both have historically experienced losses due to credit-related expenses, securities impairments, and fair value losses. If new U.S. government regulations (i) heighten Fannie Mae's and Freddie Mac's underwriting standards, (ii) adversely affect interest rates, or (iii) reduce the amount of capital they can make available to the multifamily sector, we could lose, in part or completely, a vital resource for multifamily financing. Any potential reduction in loans, guarantees and credit enhancement arrangements from Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac could jeopardize the effectiveness of the multifamily housing sector's available financing and decrease the amount of available liquidity and credit that could be used to acquire and diversify our portfolio of multifamily assets. In addition, any phase-out of Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac, change in their mandates, or reduction in government support for apartment communities generally could result in adverse changes to interest rates, capital availability, development of additional apartment communities, and the value of these communities. All of the foregoing could materially adversely affect our financial condition, results of operations and ability to make distributions to our investors.

We hold a portion of our cash and cash equivalents in deposit accounts that could be adversely affected if the financial institutions holding such deposits fail. We maintain our cash and cash equivalents at insured financial institutions. The combined account balances at each institution periodically exceed the FDIC insurance coverage of $250,000. As a result, there is a concentration of credit risk related to amounts in excess of FDIC insurance coverage. We do not have any bank accounts, loans to or from, or any other amounts due to or from any recently failed financial institution, nor have we experienced any losses to date on our cash and cash equivalents held in bank accounts. However, there is no assurance that financial institutions in which we hold our cash and cash equivalents will not fail, in which case we may be subject to a risk of loss or delay in accessing all or a portion of our funds exceeding the FDIC insurance coverage, which could adversely impact our short-term liquidity, ability to operate our business, and financial performance.

Interest rate hedging arrangements may lead to losses. From time to time, we use interest rate swaps and other hedging instruments to manage our interest rate risks. Although these arrangements may partially protect us against rising interest rates, they also may reduce the benefits to us if interest rates decline. If a hedging arrangement is not indexed to the same rate as the indebtedness that is hedged, we may be exposed to losses to the extent that the rate governing the indebtedness and the rate governing the hedging arrangement change independently of each other, and nonperformance by the other party to the hedging arrangement also may subject us to increased credit risks. To minimize any counterparty credit risk, we enter into hedging arrangements only with investment grade financial institutions. These arrangements may lead to losses, which could hurt our financial condition.

Risks Related to Our Shares

Corporate social responsibility, specifically related to ESG, may impose additional costs and expose us to new risks. Environmental, social and governance ("ESG") matters have become increasingly important to investors and other stakeholders. Certain organizations that provide corporate risk and corporate governance advisory services to investors have developed scores and ratings to evaluate companies based on ESG metrics. ESG evaluations are vital to many investors and stakeholders. Many investors use ESG factors to guide their investment decisions. Many investment funds focus on positive ESG business practices and sustainability scores when making investments and may consider a company's sustainability efforts and score when making an investment decision. In addition, investors, particularly institutional investors, may use ESG or sustainability scores issued by proxy advisory firms or other third parties to benchmark companies against their peers. Furthermore, our residents and employees, as well as prospective residents and employees, may use sustainability scores in deciding whether to rent from or work with us. On the other hand, investor backlash, political pressure, and legal threats over ESG efforts have occurred. Although we make ESG disclosures and undertake sustainability and diversity initiatives, there can be no assurance that we will score highly on ESG matters or satisfy all stakeholders. The criteria by which companies are rated may change, which could cause us to perform differently or worse than we have in the past. The focus and activism related to ESG and related matters may constrain our business operations or increase expenses. In addition, we may face reputational damage if our corporate responsibility procedures or standards do not meet the standards set by various constituencies, including our residents. The occurrence of any of the foregoing could weaken our reputation, the price of our stock and our business, financial condition, and results of operations, including increased capital expenditures and operating expenses.

Payment of distributions on our common shares is not guaranteed. A decrease in rental revenue, an increase in funding to support our acquisition and development needs, or other unmet liquidity needs could have an adverse effect on our ability to pay distributions to our shareholders or the Operating Partnership's unitholders.

Our Board of Trustees must approve any stock distributions and may elect at any time, or from time to time, and for an indefinite duration, to reduce or not pay the distributions payable on our common shares. Our Board may reduce distributions for many reasons, including, but not limited to, the following:

- operating and financial results that may not support the current distribution payment;

- unanticipated costs, capital requirements, or cash requirements;
- a conclusion that the payment of distributions would cause us to breach the terms of certain agreements or contracts, such as financial ratio covenants in our debt financing documents; or
- other factors the Board of Trustees may consider relevant.

We are a holding company with limited operations and, as such, we will rely on funds received from our Operating Partnership to pay liabilities, and the interests of our shareholders will be structurally subordinated to all liabilities and obligations of our Operating Partnership and its subsidiaries. We are a holding company and conduct substantially all of our operations through our Operating Partnership. We do not have, apart from an interest in our Operating Partnership, any significant independent operations. As a result, we rely on distributions from our Operating Partnership to pay any dividends we might declare on our common shares. We also rely on distributions from our Operating Partnership to meet our obligations, including any tax liability on taxable income allocated to us from our Operating Partnership. In addition, because we are a holding company, claims of shareholders are structurally subordinated to all existing and future liabilities and obligations (whether or not for borrowed money) of our Operating Partnership and its subsidiaries. Therefore, in the event of our bankruptcy, liquidation or reorganization, our assets and those of our Operating Partnership and its subsidiaries will be available to satisfy the claims of our shareholders only after all of our and our Operating Partnership's and its subsidiaries' liabilities and obligations have been paid in full.

Our future growth depends, in part, on our ability to raise additional equity capital, which could dilute the interests of our common shareholders. Our future growth depends on, among other things, our ability to raise equity capital, including through our ATM Program, and issue limited partnership Units of our Operating Partnership. Sales of substantial amounts of our common or preferred shares, or the perception that such sales or issuances might occur, may dilute the interests of the current common shareholders and could adversely affect the market price of our common shares. In addition, as a REIT, we are required to make distributions to holders of our equity securities of at least 90% of our REIT taxable income, determined before a deduction for dividends paid and excluding any net capital gain. This limits our ability to retain cash or earnings to fund future growth and makes us more dependent on raising funds through other means, which may include raising additional equity capital. Future sales of common shares, preferred shares, or other securities may dilute current shareholders and could have an adverse impact on the market price of our common shares.

We may issue additional classes or series of our shares of beneficial interest with rights and preferences that are superior to the rights and preferences of our common shares. Our Declaration of Trust provides for an unlimited number of shares of beneficial interest. Without the approval of our common shareholders, our Board of Trustees may establish additional classes or series of our shares of beneficial interest, and such classes or series may have dividend rights, conversion rights, voting rights, terms of redemption, redemption prices, liquidation preferences, or other rights and preferences that are superior to the rights of the holders of our common shares. We have a shelf registration statement that enables us to sell an undetermined number of equity and other securities listed in the prospectus. Future sales of preferred shares or other securities may adversely affect the rights of common shareholders and have an adverse impact on the market price of our common shares.

Certain provisions of our Declaration of Trust may delay, limit, or prevent a change in control and deter a takeover. To maintain our qualification as a REIT, among other things, our Declaration of Trust provides that any transaction that would result in our disqualification as a REIT under Section 856 of the Code will be void, including any transaction that would result in the following:

- fewer than 100 persons owning our shares;
- our being "closely held" within the meaning of Section 856(h) of the Code; or
- 50% or more of the fair market value of our shares being held by persons other than "United States persons," for federal income tax purposes.

If the transaction is not void, then the shares in violation of the foregoing conditions will automatically be exchanged for an equal number of excess shares, and these excess shares will be transferred to an excess share trustee for the exclusive benefit of the charitable beneficiaries named by our Board of Trustees. The Trust's Declaration of Trust also forbids a person from owning in excess of the ownership limit of 9.8%, in number or value, of the Trust's outstanding shares, although the Board of Trustees retains the ability to make exceptions to this ownership threshold. This ownership limit as well as other restrictions on ownership and transfer of our stock in our charter may discourage a tender offer, takeover, or other transaction in which holders of our common shares might receive a premium for their shares over the then prevailing market price or which holders might believe to be otherwise in their best interests.

Risks Related to Tax Matters

We may incur tax liabilities if we were to fail to qualify as a REIT, which could force us to borrow funds during unfavorable market conditions. We have elected to be taxed as a REIT under the Code. Qualification as a REIT involves the application of highly technical and complex Code provisions, including income, asset, and distribution tests, for which there are only limited judicial or administrative interpretations. Even a technical or inadvertent mistake could endanger our REIT status. The determination that we qualify as a REIT requires an ongoing analysis of various factual matters and circumstances, some of which may not be within our control. For example, to qualify as a REIT, at least 95% of our gross income in any year must come from certain passive sources that are itemized in the REIT tax laws, and we are prohibited from owning specified amounts of debt or equity securities of some issuers. Thus, when revenues from non-qualifying sources, such as income from third-party management services, represent more than 5% of our gross income in any taxable year, we will not satisfy the 95% income test and may fail to qualify as a REIT, unless certain relief provisions in the Code apply. Even if relief provisions apply, however, a tax would be imposed on excess net income. We are also required to make distributions to the holders of our securities of at least 90% of our REIT taxable income, determined before a deduction for dividends paid and excluding any net capital gain. If we satisfy the 90% test but distribute less than 100% of our REIT taxable income, we will be subject to corporate income tax on such undistributed income and could be subject to an additional 4% excise tax. Because we need to meet these tests to maintain our qualification as a REIT, it could cause us to have to forgo certain business opportunities and potentially require us to liquidate otherwise attractive investments. The fact that we hold substantially all of our assets (except for qualified REIT subsidiaries) through Centerspace, LP, our Operating Partnership, and its subsidiaries, and our ongoing reliance on factual determinations, such as determinations related to the valuation of our assets, further complicates the application of the REIT requirements for us. If Centerspace, LP or one or more of our subsidiaries is determined to be taxable as a corporation, we may fail to qualify as a REIT. Either our failure to qualify as a REIT, for any reason, or the imposition of taxes on excess net income from non-qualifying sources, could adversely affect our business and our ability to make distributions to our shareholders and pay amounts due on our debt. New legislation, regulations, administrative interpretations or court decisions could change the tax laws with respect to our qualification as a REIT or the federal income tax consequences of our qualification.

If we were to fail to qualify as a REIT, we would be subject to federal income tax on our taxable income at regular corporate rates, could be subject to increased state and local taxes and, unless entitled to relief under applicable statutory provisions, would be disqualified from treatment as a REIT for the four taxable years following the year during which we lost our qualification, which would likely have a significant adverse effect on us, our ability to make distributions to our shareholders, and our ability to pay amounts due on our debt. This treatment would reduce funds available for investment or distributions to the holders of our securities due to the added tax liability to us for the year or years involved, and we would no longer be able to deduct, and would not need to make, distributions to our shareholders. If distributions to the holders of our securities had been made in anticipation of qualifying as a REIT, we may need short-term debt or long-term debt or proceeds from asset sales or sales of common shares to fund required distributions as a result of differences in timing between the actual receipt of income and the recognition of income for federal income tax purposes, or the effect of non-deductible capital expenditures, the creation of reserves or required debt or amortization payments. The inability of our cash flows to cover our distribution requirements could have an adverse impact on our ability to raise short and long-term debt or sell equity securities to fund distributions required to maintain our REIT status.

Failure of the Operating Partnership to qualify as a partnership would lead to corporate taxation and significantly reduce the amount of cash available for distribution. We believe that the Operating Partnership, qualifies as a partnership for federal income tax purposes. However, we can provide no assurance that the IRS will not challenge its status as a partnership for federal income tax purposes or that a court would not sustain such a challenge. If the IRS were to treat the Operating Partnership as an entity taxable as a corporation (such as a publicly traded partnership taxable as a corporation), we would no longer qualify as a REIT because the value of our ownership interest in the Operating Partnership would exceed 5% of our assets and because we would be considered to hold more than 10% of the voting securities and value of the outstanding securities of another corporation. The imposition of a corporate tax on the Operating Partnership would significantly reduce the amount of cash available for distribution.

Partnership tax audit rules could have a material adverse effect on us. Under the rules applicable to U.S. federal income tax audits of partnerships, subject to certain exceptions, any audit adjustment to items of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit of a partnership (and a partner's allocable share thereof) is determined, and taxes, interest, and penalties attributable thereto are assessed and collected, at the partnership level. Unless the partnership makes an election or takes certain steps to require the partners to pay their tax on their allocable shares of the adjustment, it is possible that partnerships in which we directly or indirectly invest, including the Operating Partnership, would be required to pay additional taxes, interest and penalties as a result of an audit adjustment. We, as a direct or indirect partner of the Operating Partnership and other partnerships, could be required to bear the economic burden of those taxes, interest and penalties even though as a REIT, we may not otherwise have been required to pay additional corporate-level tax. These rules are significant for collecting tax in partnership audits and there can be no assurance that these rules will not have a material adverse effect on us.

Dividends payable by REITs may be taxed at higher rates than dividends of non-REIT corporations, which could reduce the net cash received by our shareholders and may harm our ability to raise additional funds through any future sale of our stock. Dividends paid by REITs to U.S. shareholders that are individuals, trusts, or estates are generally not eligible for the reduced tax rate applicable to qualified dividends received from non-REIT corporations. For taxable years beginning before January 1, 2026, non-corporate taxpayers may deduct up to 20% of certain pass-through business income, including "qualified REIT dividends" (generally, dividends received by a REIT shareholder that are not designated as capital gain dividends or qualified dividend income), subject to certain limitations, resulting in an effective maximum U.S. federal income tax rate of 29.6% on such income. Although this deduction reduces the effective tax rate applicable to certain dividends paid by REITs, such tax rate is still higher than the tax rate applicable to regular corporate qualified dividends. This may cause investors to view REIT investments as less attractive than investments in non-REIT corporations, which in turn may adversely affect the value of stock in REITs, including our stock. Investors should consult with their tax advisers about the U.S. tax consequences of an investment in our stock or Units.

On July 4, 2025, the One Big Beautiful Bill Act ("OBBBA") was signed into law. The OBBBA made significant changes to the U.S. federal income tax laws in various areas. Among the notable changes, the OBBBA permanently extended certain provisions that were enacted in the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017, most of which were set to expire after December 31, 2025. As a result of such extensions, individuals and other non-corporate taxpayers will continue to be entitled to a 20% deduction for certain "qualified REIT dividends" for taxable years after 2025, subject to certain requirements, and the maximum U.S. federal income tax rate on ordinary income for individuals and other non-corporate taxpayers will continue to be 37% after 2025 (before application of the 3.8% Medicare tax on "net investment income"). In addition, the OBBBA also increased the percentage limit under the REIT asset test applicable to securities of one or more taxable REIT subsidiaries from 20% to 25% for 2026 and subsequent taxable years. You are urged to consult with your own tax advisor to determine the effects of the OBBBA and the ownership and disposition of our securities or debt securities of the Operating Partnership on your individual tax situation, including any state, local, or non-U.S. tax consequences.

We may face risks in connection with Section 1031 exchanges. From time to time, we dispose of properties in transactions intended to qualify as "like-kind exchanges" under Section 1031 of the Code. If a transaction intended to qualify as a Section 1031 exchange is later determined to be taxable, we may face adverse consequences, and if the laws applicable to such transactions are amended or repealed, we may be unable to dispose of properties on a tax-deferred basis. If we cannot meet the technical requirements of a desired Section 1031 exchange, we may have to make a special dividend payment to our shareholders if we cannot mitigate the taxable gains realized. The failure to reinvest proceeds from sales of properties into tax-deferred exchanges could necessitate payments to certain Operating Partnership unitholders with tax protection agreements.

We have tax protection agreements in place on 21 properties. If these properties are sold in a taxable transaction, we must make the unitholders associated with these particular properties whole through the payment of their related tax. We dispose of properties in transactions intended to qualify as "like-kind exchanges" under Section 1031 of the Code whenever possible. If we cannot satisfy all of the technical requirements of Section 1031, or if Section 1031 is repealed, selling a property with a tax protection agreement could trigger a material obligation to make the associated Operating Partnership unitholders whole.

Complying with REIT requirements may force us to forgo otherwise attractive opportunities or liquidate otherwise attractive investments. To qualify and maintain our status as a REIT, we must satisfy certain requirements with respect to the character of our assets. If we violate these requirements at the end of any quarter, we must correct such failure within 30 days after the quarter (by, possibly, selling assets despite their prospects as an investment) to avoid losing our REIT status. This could include potentially selling otherwise attractive assets or liquidating or foregoing otherwise attractive investments. These actions could reduce our income and amounts available for distribution to our shareholders.

Even if we qualify as a REIT, we may face other tax liabilities that reduce our cash flows. Even if we qualify as a REIT under the U.S. tax code, we may be subject to certain federal, state, and local taxes on our income and assets, including taxes on any undistributed income, tax on income from some activities conducted as a result of a foreclosure, and state or local income, property, and transfer taxes, such as mortgage recording taxes. Any of these taxes would decrease cash available for distribution to our shareholders.

The tax imposed on REITs engaging in prohibited transactions and our agreements entered into with certain contributors of our properties may limit our ability to engage in transactions that would be treated as sales for federal income tax purposes. The federal income tax provisions applicable to REITs provide that any gain realized by a REIT on the sale of property held as inventory or other property held primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of business is treated as income from a "prohibited transaction" that is subject to a 100% penalty tax. Under current law, unless a sale of real property qualifies for a safe harbor, whether the sale of a property constitutes the sale of property held primarily for sale to customers is generally a question of the facts and circumstances regarding a particular transaction. We may make sales that do not satisfy the requirements of the safe harbors, or the IRS may successfully assert that one or more of our sales are prohibited transactions and, as a result, we may be required to pay a penalty tax. To avert this penalty tax, we may hold some of our assets through a taxable REIT subsidiary ("TRS"). While the TRS structure would allow the economic benefits of ownership to flow to us, a TRS is subject to tax on its income at the federal and state level. We have entered into agreements with certain contributors of our properties that restrict our ability to dispose of certain properties in taxable transactions. The limitations on taxable dispositions are effective for varying periods. Such agreements may require that we make a payment to the contributor if we dispose of a covered property in a taxable sale during the restriction period.

Our ownership of TRSs is limited, and our transactions with TRSs will cause us to be subject to a 100% penalty tax on certain income or deductions if those transactions are not conducted on arm's-length terms. A REIT may own up to 100% of the stock of one or more TRSs. A TRS may hold assets and earn income that would not be qualifying assets or income if held or earned directly by a REIT. Our TRS is subject to applicable federal, state, and local income tax on any taxable income. TRS rules also impose a 100% excise tax on certain transactions between a TRS and its parent REIT that are not conducted on an arm's-length basis. We scrutinize transactions with our TRS to ensure that they are entered into on arm's-length terms to avoid incurring the 100% excise tax described above.

Federal, state and foreign income tax laws governing REITs and related interpretations may change at any time, and any such legislative or other actions affecting REITs could have a negative effect on us. The REIT rules are constantly under review by persons involved in the legislative process and by the Internal Revenue Service and the U.S. Treasury Department, which may result in revisions to regulations and interpretations as well as statutory changes.

At any time, the U.S. federal income tax laws governing REITs or the administrative and judicial interpretations of those laws may be amended. We cannot predict when or if any new U.S. federal income tax law, regulation or administrative and judicial interpretation, or any amendment to any existing U.S. federal income tax law, regulation or administrative or judicial interpretation, will be adopted, promulgated or become effective and any such law, regulation or interpretation may take effect retroactively. We cannot predict whether any of these proposed changes will become law, or the long-term effect of any future law changes on REITs and their shareholders generally. We and our shareholders could be adversely affected by any such change in, or any new, U.S. federal income tax law, regulation or administrative and judicial interpretation.

Item 1C. Cybersecurity

We have an information security program designed to identify, protect, detect and respond to and manage reasonably foreseeable cybersecurity risks and threats. We regularly assess the threat landscape and take a holistic view of cybersecurity risks, with a layered cybersecurity strategy based on prevention, detection and mitigation. To protect our information systems from cybersecurity threats, we use various security tools that help prevent, identify, escalate, investigate, resolve and recover from identified vulnerabilities and security incidents in a timely manner.

Our Board of Trustees oversees management's process for identifying and mitigating risks, including cybersecurity risks, to help align our risk exposure with our strategic objectives. Our Board of Trustees has also delegated authority to its Audit Committee to review our internal controls relating to information technology, data privacy, including data protection and cybersecurity, including network security and cloud security. Senior leadership, including our Senior Vice President of Information Technology (the "SVP of IT"), meets with the Board of Trustees at least annually to present and discuss strategies and cybersecurity initiatives. This meeting includes reporting of cybersecurity incidents at least annually or more often, if identified.

Our SVP of IT leads a team that is responsible for assessing and managing our cybersecurity risks. The SVP of IT has a B.S. in Management Information Systems, spent more than a decade with Microsoft before joining the Company, and is an active member of North Dakota State and Local Intelligence Center (NDSLIC), an affiliate of National Fusion Center Association (NFCA) and United States Homeland Security (DHS). Senior management, including the SVP of IT, conducts regular meetings to discuss technology initiatives and cybersecurity risks and strategies.

A comprehensive approach to assessing, identifying, and managing cybersecurity risks is part of the Company's overall risk management strategy. We believe our cybersecurity program is aligned with the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) Cybersecurity Framework 2.0, which serves as the foundational model guiding our controls, governance, and continuous risk-management practices. A combination of internal and external monitoring services help identify, manage, and assess how management responds within our enterprise risk management processes. Any known cybersecurity incidents would be reported to our Board, Chief Executive Officer, and disclosure committee for evaluation.

We engage third party experts to monitor for and identify cyber threats. Both management and the third party provider receive alerts regarding cyber threats. The third party provider has the ability to act on our behalf to respond to any threats it identifies. We also use, among other things, endpoint monitoring, anti-virus software, multi-factor authentication, and data encryption to assist with managing cyber risks and identifying cyber threats. In addition, we engage a cybersecurity consultant to regularly assess cyber risks and threats and provide recommendations and plans to mitigate those risks.

We utilize third-party service providers for a variety of functions. Cybersecurity risks are evaluated when determining the selection and oversight of applicable third-party service providers. We look for reliable and reputable service providers that maintain cybersecurity programs based on industry standards. Depending on the nature of the services provided and the sensitivity of information processed, our vendor management process may include contractually imposed obligations on the provider and reviewing the cybersecurity practices of such provider.

We have not suffered any cyber incident that had a material impact on our business, operations, or financial condition. However, a security breach or other significant disruption involving our computer networks and related systems could cause substantial costs and other negative effects, including litigation, remediation costs, costs to deploy additional protection strategies, compromising of confidential information, and reputational damage adversely affecting investor confidence. Further, a penetration of our systems or a third-party's systems or other misappropriation or misuse of personal information could subject us to business, regulatory, litigation and reputation risk, which could have a negative effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. See Item 1A. Risk Factors – "We face risks associated with cyber-attacks, cyber intrusions, or otherwise, which could pose a risk to our systems, networks, and services" and "Security breaches could compromise our information and expose us to liability, which would cause our business and reputation to suffer."

Item 2. Properties

Communities

We are organized as a REIT under Sections 856-858 of the Code and are structured as an UPREIT, which allows us to accept the contribution of real estate to our Operating Partnership in exchange for Units. Our business is focused on the ownership, management, acquisition, redevelopment, and development of apartment communities, which we own and operate through our Operating Partnership. We are a fully integrated owner-operator of apartment communities.

Certain Lending Requirements

In certain instances, in connection with the financing of investment properties, the lender may require, as a condition of the loan, that the properties be owned by a "single asset entity." Accordingly, we have organized a number of wholly-owned subsidiary entities for the purpose of holding title in an entity that complies with such lending conditions. All financial statements of these subsidiaries are consolidated into our financial statements.

Management and Leasing of Our Real Estate Assets

We conduct our corporate operations from offices in Minot, North Dakota, and Minneapolis, Minnesota. The day-to-day management of our properties is generally carried out by our own employees. When properties acquired have effective pre-existing property management in place or when particular properties are, in our judgment, not attractive candidates for self-management, we may utilize third-party professional management companies for day-to-day management. In that case, however, all decisions relating to purchase, sale, insurance coverage, major capital improvements, annual operating budgets, and major renovations are made exclusively by our employees and implemented by the third-party management companies. Generally, our third-party management contracts are for terms of one year or less and provide for compensation ranging from 2.5% to 5.0% of gross rent collections and, typically, we may terminate these contracts upon 60 days or less notice for cause or upon the property manager's failure to meet certain specified financial performance goals.

Summary of Communities Owned as of December 31, 2025

The following table presents information regarding our 61 apartment communities held for investment, as of December 31, 2025. We provide certain information on a same-store and non-same-store basis. Same-store communities are owned or stabilized for substantially all of the periods being compared, and, in the case of newly-acquired or constructed properties, have achieved a target level of physical occupancy of 90%, or re-positioned communities when they have achieved stabilized operations. We define re-positioned communities as having significant development and construction activity on existing buildings pursuant to an authorized plan, which has an impact on current operating results, occupancy and the ability to lease space with the intended result of improved community cash flow and competitive position through extensive unit and amenity upgrades. We categorize a re-positioned community as same-store when the development and construction activity has been completed, and operations have stabilized. This is typically reaching an overall occupancy of 90%. Not all communities undergoing value add are considered a re-positioned community. Non-same store communities are communities not owned or stabilized as of the beginning of the previous year, including re-positioned communities, and excluding communities held for sale and the non-multifamily components of mixed-use properties.

On the first day of each calendar year, we determine the composition of our same-store pool for that year as well as adjust the previous year, which allows us to evaluate the performance of existing apartment communities. "Other" includes non-multifamily properties and non-multifamily components of mixed use properties. We own the following real estate through our wholly-owned subsidiaries. We account for these interests on a consolidated basis. Additional information is included in Schedule III to our financial statements included in this Report.

Item 5. Market for Registrant's Common Equity, Related Stockholder Matters, and Issuer Purchases of Equity Securities

Market Information

Our Common Shares of Beneficial Interest, no par value, are traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "CSR".

Shareholders

As of February 10, 2026, there were approximately 2,083 common shareholders of record.

Unregistered Sales of Shares

Under the terms of Centerspace, LP's Agreement of Limited Partnership, limited partners have the right to require Centerspace, LP to redeem their common limited partnership Units any time following the first anniversary of the date they acquired such Units ("Exchange Right"). When a limited partner exercises the Exchange Right, we have the right, in our sole discretion, to redeem such Units by either making a cash payment or exchanging the Units for our common shares, on a one-for-one basis. The Exchange Right is subject to certain conditions and limitations, including that the limited partner may not exercise the Exchange Right more than two times during a calendar year and the limited partner may not exercise for less than 100 Units, or, if such limited partner holds less than 100 Units, for less than all of the Units held by such limited partner. Centerspace, LP and some limited partners have contractually agreed to a holding period of greater than one year, a greater number of redemptions during a calendar year, or other modifications to their Exchange Right.

On November 30, 2025, we issued an aggregate of 41,018 unregistered common shares to limited partners of Centerspace, LP upon exercise of their Exchange Rights for an equal number of Units. All such issuances of our common shares were exempt from registration as private placements under Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act. We have registered the resale of such common shares under the Securities Act.

Comparative Stock Performance

The information contained in this Comparative Stock Performance section shall not be deemed to be "soliciting material" or "filed" or "incorporated by reference" into our future filings with the SEC, or subject to the liabilities of Section 18 of the Exchange Act, except to the extent that we specifically incorporate it by reference into a document filed under the Securities Act or the Exchange Act.

Set forth below is a graph that compares, for the five years commencing December 31, 2020 and ending December 31, 2025, the cumulative total returns for our common shares with the comparable cumulative total return of three indices, the Standard & Poor's 500 Index ("S&P 500"), the FTSE Nareit Equity REITs Index, and the FTSE Nareit Equity Apartments Index, the latter of which is an index prepared by the FTSE Group for the National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts, which includes all tax-qualified equity REITs listed on the NYSE and the NASDAQ Market. The performance graph assumes that, at the close of trading on December 31, 2020, $100 was invested in our common shares and in each of the indices. The comparison assumes the reinvestment of all distributions.

Executive Summary

We are a real estate investment trust, or REIT that owns, manages, acquires, redevelops, and develops apartment communities. We primarily focus on investing in markets characterized by stable and growing economic conditions, strong employment, and an attractive quality of life that we believe, in combination, lead to higher demand for our apartment homes and retention of our residents. As of December 31, 2025, we owned 61 apartment communities consisting of 12,262 homes as detailed in Item 2 - Properties. Property owned, as presented in the Consolidated Balance Sheets, was $2.5 billion at December 31, 2025 and 2024.

Renting apartment homes is our primary source of revenue, and our business objective is to provide great homes. We strive to maximize resident satisfaction and retention by investing in high-quality assets in desirable locations and developing and training team members to create vibrant apartment communities through resident-centered operations. We believe that delivering superior resident experiences will drive consistent profitability for our business and shareholders. We have paid quarterly distributions every quarter since our first distribution in 1971.

Significant Transactions and Events for the Year Ended December 31, 2025

Highlights. For the year ended December 31, 2025, our highlights included the following:

- Net Income was $1.02 per diluted share for the year ended December 31, 2025, compared to Net Loss of $1.27 per diluted share for the year ended December 31, 2024;
- Core funds from operations ("CFFO") per diluted share, a non-GAAP measure, increased 1.0% to $4.93 from $4.88 (refer to reconciliations of Funds from Operations and Core Funds from Operations beginning on page 32 for additional detail);
- Operating income increased to $64.5 million for the year ended December 31, 2025 compared to $20.5 million for the prior year; and
- Same-store year-over-year net operating income growth of 3.5% driven by same-store revenue growth of 2.4% (refer to Reconciliation of Operating Income (Loss) to Net Operating Income beginning on page 29 for additional detail).

Acquisitions and Dispositions. During the year ended December 31, 2025, we completed the following transactions in furtherance of our strategic plan:

- Disposed of twelve non-core apartment communities throughout Minnesota and one corporate office building for an aggregate sales price of $215.5 million;
- Acquired Railway Flats in Loveland, Colorado, an apartment community consisting of 420 homes for an aggregate purchase price of $132.2 million, which included the assumption of $76.5 million in mortgage debt; and
- Acquired Sugarmont, our first apartment community in Salt Lake City, Utah, consisting of 341 homes for an aggregate purchase price of $149.0 million.

Financing Transactions. During the year ended December 31, 2025, we completed the following financing transactions:

- Repurchased 62,973 shares at an average price of $54.86 per share, including commissions.

Outlook

We intend to continue our focus on maximizing the financial performance of the communities in our existing portfolio. To accomplish this, we have introduced initiatives to expand our operating margin by enhancing the resident experience, making value-add investments, and implementing technology solutions and expense controls. We plan to actively manage our existing portfolio, explore potential new markets, and strategically pursue acquisitions of apartment communities and selective dispositions as opportunities arise and market conditions allow. We seek to manage a strong balance sheet that should provide us with flexibility to pursue both internal and external growth.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

We are presenting our results of operations for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024. For additional comparison of results of operations for the years ended December 31, 2024 and December 31, 2023, please refer to our Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC on February 18, 2025.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

Net operating income. Net operating income ("NOI") is a non-GAAP financial measure which we define as total real estate revenues less property operating expenses, including real estate taxes, which is reconciled to operating income. Refer to the reconciliation of Operating Income to Net Operating Income below. We believe that NOI is an important supplemental measure of operating performance for real estate because it provides a measure of operations that is unaffected by sales of real estate and other investments, impairment, depreciation, amortization, financing costs, property management expenses, casualty losses, loss on litigation settlement, and general and administrative expense. NOI does not represent cash generated by operating activities in accordance with GAAP and should not be considered an alternative to net income (loss), net income (loss) available for common shareholders, or cash flow from operating activities as a measure of financial performance.

Throughout this Report, we have provided certain information on a same-store and non-same-store basis. Same-store apartment communities are owned or stabilized for substantially all of the periods being compared and, in the case of newly-acquired or constructed communities, have achieved a target level of physical occupancy of 90%, or re-positioned communities when they have achieved stabilized operations. We define re-positioned communities as having significant development and construction activity on existing buildings pursuant to an authorized plan, which has an impact on current operating results, occupancy and the ability to lease space with the intended result of improved community cash flow and competitive position through extensive unit and amenity upgrades. We categorize a re-positioned community as same-store when the development and construction activity has been completed, and operations have stabilized. This is typically reaching an overall occupancy of 90%. Not all communities undergoing value add are considered a re-positioned community. Non-same store communities are communities not owned or stabilized as of the beginning of the previous year, including re-positioned communities, and excluding communities held for sale and the non-multifamily components of mixed-use properties.

On the first day of each calendar year, we determine the composition of our same-store pool for that year as well as adjust the previous year, which allows us to evaluate the performance of existing apartment communities and their contribution to net income (loss). Management believes that measuring performance on a same-store basis is useful to investors because it enables evaluation of how a fixed pool of communities are performing year-over-year. Management uses this measure to assess whether or not it has been successful in increasing NOI, raising average rental revenue, renewing the leases of existing residents, controlling operating costs, and making prudent capital improvements. The discussion below focuses on the main factors affecting real estate revenue and real estate expenses from same-store apartment communities because changes from one year to another in real estate revenue and expenses from non-same-store communities are generally due to the addition of those communities to our real estate portfolio, and accordingly provide less useful information for evaluating the ongoing operational performance of our real estate portfolio.

For the comparison of the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, 57 apartment communities were classified as same-store and four apartment communities and two apartment communities, respectively, were non-same-store. See Item 2 - Properties for the list of communities classified as same-store and non-same-store. Sold communities are included in "Dispositions," for all periods presented, while "Other properties" includes non-multifamily properties and the non-multifamily components of mixed-use properties. During the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, we disposed of twelve and two apartment communities, respectively, consisting of 1,511 and 205 apartment homes, respectively.

Same-store	95.7 %	95.4 %
Non-same-store	88.2 %	92.4 %
Total	95.2 %	95.3 %

(1) Weighted average occupancy is defined as the percentage resulting from dividing actual rental revenue by scheduled rental revenue. Scheduled rental revenue represents the value of all apartment homes, with occupied homes valued at contractual rental rates pursuant to leases and vacant apartment homes valued at estimated market rents. When calculating actual rents for occupied apartment homes and market rents for vacant homes, delinquencies and concessions are not taken into account. Market rates are determined using the currently offered effective rates on new leases at the community and are used as the starting point in determination of the market rates of vacant apartment homes. We believe that weighted average occupancy is a meaningful measure of occupancy because it considers the value of each vacant unit at its estimated market rate. Weighted average occupancy may not completely reflect short-term trends in physical occupancy, and our calculation of weighted average occupancy may not be comparable to that disclosed by other REITs and other real estate companies.

Number of Homes	December 31, 2025	2024
Same-store	11,084	11,084
Non-same-store	1,178	417
Dispositions	—	1,511
Total	12,262	13,012

Same-store analysis. Revenue from same-store communities increased by 2.4%, or $5.4 million, in the year ended December 31, 2025, compared to the year ended December 31, 2024. Approximately 2.0% of the increase was due to higher average monthly revenue per occupied home and 0.3% from an increase in occupancy as weighted average occupancy increased from 95.4% to 95.7% for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2025, respectively. Property operating expenses at same-store communities increased by 0.6% or $541,000 in the year ended December 31, 2025, compared to the same period in the prior year. At same-store communities, controllable expenses (which exclude insurance and real estate taxes), increased by $417,000, primarily due to increased utilities, turnover expense, and compensation costs, offset by decreased repairs and maintenance and marketing expense. Non-controllable expenses at same-store communities increased by $124,000 primarily due to an increase in real estate taxes primarily due to fewer tax appeal refunds in 2025 compared to the prior year, offset by a decrease in insurance premiums. Same-store NOI increased by $4.8 million to $143.7 million for the year ended December 31, 2025 compared to $138.9 million in the same period in the prior year.

Non-same-store analysis. Revenue from non-same-store apartment communities increased by $11.4 million in the year ended December 31, 2025, compared to the same period in the prior year. Property operating expenses from non-same-store apartment communities increased by $4.7 million. Net operating income from non-same-store communities increased by $6.7 million. The increase in revenue, property operating expenses, and NOI from non-same-store communities is primarily due to the addition of three apartment communities, one during the fourth quarter of 2024, one during the second quarter of 2025, and one during the third quarter of 2025, offset by a $978,000 decrease in NOI from repositioning a community by making full unit upgrades, resulting in lower occupancy, and requiring relocation of residents.

Other properties and dispositions analysis. Revenue from other properties, which encompasses our commercial and mixed use activity, increased by 40.8% or $1.0 million while revenue from dispositions decreased by $5.1 million. Property operating expenses from other properties increased by 17.5% or $164,000 while property operating expenses from dispositions decreased by $2.4 million due to sold properties. The increase in NOI on other properties is driven by the acquisition of an apartment community with commercial space during the fourth quarter of 2024. We disposed of 12 apartment communities during the year ended December 31, 2025 and two apartment communities during the year ended December 31, 2024, resulting in $2.8 million less NOI over the prior year.

Property management expense. Property management expense, consisting of property management overhead and property management fees paid to third parties increased by 5.6% to $9.6 million in the year ended December 31, 2025, compared to $9.1 million in the year ended December 31, 2024. The increase was primarily due to increased compensation costs compared to the prior year and third party management fees for management of an apartment community we acquired in the second quarter of the current year.

Casualty loss. Casualty loss decreased to $816,000 in the year ended December 31, 2025, compared to $3.3 million in the year ended December 31, 2024. The decrease was primarily due to decreases in insurance claims activity and increases in insurance recoveries throughout 2025 compared to the prior year period. Refer to Involuntary Conversion of Assets in Note 2 of the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements in this Report for more details.

Depreciation and amortization. Depreciation and amortization increased by 6.4% to $113.2 million in the year ended December 31, 2025, compared to $106.5 million in the year ended December 31, 2024, attributable to an increase of $14.0 million from non-same-store communities driven by the addition of three apartment communities, one in the fourth quarter of 2024 and two in 2025, offset by a decrease of $5.9 million from dispositions of 12 apartment communities during the year and $695,000 from same store communities.

Impairment of real estate investments. There was $37.7 million of impairment on real estate investments in the year ended December 31, 2025, compared to no such impairment in 2024. The impairment was the result of six apartment communities that were written down to estimated fair value based in connection with market offers for communities that were held for sale and subsequently sold during 2025 and one apartment community written down to fair value based upon an independent appraisal. Refer to Real Estate Investments in Notes 2 and 9 of the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements in this Report for more details.

General and administrative expenses. General and administrative expenses increased by 17.5% to $20.9 million in the year ended December 31, 2025, compared to $17.8 million in the year ended December 31, 2024, primarily attributable to $1.3 million in one-time professional fees associated with a shareholder relations matter and $1.2 million in incentive compensation.

Gain (loss) on sale of real estate and other investments. In the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, we recorded a gain on the sale of real estate and other investments of $79.5 million and a loss on the sale of real estate and other investments of $577,000, respectively. The increase was due to the sale of 12 apartment communities for a net gain in 2025 compared to the sale of two apartment communities for a loss in the prior year. Refer to Note 9 in the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Operating income. Operating income increased to $64.5 million in the year ended December 31, 2025, compared to $20.5 million in the year ended December 31, 2024.

Interest expense. Interest expense increased 20.4% to $44.9 million in the year ended December 31, 2025, compared to $37.3 million in the year ended December 31, 2024, primarily due to an increase in the average daily balance on our lines of credit in order to fund acquisitions of apartment communities, the assumption of mortgages upon acquisition of The Lydian in the fourth quarter of 2024 and Railway Flats in the third quarter of 2025, and amortization of debt discounts for assumed mortgages.

Loss on extinguishment of debt. Loss on extinguishment of debt was $98,000 in the current year compared to no such loss in the prior year. The increase was due to prepayment of two mortgage loans in connection with the disposition of the related apartment communities.

Interest and other income. Interest and other income increased to $3.4 million in the year ended December 31, 2025, compared to $2.6 million in the same period of the prior year, primarily due to interest income on two real estate related notes receivable and interest from funds held in escrow.

Net income (loss) available to common shareholders. Net income (loss) available to common shareholders increased to a net income of $17.1 million compared to a net loss of $19.7 million in 2024.

Funds from Operations and Core Funds from Operations

We believe that funds from operations ("FFO"), which is a non-GAAP financial measure used as a standard supplemental measure for equity real estate investment trusts, is helpful to investors in understanding our operating performance, primarily because its calculation does not assume the value of real estate assets diminishes predictably over time, as implied by the historical cost convention of GAAP and the recording of depreciation and amortization.

We use the definition of FFO adopted by the National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts, Inc. ("Nareit"). Nareit defines FFO as net income or loss calculated in accordance with GAAP, excluding:

- depreciation and amortization related to real estate;
- gains and losses from the sale of certain real estate assets;
- gains and losses from change in control;
- impairment write-downs of certain real estate assets and investments in entities when the impairment is directly attributable to decreases in the value of depreciable real estate held by the entity; and
- similar adjustments for partially owned consolidated real estate entities.

The exclusion in Nareit's definition of FFO of impairment write-downs and gains and losses from the sale of real estate assets helps to identify the operating results of the long-term assets that form the base of our investments, and assists management and investors in comparing those operating results between periods.

Due to limitations of the Nareit FFO definition, we have made certain interpretations in applying the definition. We believe all such interpretations not specifically provided for in the Nareit definition are consistent with the definition. Nareit's FFO White Paper 2018 Restatement clarified that impairment write-downs of land related to a REIT's main business are excluded from FFO and a REIT has the option to exclude impairment write-downs of assets that are incidental to the main business.

While FFO is widely used by us as a primary performance metric, not all real estate companies use the same definition of FFO or calculate FFO the same way. Accordingly, FFO presented here is not necessarily comparable to FFO presented by other real estate companies. FFO should not be considered as an alternative to net income (loss) or any other GAAP measurement of performance, but rather should be considered as an additional, supplemental measure. FFO also does not represent cash generated from operating activities in accordance with GAAP, nor is it indicative of funds available to fund all cash needs, including the ability to service indebtedness or make distributions to shareholders.

Core funds from operations ("Core FFO"), a non-GAAP measure, is FFO adjusted for non-routine items or items not considered core to business operations. By further adjusting for items that are not considered part of core business operations, we believe that Core FFO provides investors with additional information to compare core operating and financial performance between periods. Core FFO should not be considered as an alternative to net income (loss) or as any other GAAP measurement of performance, but rather should be considered an additional supplemental measure. Core FFO also does not represent cash generated from operating activities in accordance with GAAP, nor is it indicative of funds available to fund all cash needs, including the ability to service indebtedness or make distributions to shareholders. Core FFO is a non-GAAP and non-standardized financial measure that may be calculated differently by other REITs and that should not be considered a substitute for operating results determined in accordance with GAAP.

Net income available to common shareholders for the year ended December 31, 2025 increased to $17.1 million compared to a net loss of $19.7 million for the year ended December 31, 2024. FFO applicable to common shares and Units for the year ended December 31, 2025, increased to $93.4 million compared to $83.3 million for the year ended December 31, 2024, a change of 12.1%, primarily due to increased NOI from same-store and non-same-store communities along with distributions to preferred shareholders that occurred in the prior year that did not occur in the year ended December 31, 2025, offset by increased interest expense and general and administrative expense and decreased NOI from dispositions.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Overview

We strive to maintain a strong balance sheet and preserve financial flexibility, which we believe should enhance our ability to capitalize on appropriate investment opportunities as they may arise. We intend to continue to focus on core fundamentals, which include generating positive cash flows from operation, maintaining appropriate debt levels and leverage ratios, and controlling overhead costs.

Our primary sources of liquidity are cash and cash equivalents on hand and cash flows generated from operations. Other sources include availability under our unsecured lines of credit, proceeds from property dispositions, including restricted cash related to net tax deferred proceeds, offerings of preferred and common shares under our shelf registration statement, including offerings of common shares under our ATM program, and long-term unsecured debt and secured mortgages.

Our primary liquidity demands are normally-recurring operating and overhead expenses, debt service and repayments, capital improvements to our communities, distributions to the holders of our preferred shares, common shares, Series D and Series E preferred units, and Units, value-add redevelopment, common and preferred share buybacks and Unit redemptions, funding of mezzanine loans or real estate related notes, and acquisitions of additional communities.

We have historically met our short-term liquidity requirements through net cash flows provided by our operating activities and, from time to time, through draws on our lines of credit. We believe our ability to generate cash from property operating activities and draw on our lines of credit is adequate to meet all expected operating requirements and to make distributions to our shareholders in accordance with the REIT provisions of the Code. Budgeted expenditures for ongoing maintenance and capital improvements and renovations to our real estate portfolio are also generally expected to be funded from existing cash on hand, cash flow generated from property operations, draws on our lines of credit and/or new borrowings. We believe we will have sufficient liquidity to meet our commitments over the next twelve months.

To maintain our qualification as a REIT, we must pay dividends to our shareholders aggregating annually at least 90% of our REIT taxable income, excluding net capital gains. Under a separate requirement, we must distribute 100% of net capital gains or pay a corporate level tax in lieu thereof. While we have historically satisfied this distribution requirement by making cash distributions to our shareholders, we may choose to satisfy this requirement by making distributions of other property, including, in limited circumstances, our own common shares. As a result of this distribution requirement, our Operating Partnership cannot rely on retained earnings to fund ongoing operations. We pay dividends from cash available for distribution. Until it is distributed, cash available for distribution is typically used to reduce balances outstanding under our line of credit or is invested in investment grade securities. In the event of deterioration in property operating results, we may need to consider additional cash preservation alternatives, including reducing development activities, capital improvements, and renovations. For the year ended December 31, 2025, we declared cash distributions of $54.5 million to common shareholders and unitholders of Centerspace, LP, as compared to net cash provided by operating activities of $98.5 million and FFO of $93.4 million.

Factors that could increase or decrease our future liquidity include, but are not limited to, changes in interest rates or sources of financing, general volatility in capital and credit markets, changes in minimum REIT dividend requirements, and our ability to access the capital markets on favorable terms, or at all. As a result of the foregoing conditions or general economic conditions in our markets that affect our ability to attract and retain residents, we may not generate sufficient cash flow from operations. If we are unable to obtain capital from other sources, we may not be able to pay the distribution required to maintain our status as a REIT, make required principal and interest payments, make strategic acquisitions or make necessary routine capital improvements or undertake value add renovation opportunities with respect to our existing portfolio of operating assets.

As of December 31, 2025, we had total liquidity of approximately $267.9 million, which included $255.1 million available on our lines of credit based on the value of unencumbered properties and $12.8 million of cash and cash equivalents. As of December 31, 2024, we had total liquidity of approximately $224.6 million, which included $212.6 million available on our lines of credit based on the value of unencumbered properties and $12.0 million of cash and cash equivalents.

Debt

As of December 31, 2025, we had access to the Unsecured Credit Facility. In May 2025, we exercised the accordion feature of the Facility, expanding the borrowing capacity by $150.0 million to $400.0 million. Prior to the exercise of the accordion feature, the line of credit had total commitments and borrowing capacity of up to $250.0 million, based on the value of unencumbered properties. As of December 31, 2025, the additional borrowing availability was $246.0 million beyond the $154.0 million drawn, priced at an interest rate of 5.12%. As of December 31, 2024, the Company had additional borrowing availability of $206.0 million beyond the $44.0 million drawn under the Facility, priced at an interest rate of 5.81%. The line of credit is utilized to refinance existing indebtedness, to finance property acquisitions, to finance capital expenditures, and for general corporate purposes. This Facility matures in July 2028, with an option to extend maturity for up to two additional six-month periods.

SOFR is the benchmark alternative reference rate under the Facility. As amended, the interest rates on the line of credit are based on the consolidated leverage ratio, at our option, on either the lender's base rate plus a margin, ranging from 20-80 basis points, or daily or term SOFR, plus a margin that ranges from 120-180 basis points with the consolidated leverage ratio described under the Third Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, as amended.

We have an operating line of credit agreement with US Bank, N.A. which has a borrowing capacity of up to $10.0 million and pricing based on SOFR. This operating line of credit terminates in September 2026 and is designed to enhance treasury management activities and more effectively manage cash balances. As of December 31, 2025, there was $925,000 outstanding on this line of credit, priced at an interest rate of 5.91%, compared to $3.4 million outstanding as of December 31, 2024, priced at an interest rate of 6.56%.

We have a private shelf agreement with PGIM under which we have issued $175.0 million in Unsecured Shelf Notes. On October 28, 2024, the shelf agreement was amended to extend the period of time during which we may borrow money to October 2027 and to increase the borrowing capacity to $300.0 million. We issued $125.0 million of Unsecured Club Notes under a separate private note purchase agreement with PGIM and certain other lenders. The following table shows the notes issued under both agreements as of December 31, 2025 and 2024.

		(in thousands) Amount	Maturity Date	Fixed Interest Rate
Series A	$	75,000	September 13, 2029	3.84 %
Series B	$	50,000	September 30, 2028	3.69 %
Series C	$	50,000	June 6, 2030	2.70 %
Series 2021-A	$	35,000	September 17, 2030	2.50 %
Series 2021-B	$	50,000	September 17, 2031	2.62 %
Series 2021-C	$	25,000	September 17, 2032	2.68 %
Series 2021-D	$	15,000	September 17, 2034	2.78 %

We have a $198.9 million FMCF. The FMCF is currently secured by mortgages on 7 apartment communities. The notes are interest-only, with varying maturity dates of 7, 10, and 12 years, and a blended weighted average fixed interest rate of 2.78%. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the FMCF had a balance of $198.9 million. The FMCF is included within mortgages payable on the Consolidated Balance Sheets.

Mortgage loan indebtedness, excluding net debt premiums and discounts and the FMCF, was $400.1 million and $420.4 million on December 31, 2025, and 2024, respectively on 10 and 15 apartment communities, respectively. As of December 31, 2025, the weighted average rate of interest on our mortgage debt was 3.88%, compared to 4.02% on December 31, 2024. Refer to Note 6 of our Consolidated Financial Statements contained in this Report for the principal payments due on our mortgage indebtedness and other tabular information.

All of our mortgage debt is collateralized by apartment communities and is non-recourse at fixed rates of interest, with staggered maturities. This reduces the exposure to changes in interest rates, which minimizes the effect of interest rate fluctuations on our results of operations and cash flows. Refer to Item 7A in this Report for additional information on our market and interest rate risk.

Our borrowings are subject to customary covenants and limitations. We believe we were in compliance with all such covenants and limitations as of December 31, 2025.

Equity

We have entered into an equity distribution agreement in connection with the ATM Program through which we may offer and sell common shares in amounts and at times determined by management. The maximum aggregate offering price of common shares available for offer and sale thereunder is $500.0 million. Under the ATM Program, we may enter into separate forward sale agreements. The proceeds from the sale of common shares under the ATM Program may be used for general corporate purposes, including the funding of acquisitions, construction or mezzanine loans, community renovations, and the repayment of indebtedness. As of December 31, 2025, common shares having an aggregate offering price of up to $262.9 million remained available under the ATM program. Further information can be found in Note 4 of our Consolidated Financial Statements contained in this Report.

The table below provides details on the sale of common shares under the ATM Program during the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024.

(1) Total consideration is net of $1.1 million in commissions for the year ended December 31, 2024.

(2) Includes 869,000 shares sold on a forward basis for $62.7 million which were physically settled during the year ended December 31, 2024.

We had a share repurchase program, providing for the repurchase of up to an aggregate of $50.0 million of our outstanding common shares. This program expired on March 10, 2025. Effective July 31, 2025, the Board of Trustees authorized a new share repurchase program (the "Share Repurchase Program"), providing for the repurchase of up to an aggregate of $100 million of our outstanding common shares. Under the Share Repurchase Program, we are authorized to repurchase common shares through open-market purchases, privately-negotiated transactions, block trades, or otherwise in accordance with applicable federal securities laws, including through Rule 10b5-1 trading plans and under Rule 10b-18 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The specific timing and amount of repurchases will vary based on available capital resources or other financial and operational performance, market conditions, securities law limitations, and other factors. The table below provides details on the shares repurchased during the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024. As of December 31, 2025, we had $96.5 million remaining authorized for purchase under this program.

(1) Amount includes commissions.

We had 1.6 million Series E preferred units (noncontrolling interests) outstanding on December 31, 2025 and 2024. Each Series E preferred unit has a par value of $100. The Series E preferred unit holders receive a preferred distribution at the rate of 3.875% per year. Each Series E preferred unit is convertible, at the holder's option, into 1.20482 common Units. The Series E preferred units had an aggregate liquidation preference of $157.0 million and $158.2 million as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively The holders of the Series E preferred units do not have voting rights.

We had 59,400 and 165,600 Series D preferred units outstanding as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively. The Series D preferred units have a par value of $100 per preferred unit. The Series D preferred unit holders receive a preferred distribution at the rate of 3.862% per year and have a put option which allows the holder to redeem any or all of the Series D preferred units for cash equal to the issuance price. During the year ended December 31, 2025, the Company redeemed 106,200 Series D preferred units for an aggregate redemption price of $10.6 million. Each Series D preferred unit is convertible, at the holder's option, into 1.37931 common Units. The Series D preferred units had an aggregate liquidation value of $5.9 million and $16.6 million as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

Changes in Cash, Cash Equivalents, and Restricted Cash

As of December 31, 2025, we had cash and cash equivalents of $12.8 million and restricted cash consisting of $2.8 million of escrows held by lenders and security deposits. The escrows held by lenders are for real estate taxes, insurance, and capital additions. As of December 31, 2024, we had cash and cash equivalents of $12.0 million and restricted cash consisting of $1.1 million of escrows held by lenders for real estate taxes, insurance, and capital additions.

The following discussion relates to changes in consolidated cash, cash equivalents, and restricted cash which are presented in our Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows in Item 15 of this report.

In addition to cash flows from operations, during the year ended December 31, 2025, we generated capital from various activities, including:

- Receiving $212.2 million in net proceeds from the sale of twelve apartment communities and corporate office space; and
- Receiving $107.6 million in net draws on our lines of credit.

During the year ended December 31, 2025, we used capital for various activities, including:

- Funding acquisitions of real estate assets of $206.3 million;

- Repaying approximately $96.8 million of mortgage principal;
- Redeeming 106,200 Series D preferred units for $10.6 million;
- Repurchasing 62,973 common shares for $3.5 million, net of fees and expenses;
- Paying distributions to noncontrolling interests in consolidated real estate entities of $4.5 million;
- Paying distributions on common shares, Units, and Series E preferred units of $60.2 million; and
- Funding capital improvements for apartment communities of approximately $34.2 million.

Contractual Obligations and Other Commitments

Our primary contractual obligations relate to borrowings under our lines of credit, unsecured senior notes, and mortgages payable. Our primary line of credit had a $154.0 million balance outstanding at December 31, 2025 and matures in July 2028. Our operating line of credit had a $925,000 balance outstanding at December 31, 2025 and matures in September 2026. Our unsecured senior notes had an aggregate balance of $300.0 million at December 31, 2025 with varying maturities from September 2028 through September 2034.

(1) The future interest payments on the lines of credit were estimated using the outstanding principal balance and interest rate in effect as of December 31, 2025.

We fund capital expenditures, primarily to maintain or renovate our apartment communities. The amounts of these expenditures can vary from year to year depending on the age of the apartment community, timing of planned improvements, and lease turnover.

As of December 31, 2025, we had no significant off-balance-sheet arrangements, as defined in Item 303(a)(4)(ii) of SEC Regulation S-K.

Inflation and Supply Chain

Our apartment leases generally have terms of one year or less, which means that, in an inflationary environment, we would have the ability, subject to market conditions, to increase rents upon the commencement of new leases or renewal of existing leases to manage the impact of inflation on our business. However, the cost to operate and maintain communities could increase at a rate greater than our ability to increase rents, which could adversely affect our results of operations. High inflation could have a negative impact on our residents and their ability to absorb rent increases.

We also continue to monitor pressures surrounding supply chain challenges, including the impact of tariffs. Supply chain and inflationary pressures are likely to result in increased operating expenses, specifically, increases in energy costs, salary related costs, and construction materials for repairs and maintenance or capital projects. A worsening of the current environment could contribute to delays in obtaining construction materials and result in higher than anticipated costs, which could prevent us from obtaining expected returns on value add projects.

We continue to have access to the financial markets; however, a prolonged disruption of the markets or a decline in credit and financing conditions could negatively affect our ability to access capital necessary to fund our operations or refinance maturing debt in the future. Additionally, rising interest rates could negatively impact our borrowing costs for any variable rate borrowings or refinancing activity.

Critical Accounting Estimates

Set forth below is a summary of the accounting estimates that management believes are critical to the preparation of the Consolidated Financial Statements included in this Report.

Real Estate. Real estate is carried at cost, net of accumulated depreciation, less an adjustment for impairment, if any. Depreciation requires an estimate by management of the useful life of each asset as well as an allocation of the costs associated with a property to its various components. As described further below, the process of allocating property costs to its components requires a considerable amount of subjective judgments to be made by management. If we do not allocate these costs appropriately or incorrectly estimate the useful lives of our real estate, depreciation expense may be misstated. Depreciation is computed on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets. We use a 10-37 year estimated life for buildings and improvements and a 5-10 year estimated life for furniture, fixtures, and equipment. Maintenance and repairs are charged to operations as incurred. Renovations and improvements that improve and/or extend the useful life of the asset are capitalized over their estimated useful life, generally five to twenty years.

Acquisition of Investments in Real Estate. Upon acquisitions of real estate, we assess the fair value of acquired tangible assets (including land, buildings and personal property), which is determined by valuing the property as if it were vacant, and consider whether there were significant intangible assets acquired (for example, above-and below-market leases, the value of acquired in-place leases and resident relationships) and assumed liabilities, and allocate the purchase price based on these assessments. The as-if-vacant value is allocated to land, buildings, and personal property based on our determination of the relative fair value of these assets. Techniques used to estimate fair value include discounted cash flow analysis and reference to recent sales of comparable properties. Estimates of future cash flows are based on a number of factors, including the historical operating results, known trends, and market/economic conditions that may affect the property. Land value is assigned based on the purchase price if land is acquired separately or based on a relative fair value allocation if acquired in a portfolio acquisition.

Other intangible assets acquired include amounts for in-place lease values that are based upon our evaluation of the specific characteristics of the leases. Factors considered in the fair value analysis include an estimate of carrying costs and foregone rental income during hypothetical expected lease-up periods, consideration of current market conditions, and costs to execute similar leases. We also consider information about each property obtained during our pre-acquisition due diligence, marketing and leasing activities in estimating the relative fair value of the tangible and intangible assets acquired.

Impairment. We periodically evaluate our long-lived assets, including our investments in real estate, for impairment indicators. The judgments regarding the existence of impairment indicators are based on factors such as operational performance, market conditions, expected holding period of each property, and legal and environmental concerns. If indicators exist, we compare the estimated future undiscounted cash flows for the property against the carrying amount of that property. If the sum of the estimated undiscounted cash flows is less than the carrying amount, an impairment loss is generally recorded for the difference between the estimated fair value and the carrying amount. If our anticipated holding period for properties, the estimated fair value of properties, or other factors change based on market conditions or otherwise, our evaluation of impairment charges may be different and such differences could be material to our Consolidated Financial Statements. The evaluation of estimated cash flows is subjective and is based, in part, on assumptions regarding future occupancy, rental rates and capital requirements that could differ materially from actual results. Plans to hold properties over longer periods decrease the likelihood of recording impairment losses.

Held for Sale. We classify properties as held for sale when they meet the GAAP criteria, which include: (a) management commits to and initiates a plan to sell the asset; (b) the sale is probable and expected to be completed within one year under terms that are usual and customary for sales of such assets; and (c) actions required to complete the plan indicate that it is unlikely that significant changes to the plan will be made or that the plan will be withdrawn. Held for sale properties are reported at the lower of their carrying amount or estimated fair value less costs to sell.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

For disclosure regarding recent accounting pronouncements and the anticipated impact they will have on our operations, please refer to Note 2 of our Consolidated Financial Statements appearing elsewhere in this Report.

Item 7A. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

Market risk refers to the risk of loss from adverse changes in market prices and interest rates. Our future revenue, cash flows, and fair values of certain financial instruments are dependent upon prevailing market prices and interest rates.

Our exposure to market risk is primarily related to fluctuations in the general level of interest rates on our current and future fixed and variable rate debt obligations. Our operating results are, therefore, affected by changes in interest rates, including SOFR.

As of December 31, 2025, we had $154.9 million of variable-rate borrowings under our lines of credit. We estimate that an increase in 30-day SOFR of 100 basis points with constant risk spreads would result in a $1.5 million reduction to our net income (loss) on an annual basis. We estimate that a decrease in 30-day SOFR of 100 basis points would increase our net income (loss) by a similar amount.

Mortgage loan indebtedness, excluding net debt premiums and discounts and the FMCF, decreased by $20.3 million as of December 31, 2025, compared to December 31, 2024, primarily due to mortgage payoffs and principal payments, offset by the assumption of mortgage loans in connection with a 2025 acquisition. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, all of our mortgage debt, $400.1 million and $420.4 million, respectively, was at fixed rates of interest with staggered maturities. As of December 31, 2025, the weighted average rate of interest on our mortgage debt was 3.88%, compared to 4.02% on December 31, 2024. Even though our goal is to maintain a fairly low exposure to interest rate risk, we may become vulnerable to significant fluctuations in interest rates on any future repricing or refinancing of our fixed or variable rate debt or future debt.

We cannot predict with certainty the effect of adverse changes in interest rates on our debt and, therefore, our market risk.

The following table provides information about our financial instruments that are sensitive to changes in interest rates. For debt obligations, the table presents principal cash flows and related weighted average interest rates by expected maturity dates. Average variable rates are based on rates in effect at the reporting date.

	Future Principal Payments (in thousands, except percentages)
Debt	2026	2027	2028	2029	2030	Thereafter	Total	Fair Value

(1) Interest rate is annualized.

(2) Interest rate excludes any unused facility fees and amounts reclassified from accumulated other comprehensive income into interest expense from terminated interest rate swaps.

Item 8. Financial Statements and Supplementary Data

Our Consolidated Financial Statements and related notes, together with the Report of the Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm, are set forth beginning on page F-1 of this Report and are incorporated herein by reference.

Item 9. Changes in and Disagreements with Accountants on Accounting and Financial Disclosure

None.

Item 9A. Controls and Procedures

Disclosure Controls and Procedures: As of December 31, 2025, the end of the period covered by this Report, our management carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures (as such term is defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Exchange Act). Based upon that evaluation, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in the reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the Commission's rules and forms, and is accumulated and communicated to management, including our principal executive and principal financial officers, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting: There have been no changes in our internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) under the Exchange Act) during the fourth quarter of the year to which this report relates that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

Management's Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

Our management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting and for performing an assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2025. Our internal control over financial reporting is a process designed under the supervision of our principal executive and principal financial officers to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of our financial statements for external reporting purposes in accordance with GAAP.

As of December 31, 2025, management conducted an assessment of the effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting, based on the framework established in Internal Control – Integrated Framework (2013) issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission ("COSO"). Based on this assessment, management has determined that our internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2025, was effective.

Our internal control over financial reporting includes policies and procedures that:

- pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect transactions, acquisitions and dispositions of assets;
- provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with GAAP, and that receipts and expenditures are being made only in accordance with authorizations of our management and the trustees; and
- provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of our assets that could have a material effect on our financial statements.

Due to its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate due to changes in conditions or deterioration in the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures.

Our internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2025, has been audited by Grant Thornton LLP, an independent registered public accounting firm, as stated in their report on page F-3 of our Consolidated Financial Statements contained in this Report, which expresses an unqualified opinion on the effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2025.

Item 9B. Other Information

During the fiscal quarter ended December 31, 2025, none of our trustees or executive officers adopted or terminated any contract, instruction or written plan for the purchase or sale of Company securities that was intended to satisfy the affirmative defense conditions of Rule 10b5-1(c) or any "non-Rule 10b5-1 trading arrangement."

Item 9C. Disclosure Regarding Foreign Jurisdictions that Prevent Inspections

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

Board of Trustees and Shareholders
Centerspace

Opinion on the financial statements

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Centerspace (a North Dakota real estate investment trust) and subsidiaries (the "Company") as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the related consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income (loss), equity, and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2025, and the related notes and financial statement schedule included under Item 15(a) (collectively referred to as the "consolidated financial statements"). In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2025, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

We also have audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB"), the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2025, based on criteria established in the 2013 Internal Control—Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission ("COSO"), and our report dated February 17, 2026 expressed an unqualified opinion.

Basis for opinion

These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's consolidated financial statements based on our audits. We are a public accounting firm registered with the PCAOB and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audits included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audits also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Critical audit matters

Critical audit matters are matters arising from the current period audit of the financial statements that were communicated or required to be communicated to the audit committee and that: (1) relate to accounts or disclosures that are material to the financial statements and (2) involved our especially challenging, subjective, or complex judgments. We determined that there are no critical audit matters.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

Board of Trustees and Shareholders
Centerspace

Opinion on internal control over financial reporting

We have audited the internal control over financial reporting of Centerspace (a North Dakota real estate investment trust) and subsidiaries (the "Company") as of December 31, 2025, based on criteria established in the 2013 Internal Control—Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission ("COSO"). In our opinion, the Company maintained, in all material respects, effective internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2025, based on criteria established in the 2013 Internal Control—Integrated Framework issued by COSO.

We also have audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB"), the consolidated financial statements of the Company as of and for the year ended December 31, 2025, and our report dated February 17, 2026 expressed an unqualified opinion on those financial statements.

Basis for opinion

The Company's management is responsible for maintaining effective internal control over financial reporting and for its assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting, included in the accompanying Management's Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal control over financial reporting based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the PCAOB and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether effective internal control over financial reporting was maintained in all material respects. Our audit included obtaining an understanding of internal control over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk, and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Definition and limitations of internal control over financial reporting

A company's internal control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

CENTERSPACE AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2025

NOTE 1 • ORGANIZATION

Centerspace, collectively with its consolidated subsidiaries ("Centerspace," "the Company," "we," "us," or "our") is a North Dakota real estate investment trust ("REIT") focused on the ownership, management, acquisition, redevelopment and development of apartment communities. As of December 31, 2025, Centerspace owned interests in 61 apartment communities consisting of 12,262 apartment homes.

NOTE 2 • BASIS OF PRESENTATION AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Centerspace conducts a majority of its business activities through a consolidated operating partnership, Centerspace, LP, a North Dakota limited partnership (the "Operating Partnership"), as well as through a number of other consolidated subsidiary entities. The accompanying Consolidated Financial Statements include the Company's accounts and the accounts of all its subsidiaries in which it maintains a controlling interest, including the Operating Partnership, and have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). All intercompany balances and transactions are eliminated in consolidation.

The Company's interest in the Operating Partnership as of December 31, 2025 and 2024 was 85.6% and 85.3%, respectively, of the limited partnership units of the Operating Partnership ("Units"), which includes 100% of the general partnership interest.

The Consolidated Financial Statements also reflected the Operating Partnership's ownership of a joint venture entity in which the Operating Partnership had a general partner or controlling interest. The joint venture entity no longer held any assets or liabilities and was deconsolidated as of December 31, 2025. This entity was consolidated into the Company's operations with noncontrolling interests reflecting the noncontrolling partners' share of ownership, income, and expenses.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

RECLASSIFICATIONS

Certain previously reported amounts within net cash provided by operating activities on the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows have been reclassified to conform to the current financial statement presentation. These reclassifications had no impact on net income (loss) as reported in the Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Income (Loss), total assets, liabilities or equity as reported in the Consolidated Balance Sheets and the classifications within the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

IMMATERIAL CORRECTION OF PRIOR PERIOD ERROR

During the second quarter of 2025, the Company identified immaterial prior period errors in the consolidated financial statements related to the balance of common shares and noncontrolling interest within Total Equity on the consolidated balance sheets and condensed consolidated balance sheets. The errors related to the equity amount allocated between common shares and noncontrolling interest based on ownership percentage, and did not impact the amount of Total Equity. The Company assessed the materiality of this change on prior period consolidated financial statements in accordance with SEC Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 99, "Materiality," (ASC Topic 250, Accounting for Changes and Error Corrections). Based on this assessment, the Company concluded that these error corrections are not material to any previously presented consolidated financial statements. Accordingly, the Company corrected the previously reported immaterial errors as of and for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2024, the three months ended March 31, 2024, the three and six months ended June 30, 2024, the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024, and the three months ended March 31, 2025 in the Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2025.

The financial reporting periods affected by this error include the Company's previously reported audited consolidated financial statements as of and for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2024 and the Company's previously reported interim unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements for the three months ended March 31, 2025. A summary of the immaterial corrections to the Company's previously reported audited and unaudited consolidated financial statements follows.

RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

The following table provides a brief description of Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") recent accounting standards updates ("ASU").

Standard	Description	Date of Adoption	Effect on the Financial Statements or Other Significant Matters
ASU 2024-03, Income Statement - Reporting Comprehensive Income-Expense Disaggregation Disclosures (Subtopic 220-40) - Disaggregation of Income Statement Expenses	This ASU is intended to improve financial reporting by requiring public companies disclose additional information about specific expense categories in the notes to the financial statements.	This ASU is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2026, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2027. Early adoption is permitted.	The ASU will require additional disclosure but is not expected to have a material impact on the Consolidated Financial Statements.
ASU 2025-10, Government Grants (Topic 832) - Accounting for Government Grants Received by Business Entities	This ASU establishes authoritative guidance on the accounting for government grants received by business entities.	This ASU is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2028, and interim reporting periods within those annual reporting periods.	This ASU is not expected to have a material impact on the Consolidated Financial Statements.
ASU 2025-11, Interim Reporting (Topic 270) - Narrow-Scope Improvements	This ASU is intended to provide clarity on the current interim reporting disclosure requirements.	This ASU is effective for interim reporting periods within annual periods beginning after December 15, 2027.	This ASU may require additional disclosure but is not expected to have a material impact on the Consolidated Financial Statements.
ASU 2025-12, Codification Improvements	This ASU is intended to provide technical corrections, clarifications, and minor improvements to the FASB Accounting Standards Codification.	This ASU is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2026, and interim reporting periods within those annual reporting periods.	This ASU is not expected to have a material impact on the Consolidated Financial Statements.

REAL ESTATE INVESTMENTS

Real estate investments are recorded at cost less accumulated depreciation and an adjustment for impairment, if any. Property, consisting primarily of real estate investments, totaled $1.9 billion as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively. Upon acquisitions of real estate, the Company assesses the fair value of acquired tangible assets (including land, buildings and personal property), which is determined by valuing the property as if it were vacant, and considers whether there were significant intangible assets acquired (for example, above- and below-market leases, the value of acquired in-place leases and resident relationships) and assumed liabilities, and allocates the purchase price based on these assessments. The as-if-vacant value is allocated to land, buildings, and personal property based on the Company's determination of the relative fair values of these assets. The estimated fair value of the property is the amount that would be recoverable upon the disposition of the property. Techniques used to estimate fair value include discounted cash flow analysis and reference to recent sales of comparable properties. Estimates of future cash flows are based on a number of factors, including the historical operating results, known trends, and market/economic conditions that may affect the property. Land value is assigned based on the purchase price if land is acquired separately or based on a relative fair value allocation if acquired in a portfolio acquisition.

Other intangible assets acquired include amounts for in-place lease values that are based upon the Company's evaluation of the specific characteristics of the leases. Factors considered in the fair value analysis include an estimate of carrying costs and foregone rental income during hypothetical expected lease-up periods, considering current market conditions, and costs to execute similar leases. The Company also considers information about each property obtained during pre-acquisition due diligence, marketing, and leasing activities in estimating the relative fair value of the tangible and intangible assets acquired.

Acquired above- and below-market lease values are recorded as the difference between the contractual amounts to be paid pursuant to the in-place leases and management's estimate of fair market value lease rates for the corresponding in-place leases. The capitalized above- and below-market lease values are amortized as adjustments to rental revenue over the remaining terms of the respective leases.

Depreciation is computed on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets. The Company uses a 10-37 year estimated life for buildings and improvements and a 5-10 year estimated life for furniture, fixtures, and equipment. Land is not depreciated.

The Company follows the real estate project costs guidance in Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 970, Real Estate – General, in accounting for the costs of development and redevelopment projects. As real estate is undergoing development or redevelopment, all project costs directly associated with and attributable to the development and construction of a project, including interest expense and real estate tax expense, are capitalized to the cost of the real property. The capitalization period begins when development activities and expenditures begin and are identifiable to a specific property and ends upon completion, which is when the asset is ready for its intended use. Generally, rental property is considered substantially complete upon issuance of a certificate of occupancy. General and administrative costs are expensed as incurred. The Company did not capitalize interest during the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023.

Expenditures for ordinary maintenance and repairs are expensed to operations as incurred. Renovations and improvements that improve and/or extend the useful life of the asset are capitalized and depreciated over their estimated useful life, generally five to twenty years.

We periodically evaluate our long-lived assets, including real estate investments, for impairment indicators. The judgments regarding the existence of impairment indicators are based on factors such as operational performance, market conditions, expected holding period of each property, and legal and environmental concerns. If indicators exist, we compare the estimated future undiscounted cash flows for the property against the carrying amount of that property. If the sum of the estimated undiscounted cash flows is less than the carrying amount, an impairment loss is generally recorded for the difference between the estimated fair value and the carrying amount. If our anticipated holding period for properties, the estimated fair value of properties or other factors change based on market conditions or otherwise, our evaluation of impairment charges may be different and such differences could be material to our consolidated financial statements. The evaluation of estimated cash flows is subjective and is based, in part, on assumptions regarding future physical occupancy, rental rates, and capital requirements that could differ materially from actual results. Plans to hold properties over longer periods decrease the likelihood of recording impairment losses.

During the year ended December 31, 2025, the Company incurred a loss of $37.7 million for the impairment of six apartment communities written down to estimated fair value in connection with the communities' classification as held for sale which were sold during the year ended December 31, 2025 and one apartment community written down to fair value based on an independent appraisal and market data. During the year ended December 31, 2024, the Company did not record a loss for impairment on real estate. During the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company incurred a loss of $5.2 million for the impairment of two apartment communities. The Company recognized impairments of $3.0 million on one apartment community in Richfield, MN and $2.2 million on one apartment community in New Hope, MN. These properties were written-down to estimated fair value based on receipt of market offers to purchase the apartment communities.

The Company classifies properties as held for sale when they meet the GAAP criteria, which include: (a) management commits to and initiates a plan to sell the asset; (b) the sale is probable and expected to be completed within one year under terms that are usual and customary for sales of such assets; and (c) actions required to complete the plan indicate that it is unlikely that significant changes to the plan will be made or that the plan will be withdrawn. The Company generally considers these criteria met when the transaction has been approved by its Board of Trustees, there are no known significant contingencies related to the sale, and management believes it is probable that the sale will be completed within one year. The Company had no properties classified as held for sale at December 31, 2025 and 2024.

Real estate held for sale is stated at the lower of its carrying amount or estimated fair value less disposal costs. The Company's determination of fair value is based on inputs management believes are consistent with those that market participants would use. Estimates are significantly impacted by estimates of sales price, selling velocity, and other factors. Due to uncertainties in the estimation process, actual results could differ from such estimates. Depreciation is not recorded on assets classified as held for sale.

CASH, CASH EQUIVALENTS, AND RESTRICTED CASH

Cash and cash equivalents include all cash and highly liquid investments purchased with maturities of three months or less. Cash and cash equivalents consist of bank deposits and deposits in money market mutual funds. The Company is potentially exposed to credit risk for cash deposited with FDIC-insured financial institutions in accounts which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. Although past bank failures have increased the risk of loss in such accounts, the Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts.

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, restricted cash consisted of $2.8 million and $1.1 million, respectively, in escrows held by lenders and security deposits. Escrows include funds deposited with a lender for payment of real estate taxes and insurance and reserves to be used for replacement of structural elements and mechanical equipment at certain communities. The funds are under the control of the lender. Disbursements are made after supplying written documentation to the lender.

LEASES

As a lessor, Centerspace primarily leases multifamily apartment homes which qualify as operating leases with terms that are generally one year or less. Rental revenues are recognized in accordance with FASB ASC 842, Leases, using a method that represents a straight-line basis over the term of the lease. For the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, rental income represents approximately 98.2%, 98.3%, and 98.1%, respectively, of total revenues and includes gross market rent less adjustments for gain or loss to lease, concessions, vacancy loss, and bad debt. For the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, other property revenues represent the remaining 1.8%, 1.7%, and 1.9%, respectively, of total revenues and are primarily driven by other fee income, which is typically recognized when earned, at a point in time.

Some of the Company's apartment communities have commercial spaces available for lease. Lease terms for these spaces typically range from three to fifteen years. The leases for commercial spaces generally include options to extend the lease for additional terms, subject to adjustments in rent and certain other items.

Many of the leases contain non-lease components for utility reimbursement from residents and common area maintenance from commercial tenants. Centerspace has elected the practical expedient to combine lease and non-lease components. The combined components are included in lease income and are accounted for under ASC 842.

The aggregate amount of future scheduled lease income on commercial operating leases, excluding any variable lease income and non-lease components, as of December 31, 2025, was as follows:

		(in thousands)
2026	$	3,195
2027		2,898
2028		2,545
2029		2,205
2030		2,108
Thereafter		5,861
Total scheduled lease income - operating leases	$	18,812

REVENUES AND GAINS OR LOSSES ON SALE OF REAL ESTATE

Revenue is recognized in accordance with the transfer of goods and services to customers at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Company expects to be entitled for those goods and services.

Revenue streams that are included in revenues from contracts with customers include other property revenues such as application fees and other miscellaneous items. Centerspace recognizes revenue for these rental related items not included as a component of a lease as earned.

The following table presents the disaggregation of revenue streams for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023:

		(in thousands)
		Year ended December 31,
Revenue Stream	Applicable Standard	2025	2024	2023
Fixed lease income - operating leases	Leases	$ 252,918	$ 243,008	$ 243,931
Variable lease income - operating leases	Leases	15,887	13,419	12,433
Other property revenue	Revenue from contracts with customers	4,857	4,556	4,945
Total revenue		$ 273,662	$ 260,983	$ 261,309

In addition to lease income and other property revenue, the Company recognizes gains or losses on the sale of real estate and other investments when the criteria for derecognition of an asset are met, including when (1) a contract exists and (2) the buyer obtained control of the nonfinancial asset that was sold. For the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, the Company recognized a gain of $79.5 million, loss of $577,000, and gain of $71.2 million, respectively, on the sale of real estate and other investments. Any gain or loss on real estate dispositions is net of certain closing and other costs associated with the disposition.

MARKET CONCENTRATION RISK

The Company is subject to increased exposure from economic and other competitive factors specific to markets where it holds a significant percentage of the carrying value of its real estate portfolio. As of December 31, 2025, Centerspace held more than 10% of the carrying value of its real estate portfolio in the Minneapolis, Minnesota; Denver, Colorado; and Boulder / Ft. Collins, Colorado markets.

INCOME TAXES

The Company operates in a manner intended to enable it to continue to qualify as a REIT under Sections 856-860 of the Internal Revenue Code. Under those sections, a REIT which distributes at least 90% of its REIT taxable income, excluding capital gains, as a dividend to its shareholders each year and which meets certain other conditions will not be taxed on that portion of its taxable income which is distributed to shareholders. For the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, the Company distributed in excess of 90% of its taxable income and realized capital gains from property dispositions within the prescribed time limits. Accordingly, no provision has been made for federal income taxes in the accompanying Consolidated Financial Statements. If the Company fails to qualify as a REIT in any taxable year, it will be subject to federal income tax on its taxable income at regular corporate rates (including any alternative minimum tax) and may not be able to qualify as a REIT for the four subsequent taxable years. Even as a REIT, the Company may be subject to certain state and local income and property taxes, and to federal income and excise taxes on undistributed taxable income. In general, however, if the Company qualifies as a REIT, no provisions for federal income taxes are necessary except for taxes on undistributed REIT taxable income and taxes on the income generated by a taxable REIT subsidiary (TRS).

The Company has one TRS, which is subject to corporate federal and state income taxes on its taxable income at regular statutory rates. There were no income tax provisions or material deferred income tax items including any valuation allowances for the TRS for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023.

During the year ended December 31, 2025, the Company adopted ASU 2023-09, Income Tax (Topic 740): Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures. The standard enhances income tax disclosure requirements, including expanded disclosures related to the effective tax rate reconciliation and income taxes paid by jurisdiction. The adoption of ASU 2023-09 did not have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements, as the Company generally is not subject to U.S. federal income taxes due to its REIT status.

The Company conducts its business activity as an Umbrella Partnership Real Estate Investment Trust ("UPREIT") through its Operating Partnership. UPREIT status allows us to accept the contribution of real estate in exchange for Units. Generally, such a contribution to a limited partnership allows for the deferral of gain by an owner of appreciated real estate.

The following table indicates how distributions were characterized for federal income tax purposes for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023:

CALENDAR YEAR	2025	2024	2023
Tax status of distributions
Capital gain	69.55 %	—%	48.79 %
Ordinary income	30.45 %	41.71 %	28.46 %
Return of capital	—%	58.29 %	22.75 %

VARIABLE INTEREST ENTITY

Centerspace has determined that its Operating Partnership and each of its less-than-wholly owned real estate partnerships are variable interest entities (each, a "VIE"), as the limited partners or the functional equivalent of limited partners lack substantive kick-out rights and substantive participating rights. The Company is the primary beneficiary of the VIEs, and the VIEs are required to be consolidated on the balance sheet because the Company has a controlling financial interest in the VIEs and has both the power to direct the activities of the VIEs that most significantly impact the economic performance of the VIEs as well as the obligation to absorb losses or the right to receive benefits from the VIEs that could potentially be significant to the VIEs. Because the Operating Partnership is a VIE, all the Company's assets and liabilities are held through a VIE.

OTHER ASSETS

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, other assets consisted of the following amounts:

	in thousands
	December 31, 2025	December 31, 2024
Receivable arising from straight line rents	$ 1,645	$ 408

Total Other Assets	$ 46,620	$ 45,817

(1) See Involuntary Conversion of Assets discussion below for additional information on insurance receivable included here.

Real estate related notes receivable. In connection with the acquisition of The Lydian, an apartment community in Denver, Colorado, the Company acquired a tax increment financing note receivable ("TIF") with an initial principal balance of $4.1 million. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the principal balance was $3.9 million and $4.1 million, respectively, which appears within other assets in the Consolidated Balance Sheets at fair value. The note bears an interest rate of 6.0% with payments due in March and July of each year. The note matures September 30, 2041.

In connection with the acquisition of Ironwood, an apartment community in New Hope, Minnesota, the Company acquired a TIF note receivable with an initial principal balance of $6.6 million. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the principal balance was $4.9 million and $5.2 million, respectively, which appears within other assets in the Consolidated Balance Sheets at fair value. The note bears an interest rate of 4.5% with payments due in February and August of each year. The note matures February 1, 2039 and may be prepaid in whole or in part at any time.

In 2023, the Company originated a $15.1 million mezzanine loan for the development of an apartment community located in Inver Grove Heights, Minnesota. The mezzanine loan bears interest at 10.0% per annum, which accrues and is added to the principal balance and is payable at maturity. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Company had funded $15.1 million of the mezzanine loan. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the principal balance was $18.0 million and $16.3 million, respectively, which appears within other assets in the Consolidated Balance Sheets at fair value. The loan matures in December 2027 unless extended to December 2028 in accordance with the terms of the mezzanine loan agreement. The loan is secured by a pledge of and first priority security interest against 100% of the membership interests in the mezzanine borrower and the agreement provides the Company with an option to purchase the development at a discount to future appraised value. The loan represents an investment in an unconsolidated variable interest entity. The Company is not the primary beneficiary of the VIE as Centerspace does not have the power to direct the activities which most significantly impact the entity's economic performance nor does Centerspace have significant influence over the entity.

Intangible Assets. Intangible assets consist of in-place leases valued at the time of acquisition. The amortization period reflects the average remaining term of in-place leases acquired, which are generally less than one year for multifamily apartment homes and average lease term for the commercial spaces in the Company's mixed use properties. For the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, the Company recognized $8.3 million, $2.8 million, and $2.6 million, respectively, of amortization expense related to these intangibles, included within depreciation and amortization in the Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Income (Loss). The intangible assets remaining at December 31, 2025 related to in-place leases of multifamily apartment homes will be fully amortized in 2026, while in-place leases related to commercial spaces at certain apartment communities will be fully amortized by 2036.

Property and equipment. Property and equipment consists primarily of office equipment located at the Company's corporate offices in Minot, North Dakota and in Minneapolis, Minnesota. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, property and equipment cost was $1.8 million and $4.0 million, respectively. The Consolidated Balance Sheets reflect these assets at cost, net of accumulated depreciation of $1.2 million and $1.5 million as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively, and are included within other assets.

ADVERTISING COSTS

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred and reported on the Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Income (Loss) within the Property operating expenses, excluding real estate taxes line item. During the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023 total advertising expense was $3.0 million, $3.3 million, and $3.2 million, respectively.

SHARE-BASED COMPENSATION

The cost of share-based compensation is measured at grant date fair value based on estimated fair value of the awards. The estimated fair value of share-based awards is being amortized over the requisite service period. Refer to Note 13, Share-Based Compensation for additional discussion.

SEVERANCE AND TRANSITION

On March 23, 2023, the Company entered into a Separation and General Release Agreement (the "Separation Agreement") in connection with the departure of our former CEO. During the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company incurred total severance costs of $2.2 million for the cash severance and benefits for the former CEO, $737,000 in share-based compensation expense for the acceleration of certain equity awards, and $306,000 in other CEO transition related expenses. These expenses are included within general and administrative expenses in the Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Income (Loss). During the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Company had no severance and transition costs.

INVOLUNTARY CONVERSION OF ASSETS

During the year ended December 31, 2025, the Company recognized $1.9 million in casualty losses resulting from insurance events. The Company also recorded $920,000 in offsetting insurance receivables which are recorded within other assets on the Consolidated Balance Sheets. Any business interruption insurance proceeds and subrogation proceeds will be recognized when received, in accordance with ASC 610-30.

During the year ended December 31, 2024, Centerspace recognized $2.8 million in casualty losses resulting from six new insurance events and updated estimates on four previously reported events. The Company also recorded $566,000 in offsetting insurance receivables for new insurance events which are recorded within other assets on the Consolidated Balance Sheets.

In April 2023, a portion of an apartment community was destroyed by fire. The Company recorded a write-down of the apartment community asset, in accordance with ASC 610-30 on involuntary conversion of non-monetary assets, totaling $1.3 million with an offsetting insurance receivable recorded within other assets on the Consolidated Balance Sheets. During the year ended December 31, 2024, the claim was settled for $1.6 million, including remediation and other operating expenses.

During the year ended December 31, 2023, Centerspace recorded $2.0 million in additional write-downs to three apartment community assets due to separate insurance events with offsetting insurance receivables totaling $1.2 million recorded within other assets on the Consolidated Balance Sheets.

LITIGATION SETTLEMENT

During the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company recorded a loss on litigation settlement of $3.9 million due to a trial judgment entered against Centerspace for property damage, resulting in monetary losses. Centerspace was the named defendant in a lawsuit where the owner of a neighboring property claimed a retaining wall at one of the Company's apartment communities was causing water damage to the neighboring property. The original judgment was ordered on October 9, 2023 for $2.9 million which the Company immediately paid. In November 2023, the claimant filed motions requesting additional interest on the judgment and trial costs. Subsequent to December 31, 2023, the claimant was awarded an additional $1.0 million in judgment related interest and costs. The Company paid the additional amount and recorded the loss on litigation for the year ended December 31, 2023. After the additional judgment, the claimant's appeal was dismissed. The Company believes this matter is settled.

NOTE 3 • NET INCOME (LOSS) PER SHARE

Basic net income (loss) per share is computed by dividing net income (loss) available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of common shares of beneficial interest ("common shares") outstanding during the period. Centerspace has issued restricted stock units ("RSUs") and incentive stock options ("ISOs") under its 2015 Incentive Plan, RSUs under its 2025 Incentive Plan (as defined below), Series D Convertible Preferred Units ("Series D preferred units"), and Series E Convertible Preferred Units ("Series E preferred units"), which could have a dilutive effect on net income (loss) per share upon the vesting of the RSUs, exercise of the ISOs, or conversion of the Series D or Series E preferred units (refer to Note 4 for further discussion of the Series D and the Series E preferred units). Additionally, under the terms of the Operating Partnership's

Agreement of Limited Partnership, limited partners have the right to require the Operating Partnership to redeem their limited partnership units ("Units") any time following the first anniversary of the date they acquired such Units ("Exchange Right"). Upon the exercise of Exchange Rights, and in Centerspace's sole discretion, it may issue common shares in exchange for Units on a one-for-one-basis.The Company calculates diluted net income (loss) per share using the treasury stock method for RSUs and ISOs and the if converted method for Series D preferred units and Series E preferred units. Other than the issuance of RSUs, ISOs, Units, Series D preferred units, and Series E preferred units, there are no outstanding options, warrants, convertible stock, or other contractual obligations requiring issuance of additional common shares that would result in a dilution of net income (loss).

The following table presents a reconciliation of the numerator and denominator used to calculate basic and diluted net income (loss) per share reported in the Consolidated Financial Statements for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023:

(1) For the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, the impact of Units was excluded from the calculation of net income (loss) per common share - diluted as they were anti-dilutive. For the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, the impact of Series E preferred units was excluded from the calculation of net income (loss) per common share - diluted as they were anti-dilutive.

For the year ended December 31, 2025, operating partnership units of 966,000, weighted average Series D preferred units of 173,000, as converted, and Series E preferred units of 1.9 million, as converted, were excluded from the calculation of diluted net income (loss) per share because they were anti-dilutive as including these items would have improved net income per share.

For the year ended December 31, 2024, operating partnership units of 870,000, Series D preferred units of 228,000, as converted, Series E preferred units of 2.1 million, as converted, time-based RSUs and options of 24,000, and performance-based RSUs of 31,000 were excluded from the calculation of diluted net income (loss) per share because they were anti-dilutive as including these items would have improved net loss per share.

For the year ended December 31, 2023, operating partnership units of 925,000 and Series D preferred Units of 228,000, as converted, were excluded from the calculation of diluted net income (loss) per share because they were anti-dilutive as including these items would have improved net income per share.

NOTE 4 • MEZZANINE EQUITY AND EQUITY

Series D Preferred Units (Mezzanine Equity). Series D preferred units outstanding were 59,400 and 165,600 preferred units as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively. The Series D preferred units have a par value of $100 per preferred unit. The Series D preferred unit holders receive a preferred distribution at the rate of 3.862% per year and have a put option which allows the holder to redeem any or all of the Series D preferred units for cash equal to the issuance price. During the year ended December 31, 2025, the Company redeemed 106,200 Series D preferred units for an aggregate redemption price of $10.6 million. Each Series D preferred unit is convertible, at the holder's option, into 1.37931 Units. The Series D preferred units have an aggregate liquidation value of $5.9 million and $16.6 million as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively. Changes in the redemption value are based on changes in the trading value of common shares and are charged to common shares on the Consolidated Balance Sheets each quarter. The holders of the Series D preferred units do not have voting rights and do not participate in income or loss. Distributions to Series D unitholders are presented in the Consolidated Statements of Equity within net income (loss) attributable to controlling interests and noncontrolling interests.

Series C Preferred Shares. On August 30, 2024, we delivered notice to holders of our Series C preferred shares that we intended to redeem all 3.9 million Series C preferred shares at a redemption price equal to $25 per share plus any accrued but unpaid distributions per share up to and including the redemption date of September 30, 2024. On September 30, 2024, the Company completed the redemption of all the outstanding Series C preferred shares for an aggregate redemption price of $97.0 million, excluding distributions, which was $3.5 million in excess of the carrying value and is included in redemption of preferred shares on the Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Income (Loss). Such shares were no longer outstanding as of December 31, 2025 and 2024.

Operating Partnership Units. Outstanding Units in the Operating Partnership were 920,000 Units at December 31, 2025 and 980,000 Units at December 31, 2024. During the year ended December 31, 2024, Centerspace issued 190,000 Units as partial consideration for the acquisition of one apartment community located in Denver, Colorado.

Exchange Rights. Centerspace redeemed Units in exchange for common shares in connection with Unitholders exercising their exchange rights during the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024 as detailed in the table below.

	(in thousands)
	Number of Units		Total Book Value
Year ended December 31, 2025	60	$	2,661
Year ended December 31, 2024	71	$	3,218

Series E Preferred Units (Noncontrolling interest). Centerspace had 1.6 million Series E preferred units outstanding as of December 31, 2025 and 2024. Each Series E preferred unit has a par value of $100. The Series E preferred unit holders receive a preferred distribution at the rate of 3.875% per year and participate in income and loss. Each Series E preferred unit is convertible, at the holder's option, into 1.20482 common Units. Centerspace has the option, at its sole election, to convert Series E preferred units into common Units if its stock has traded at or above $83 per share for 15 of 30 consecutive trading days and it has made at least three consecutive quarters of distributions with a rate of at least $0.804 per common Unit. The Series E preferred units had an aggregate liquidation preference of $157.0 million and $158.2 million at December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively. The holders of the Series E preferred units do not have voting rights.

The Company redeemed Series E preferred units in exchange for common shares in connection with Series E unitholders exercising their exchange rights during the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024 as detailed below.

	Number of Series E Preferred Units Redeemed	Number of Common Shares Issued		Total Value

Common Shares and Equity Awards. Common shares outstanding on December 31, 2025 and 2024 totaled 16.8 million and 16.7 million, respectively. During the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, Centerspace issued approximately 30,788 and 13,524 common shares, respectively, with a total grant-date value of $2.9 million and $1.0 million, respectively, under its 2015 Incentive Plan, as share-based compensation for employees and trustees. These shares vested based on performance and service criteria. Refer to Note 13 for additional details on share-based compensation. During the year ended December 31, 2025, approximately 400 common shares were forfeited under the 2015 Incentive Plan compared to 200 common shares forfeited during the year ended December 31, 2024.

Equity Distribution Agreement. Centerspace has entered into an equity distribution agreement in connection with the at-the-market offering ("ATM Program") through which it may offer and sell common shares in amounts and at times determined by management. The maximum aggregate offering price of common shares available for offer and sale thereunder is $500.0 million. Under the ATM Program, the Company may enter into separate forward sale agreements. The proceeds from the sale of common shares under the ATM Program may be used for general corporate purposes, including the funding of acquisitions, construction or mezzanine loans, community renovations, and the repayment of indebtedness. As of December 31, 2025, common shares having an aggregate offering price of up to $262.9 million remained available under the ATM Program.

The table below provides details on the sale of common shares under the ATM Program during the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024.

(1) Total consideration is net of $1.1 million in commissions for the year ended December 31, 2024.

(2) Includes 869,000 shares sold on a forward basis for $62.7 million which were physically settled during the year ended December 31, 2024.

Share Repurchase Program. The Company had a share repurchase program, providing for the repurchase of up to an aggregate of $50 million of the Company's outstanding common shares. This program expired on March 10, 2025. Effective July 31, 2025, the Board of Trustees authorized a new share repurchase program (the " Share Repurchase Program"), providing for the repurchase of up to an aggregate of $100 million of the Company's outstanding common shares. Under the Share Repurchase Program, the Company is authorized to repurchase common shares through open-market purchases, privately-negotiated transactions, block trades, or otherwise in accordance with applicable federal securities laws, including through Rule 10b5-1 trading plans and under Rule 10b-18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The specific timing and amount of repurchases will vary based on available capital resources or other financial and operational performance, market conditions, securities law limitations, and other factors. The table below provides details on the shares repurchased during the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024. As of December 31, 2025, the Company had $96.5 million remaining authorized for purchase under the Share Repurchase Program.

NOTE 5 • NONCONTROLLING INTERESTS

Interests in the Operating Partnership held by limited partners are represented by Units and Series E preferred units. The Operating Partnership's income is allocated to holders of Units and Series E preferred units based upon the ratio of their holdings to the total Units outstanding during the period. Capital contributions, distributions, and profits and losses are allocated to noncontrolling interests in accordance with the terms of the Operating Partnership's Agreement of Limited Partnership.

Centerspace reflects noncontrolling interests in consolidated real estate entities on the Consolidated Balance Sheets for the portion of properties consolidated by us that are not wholly owned by us. The earnings or losses from these properties attributable to the noncontrolling interests are reflected as net income attributable to noncontrolling interests – consolidated real estate entities in the Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Income (Loss).

The joint venture entity, in which the Operating Partnership had a general partner or controlling interest, no longer held any assets or liabilities and was deconsolidated as of December 31, 2025. This entity was consolidated into the Company's operations with noncontrolling interests reflecting the noncontrolling partners' share of ownership, income, and expenses. The transaction that resulted in the deconsolidation of the joint venture entity was not with a related party. The Company's noncontrolling interests – consolidated real estate entities at December 31, 2025 and 2024 were as follows:

(1) Interest rates on lines of credit are variable and exclude any unused facility fees and amounts reclassified from accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) into interest expense from terminated interest rate swaps.
(2) Included within notes payable on the Consolidated Balance Sheets.
(3) Represents apartment communities encumbered by mortgages; 10 at December 31, 2025 and 15 at December 31, 2024.
(4) Interest rate is fixed.
(5) Includes mortgages payable of $76.5 million assumed as part of an acquisition discussed in Note 9 of the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

As of December 31, 2025, 44 apartment communities were not encumbered by mortgages and were available to provide credit support for the unsecured borrowings. The Company's primary unsecured credit facility (the "Unsecured Credit Facility" or "Facility") is a revolving, multi-bank line of credit, with Bank of Montreal serving as administrative agent. In May 2025, the Company exercised the accordion feature of the Facility, expanding the borrowing capacity by $150.0 million to $400.0 million. Prior to the exercise of the accordion feature, the line of credit had total commitments and borrowing capacity of up to $250.0 million, based on the value of unencumbered properties. As of December 31, 2025, the Company had additional borrowing availability of $246.0 million beyond the $154.0 million drawn under the Facility, priced at an interest rate of 5.12%. As of December 31, 2024, the Company had additional borrowing availability of $206.0 million beyond the $44.0 million drawn under the Facility, priced at an interest rate of 5.81%. This Facility matures in July 2028, with an option to extend maturity for up to two additional six-month periods.

The Secured Overnight Financing Rate ("SOFR") is the benchmark alternative reference rate under the Facility. As amended, the interest rates on the line of credit are based on the consolidated leverage ratio, at the Company's option, on either the lender's base rate plus a margin, ranging from 20-80 basis points, or daily or term SOFR, plus a margin that ranges from 120-180 basis points with the consolidated leverage ratio described under the Third Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, as amended.

Centerspace has an operating line of credit agreement with US Bank, N.A. which has a borrowing capacity of up to $10.0 million and pricing based on SOFR. This operating line of credit terminates in September 2026 and is designed to enhance treasury management activities and more effectively manage cash balances. As of December 31, 2025 there was $925,000 outstanding on this line of credit, priced at an interest rate of 5.91%, compared to $3.4 million outstanding as of December 31, 2024, priced at an interest rate of 6.56%.

Centerspace has a private shelf agreement with PGIM, Inc., an affiliate of Prudential Financial, Inc., and certain affiliates of PGIM, Inc. (collectively, "PGIM") under which the Company had issued $175.0 million in unsecured senior promissory notes ("Unsecured Shelf Notes"). On October 28, 2024, the shelf agreement was amended to extend the period of time during which the Company may borrow money to October 2027 and to increase the borrowing capacity to $300.0 million. The Company issued $125.0 million of senior unsecured promissory notes ("Unsecured Club Notes", and, collectively with the Unsecured Shelf Notes, the "unsecured senior notes") under a separate private note purchase agreement with PGIM and certain other lenders. The following table shows the notes issued under both agreements as of December 31, 2025 and 2024.

		(in thousands) Amount	Maturity Date	Fixed Interest Rate
Series A	$	75,000	September 13, 2029	3.84 %
Series B	$	50,000	September 30, 2028	3.69 %
Series C	$	50,000	June 6, 2030	2.70 %

Series 2021-D	$	15,000	September 17, 2034	2.78 %

Centerspace has a $198.9 million Fannie Mae Credit Facility Agreement ("FMCF"). The FMCF is secured by mortgages on 7 and 11 apartment communities, respectively, as of December 31, 2025 and 2024. The notes are interest-only, with varying maturity dates of 7, 10, and 12 years, and a blended weighted average fixed interest rate of 2.78%. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the FMCF had a balance of $198.9 million. The FMCF is included within mortgages payable on the Consolidated Balance Sheets.

As of December 31, 2025, Centerspace owned 10 apartment communities that served as collateral for mortgage loans, in addition to the apartment communities secured by the FMCF. All of these mortgage loans were non-recourse to the Company other than for standard carve-out obligations. Interest rates on mortgage loans range from 2.78% to 5.04%, and the mortgage loans have varying maturity dates from June 1, 2026, through June 1, 2060. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the mortgage loans had a balance of $400.1 million and $420.4 million, respectively, excluding unamortized premiums and discounts. As of December 31, 2025, the Company believes there are no material defaults or instances of material noncompliance in regard to any of these mortgage loans.

The aggregate amount of required future principal payments on outstanding debt, as of December 31, 2025 is as follows:

		(in thousands)
2026	$	57,432
2027		49,679
2028		268,224
2029		97,237

Deferred financing costs, premiums, and discounts on mortgages payable, net		(32,324)
Deferred financing costs on notes payable, net		(421)
Total		1,021,164

The Company's borrowings are subject to customary covenants and limitations. The Company believes that it was in compliance with all such covenants and limitations as of December 31, 2025.

NOTE 7 • DERIVATIVE INSTRUMENTS

Centerspace had, in the past, used interest rate derivatives to stabilize interest expense and manage its exposure to interest rate fluctuations. To accomplish this objective, the Company primarily used interest rate swap contracts to fix variable rate interest debt.

Changes in the fair value of derivatives designated and that qualify as cash flow hedges were recorded in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) ("OCI") and subsequently reclassified into earnings in the period that the hedged transaction affects earnings. Amounts reported in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) were reclassified to interest expense in the periods in which interest payments were incurred on variable rate debt. As of December 31, 2025, the Company fully amortized the amounts in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss). As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Company had no remaining interest rate swaps.

The table below presents the effect of the Company's derivative financial instruments on the Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Income (Loss) as of December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023.

NOTE 8 • FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

In determining the fair value of other financial instruments, Centerspace applies FASB ASC 820, "Fair Value Measurement and Disclosures". Fair value hierarchy under ASC 820 distinguishes between market participant assumptions based on market data obtained from sources independent of the reporting entity (Levels 1 and 2) and the reporting entity's own assumptions about market participant data (Level 3). Fair value estimates may differ from the amounts that may ultimately be realized upon sale or disposition of the assets and liabilities.

Fair Value Measurements on a Recurring Basis

	(in thousands)
	Balance Sheet Location	Total	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
December 31, 2025
Assets

December 31, 2024
Assets
Real estate related notes receivable	Other assets	$ 25,092	$ —	$ —	$ 25,092

Centerspace utilizes an income approach with Level 3 inputs based on expected future cash flows to value the notes receivable. The unobservable inputs include market transactions for similar instruments, management estimates of comparable interest rates (range of 5.00% to 9.00%), and instrument specific credit risk (range of 0.5% to 1.0%). Changes in fair value of these receivables from period to period are reported in interest and other income on the Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Income (Loss).

Real estate related notes receivable	$ 25,092	$ 23	$ 1,554	$ 1,577

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, Centerspace had investments totaling $3.5 million and $2.7 million, respectively, in real estate technology venture funds consisting of privately held entities that develop technology related to the real estate industry. These investments appear within other assets on the Consolidated Balance Sheets. The investments are measured at net asset value ("NAV") as a practical expedient under ASC 820. As of December 31, 2025, the Company had unfunded commitments of $650,000.

Fair Value Measurements on a Nonrecurring Basis

Non-financial assets measured at fair value on a nonrecurring basis at December 31, 2025 consisted of real estate investments that were written down to estimated fair value in connection with impairment recorded on one apartment community during the year ended December 31, 2025. There were no non-financial assets or liabilities measured at fair value on a nonrecurring basis at December 31, 2024. The Company's determination of fair value is based on an independent appraisal which considers operating and other market data to determine fair value. Due to uncertainties in the estimation process, actual results could differ from such estimates.

Financial Assets and Liabilities Not Measured at Fair Value

Cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash, accounts receivable, accounts payable, accrued expenses, and other liabilities are carried at amounts that reasonably approximate their fair value due to their short-term nature. For variable rate line of credit debt that re-prices frequently, fair values are based on carrying values.

The fair value of mortgages payable and unsecured senior notes is estimated based on the discounted cash flows of the loans using market research and management estimates of comparable interest rates, excluding any prepayment penalties (Level 3).

The estimated fair values of the Company's financial instruments as of December 31, 2025 and 2024 are as follows:

NOTE 10 • SEGMENTS

Centerspace operates in a single reportable segment which includes the ownership, management, development, redevelopment, and acquisition of apartment communities. Each of the operating properties is considered a separate operating segment because each property earns revenues, incurs expenses, and has discrete financial information.

The chief executive officer and chief financial officer are the chief operating decision-makers ("CODM"). The CODMs evaluate each property's operating results using net operating income ("NOI") to make decisions about resources to be allocated and to assess property performance, and do not group the properties based on geography, size, or type for this purpose. The Company defines NOI as total real estate revenues less property operating expenses, including real estate taxes. Centerspace believes that NOI is an important measure of operating performance for real estate because it provides a measure of operations that excludes gain (loss) on the sale of real estate and other investments, impairment, depreciation, amortization, financing costs, including interest and other income, losses on extinguishment of debt, interest expense, property management expenses, loss on litigation settlement, casualty gains (losses), and general and administrative expense.

The apartment communities have similar long-term economic characteristics and similar operating characteristics, such as type and length of lease, services offered to residents, and property management practices. No apartment community comprises more than 10% of consolidated revenues, profits, or assets. Accordingly, the apartment communities are aggregated into a single reportable segment, Multifamily. "All other" is composed of non-multifamily properties, non-multifamily components of mixed-use properties and apartment communities the Company has disposed or designated as held for sale, which did not meet the aggregation criteria. During the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Company disposed of twelve and two apartment communities, respectively. For the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, the disposed properties were included in "all other".

The following tables present NOI for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, respectively, along with reconciliations to net income (loss) as reported in the Consolidated Financial Statements. Segment assets are also reconciled to total assets as reported in the Consolidated Financial Statements.

NOTE 11 • RETIREMENT PLANS

Centerspace sponsors a defined contribution 401(k) plan to provide retirement benefits for employees that meet minimum employment criteria. Centerspace currently matches, dollar for dollar, employee contributions to the 401(k) plan in an amount equal to up to 5.0% of the eligible wages of each participating employee. Matching contributions are fully vested when made. Centerspace recognized expense of approximately $1.4 million, $1.3 million, and $1.3 million, respectively, during the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023.

NOTE 12 • COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Litigation. Centerspace is involved in various lawsuits arising in the normal course of business and believes that such matters will not have a material adverse effect on the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Environmental Matters. It is generally the Company's policy to obtain a Phase I environmental assessment of each property that it seeks to acquire. Such assessments have not revealed, nor is the Company aware of, any environmental liabilities that it believes would have a material adverse effect on its financial position or results of operations. Centerspace owns properties that contain or potentially contain (based on the age of the property) asbestos, lead, or underground storage tanks. For certain of these properties, the Company estimated the fair value of the conditional asset retirement obligation and chose not to book a liability because the amounts involved were immaterial. With respect to certain other properties, Centerspace has not recorded any related asset retirement obligation as the fair value of the liability cannot be reasonably estimated due to insufficient information. The Company believes it does not have sufficient information to estimate the fair value of the asset retirement obligations for these properties because a settlement date or range of potential settlement dates has not been specified by others. These properties are expected to be maintained by repairs and maintenance activities that would not involve the removal of the asbestos, lead, and/or underground storage tanks.

Under various federal, state, and local laws, ordinances, and regulations, a current or previous owner or operator of real estate may be liable for the costs of removal of, or remediation of, certain hazardous or toxic substances in, on, around, or under the property. While the Company currently has no knowledge of any material violation of environmental laws, ordinances, or regulations at any of the properties, there can be no assurance that areas of contamination will not be identified at any of its properties or that changes in environmental laws, regulations, or cleanup requirements would not result in material costs.

Insurance. Centerspace carries insurance coverage on its properties in amounts and types that it believes are customarily obtained by owners of similar properties and are sufficient to achieve its risk management objectives.

Limitations on Taxable Dispositions. Twenty-one properties, consisting of approximately 4,766 homes, are subject to limitations on taxable dispositions under agreements entered into with certain sellers or contributors of the properties and are effective for varying periods. Centerspace does not believe that the agreements materially affect the conduct of its business or its decisions whether to dispose of these properties during the limitation period because it generally holds these and other properties for investment purposes rather than for sale. In addition, where the Company deems it to be in the shareholders' best interests to dispose of such properties, it generally seeks to structure sales of such properties as tax-deferred transactions under Section 1031 of the Internal Revenue Code. Otherwise, the Company may be required to provide tax indemnification payments to the parties to these agreements.

Redemption Value of Units. Pursuant to a Unitholder's exercise of its Exchange Rights, the Company has the right, in its sole discretion, to acquire such Units by either making a cash payment or exchanging the Units for its common shares, on a one-for-one basis. All Units receive the same per Unit cash distributions as the per share dividends paid on common shares. Units are redeemable for an amount of cash per Unit equal to the average of the daily market price of common shares for the ten consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date of valuation of the Unit. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the aggregate redemption value of the then-outstanding Units owned by limited partners, as determined by the ten-day average market price for the common shares, was approximately $61.1 million and $64.8 million, respectively.

Unfunded Commitments. Centerspace has unfunded commitments of $650,000 in two real estate technology venture funds. Refer to Note 8 - Fair Value Measurements for additional information regarding these investments.

NOTE 13 • SHARE-BASED COMPENSATION

Share-based awards are provided to officers, non-officer employees, and trustees under the 2025 Incentive Plan approved by shareholders on May 14, 2025 (the "2025 Incentive Plan"), which allows for awards in the form of cash, unrestricted and restricted common shares, stock options, stock appreciation rights, and restricted stock units ("RSUs") up to an aggregate of 650,000 shares over the ten-year period in which the plan is in effect. Under the 2025 Incentive Plan, officers and non-officer employees may earn share awards under a long-term incentive plan ("LTIP"), which is a forward-looking program that measures long-term performance over the stated performance period. These awards are payable to the extent deemed earned in shares. The terms of the long-term incentive awards granted under the revised program may vary from year to year.

Through December 31, 2025, awards under the 2025 Incentive Plan consisted of RSUs. The Company accounts for forfeitures of restricted and unrestricted common shares, RSUs, and stock options when they occur instead of estimating the forfeitures.

Prior to the approval of the 2025 Incentive Plan, share based awards were provided to officers, non-officer employees, and trustees under the 2015 Incentive Plan approved by shareholders on September 15, 2015, as amended and restated on May 18, 2021 (the "2015 Incentive Plan"), which allowed for awards in the form of cash, unrestricted and restricted common shares, stock options, stock appreciation rights, and RSUs up to an aggregate of 775,000 shares over the ten-year period in which the plan was in effect. Through December 31, 2025, awards under the 2015 Incentive Plan consisted of restricted and unrestricted common shares, RSUs, and stock options.

The Company expenses the grant date fair value of LTIP awards in accordance with ASC Topic 718 Compensation-Stock Compensation. ASC 718 requires companies to measure the cost of the recipient services received in exchange for an award of an equity instrument based on the grant-date fair value of the award. The cost of the share award is expensed over the requisite service period, which is usually the vesting period.

Share-Based Compensation Expense

Total share-based compensation expense recognized in the Consolidated Financial Statements for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023 for all share-based awards was as follows:

	(in thousands)
	Year Ended December 31,
	2025	2024	2023
Share-based compensation expense	$ 3,445	$ 3,014	$ 3,295

Year Ended December 31, 2025 LTIP Awards

Awards granted to employees on January 1, 2025, under the 2015 Incentive Plan, consisted of an aggregate of 25,121 time-based RSU awards and 11,870 performance RSUs based on total shareholder return ("TSR"). The time-based RSUs vest as to one-third of the shares on each of January 1, 2026, January 1, 2027, and January 1, 2028.

The performance RSUs are earned based on the Company's TSR as compared to the FTSE Nareit Equity Index over a forward looking three-year period. The maximum number of performance RSUs eligible to be earned is 23,740 RSUs, which is 200% of the performance RSUs granted. Earned awards (if any) will fully vest as of the last day of the measurement period. These awards have market conditions in addition to service conditions that must be met for the awards to vest. Compensation expense is recognized ratably based on the grant date fair value, as determined using the Monte Carlo valuation model, regardless of whether the market conditions are achieved and the awards ultimately vest. Therefore, previously recorded compensation expense is not adjusted in the event that the market conditions are not achieved. The Company based the expected volatility on a weighted average of the historical volatility of the Company's daily closing share price, the risk-free interest rate on the interest rates on U.S. treasury bonds with a maturity equal to the remaining performance period of the award, and the expected term on the performance period of the award. The assumptions used to value the TSR performance RSUs were an expected volatility of 27.30%, a risk-free interest rate of 4.27%, and an expected life of 3 years. The share price at the grant date, January 1, 2025, was $66.15 per share.

Awards granted to employees on September 1, 2025, under the 2025 Incentive Plan, consist of 363 time-based RSUs and 2,682 performance RSUs based on TSR. The time-based RSUs vest as to one-third of the shares on each of September 1, 2026, January 1, 2027, and January 1, 2028. The performance RSUs are based on the Company's TSR, as described above. The maximum number of performance RSUs eligible to be earned is 5,364 RSUs, which is 200% of the performance RSUs granted. The terms of this performance award are consistent with the terms of the performance awards described above.

Restricted Stock Units

During the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023 the Company issued 25,934, 21,125, and 22,799 time-based RSUs to employees, respectively, and 9,527, 10,192, and 9,200 to trustees, respectively. The RSUs to employees generally vest over a three-year period and the RSUs to trustees generally vest over a one-year period. The fair value of the time-based RSUs granted during the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023 was $2.3 million, $1.9 million, and $1.8 million, respectively. The fair value of share awards at grant date for non-employee trustees was approximately $607,000, $689,000, and $545,000 for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, respectively. All of these awards are classified as equity awards. The Company recognizes compensation expense associated with the time-based awards ratably over the requisite service period. The total compensation cost related to non-vested time-based RSUs not yet recognized as of December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023 was $1.1 million, $966,000, and $798,000, respectively, which the Company expects to recognize over weighted average periods of 1.5 years, 1.40 years, and 1.60 years, respectively.

The unamortized value of RSUs with market conditions as of December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023 was approximately $1.5 million, $1.4 million, and $1.0 million, respectively.

The activity for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023 related to RSUs was as follows:
