Dow Inc. and Subsidiaries
The Dow Chemical Company and Subsidiaries

This Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q is a combined report being filed by Dow Inc. and The Dow Chemical Company and its consolidated subsidiaries ("TDCC" and together with Dow Inc., "Dow" or the "Company") due to the parent/subsidiary relationship between Dow Inc. and TDCC. The information reflected in the report is equally applicable to both Dow Inc. and TDCC, except where otherwise noted. Each of Dow Inc. and TDCC is filing information in this report on its own behalf and neither company makes any representation to the information relating to the other company.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT ABOUT FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain statements in this report are "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the federal securities laws, including Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Such statements often address expected future business and financial performance, financial condition, and other matters, and often contain words or phrases such as "anticipate," "believe," "could," "estimate," "expect," "intend," "may," "opportunity," "outlook," "plan," "project," "seek," "should," "strategy," "target," "will," "will be," "will continue," "will likely result," "would" and similar expressions, and variations or negatives of these words or phrases.

Forward-looking statements are based on current assumptions and expectations of future events that are subject to risks, uncertainties and other factors that are beyond Dow's control, which may cause actual results to differ materially from those projected, anticipated or implied in the forward-looking statements and speak only as of the date the statements were made. These factors include, but are not limited to: sales of Dow's products; Dow's expenses, future revenues and profitability; any supply chain, operational or other disruptions, sanctions, export restrictions, or increased economic uncertainty related to the ongoing conflicts between Russia and Ukraine and in the Middle East; capital requirements and need for and availability of financing; unexpected barriers in the development of technology, including with respect to Dow's contemplated capital and operating projects; Dow's ability to realize its commitment to carbon neutrality on the contemplated timeframe, including the completion and success of its integrated ethylene cracker and derivatives facility in Alberta, Canada; size of the markets for Dow's products and services and ability to compete in such markets; Dow's ability to develop and market new products and optimally manage product life cycles; the rate and degree of market acceptance of Dow's products; significant litigation and environmental matters and related contingencies and unexpected expenses; the success of competing technologies that are or may become available; the ability to protect Dow's intellectual property in the United States and abroad; Dow's ability to realize expected benefits from Transform to Outperform on the contemplated timeframe; developments related to contemplated restructuring activities and proposed divestitures or acquisitions such as workforce reduction, manufacturing facility and/or asset closure and related exit and disposal activities, and the benefits and costs associated with each of the foregoing; fluctuations in energy and raw material prices; management of process safety and product stewardship; changes in relationships with Dow's significant customers and suppliers; changes in public sentiment and political leadership; increased concerns about plastics in the environment and lack of a circular economy for plastics at scale; changes in consumer preferences and demand; changes in laws and regulations, political conditions, tariffs and trade policies, or industry development; global economic and capital markets conditions, such as inflation, market uncertainty, interest and currency exchange rates, and equity and commodity prices; business, logistics and supply disruptions; security threats, such as acts of sabotage, terrorism or war, including the ongoing conflicts between Russia and Ukraine and in the Middle East; weather events and natural disasters; disruptions in Dow's information technology networks and systems, including the impact of cyberattacks; risks related to Dow's separation from DowDuPont Inc. such as Dow's obligation to indemnify DuPont de Nemours, Inc. and/or Corteva, Inc. for certain liabilities; and any global and regional economic impacts of a pandemic or other public health-related risks and events on Dow's business.

Where, in any forward-looking statement, an expectation or belief as to future results or events is expressed, such expectation or belief is based on the current plans and expectations of management and expressed in good faith and believed to have a reasonable basis, but there can be no assurance that the expectation or belief will result or be achieved or accomplished. A detailed discussion of principal risks and uncertainties which may cause actual results and events to differ materially from such forward-looking statements is included in the section titled "Risk Factors" contained in Part II, Item 1A of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q and in Part I, Item 1A of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2025. These are not the only risks and uncertainties that Dow faces. There may be other risks and uncertainties that Dow is unable to identify at this time or that Dow does not currently expect to have a material impact on its business. If any of those risks or uncertainties develops into an actual event, it could have a material adverse effect on Dow's business. Dow Inc. and TDCC assume no obligation to update or revise publicly any forward-looking statements whether because of new information, future events, or otherwise, except as required by securities and other applicable laws.

Dow's website and its content are not deemed incorporated by reference into this report.

NOTE 1 – CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Basis of Presentation

Dow Inc. is the direct parent company of The Dow Chemical Company and its consolidated subsidiaries ("TDCC" and together with Dow Inc., "Dow" or the "Company"). The unaudited interim consolidated financial statements of Dow Inc. and TDCC were prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP") and reflect all adjustments (including normal recurring accruals) which, in the opinion of management, are considered necessary for the fair presentation of the results for the periods presented. These statements should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the combined Dow Inc. and TDCC Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2025 ("2025 10-K").

As a result of the parent/subsidiary relationship between Dow Inc. and TDCC, and considering that the financial statements and disclosures of each company are substantially similar, the companies are filing a combined report for this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. The information reflected in the report is equally applicable to both Dow Inc. and TDCC, except where otherwise noted. Transactions between TDCC and Dow Inc. are treated as related party transactions for TDCC.

Except as otherwise indicated by the context, the term "Union Carbide" means Union Carbide Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. Additionally, the term "Diamond Infrastructure Solutions" means Dow InfraCo, LLC, an entity that owns and operates infrastructure assets at certain Dow locations on the U.S. Gulf Coast and became a consolidated variable interest entity on May 1, 2025. See Note 20 for additional information about Diamond Infrastructure Solutions.

NOTE 2 – RECENT ACCOUNTING GUIDANCE

Accounting Guidance Issued But Not Adopted at June 30, 2026

In November 2024, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") 2024-03, "Income Statement—Reporting Comprehensive Income—Expense Disaggregation Disclosures (Subtopic 220-40): Disaggregation of Income Statement Expenses," which is intended to improve disclosures about a public business entity's expenses and address requests from investors for more detailed information about the types of expenses in commonly presented expense captions. Such information should allow investors to better understand an entity's performance, assess future cash flows, and compare performance over time and with other entities. The amendments will require public business entities to disclose in the notes to the financial statements, at each interim and annual reporting period, specific information about certain costs and expenses, including purchases of inventory, employee compensation, depreciation, and intangible asset amortization included in each expense caption presented on the face of the income statement, and the total amount of an entity's selling expenses. The amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2026, and interim reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2027, and may be applied either prospectively or retrospectively. Early adoption is permitted. While the adoption of ASU 2024-03 will result in enhanced disclosures, the Company does not expect it will have a material impact on its financial condition or results of operations.

In September 2025, the FASB issued ASU 2025-06, "Intangibles—Goodwill and Other—Internal-Use Software (Subtopic 350-40): Targeted Improvements to the Accounting for Internal-Use Software," which is intended to modernize the accounting for the costs of internal-use software given the evolution of software development to the incremental and iterative development method. The amendments remove all references to prescriptive and sequential development stages and, instead, require an entity to start capitalizing software costs when management has authorized and committed to funding the software project, and it is probable that the project will be completed and the software will be used to perform the function intended. The amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2027, and interim reporting periods within those annual reporting periods. Early adoption is permitted as of the beginning of an annual reporting period with the amendments to be applied using a prospective, modified or retrospective transition approach. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of adopting this guidance on the consolidated financial statements.

In December 2025, the FASB issued ASU 2025-10, "Government Grants (Topic 832): Accounting for Government Grants Received by Business Entities," which is intended to establish authoritative guidance on the accounting for government grants received by business entities and reduce diversity in practice. The amendments establish the timing and methods of recognition of both (1) a grant related to an asset and (2) a grant related to income. The amendments also require certain disclosures including the nature of the grant received, the accounting policies used to account for the grant, and significant terms and conditions for the grant. The amendments are effective for public business entities for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2028, and interim reporting periods within those annual reporting periods. Early adoption is permitted as of the beginning of an annual reporting period with the amendments to be applied using a modified prospective, modified retrospective or retrospective transition approach. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of adopting this guidance on the consolidated financial statements.

In May 2026, the FASB issued ASU 2026-02, "Environmental Credits and Environmental Credit Obligations (Topic 818)," which is intended to improve the accounting for and disclosure of environmental credits and related obligations and reduce diversity in practice. The amendments establish recognition, measurement, presentation, and disclosure requirements for environmental credits and environmental credit obligations arising from regulatory compliance programs. Environmental credits are recognized as assets when it is probable they will be used to settle an obligation, transferred in an exchange transaction, or used in a nonreciprocal transfer, and are subsequently measured based on their intended use. Environmental credit obligations are recognized as liabilities as qualifying events occur and are measured based on the carrying amount of related credits held and the amount required to settle any shortfall. The amendments are effective for public business entities for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2027, and interim periods within those annual reporting periods. Early adoption is permitted as of the beginning of an annual reporting period with the amendments to be applied on a retrospective basis through a cumulative-effect adjustment to retained earnings. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of adopting this guidance on the consolidated financial statements.

NOTE 3 – REVENUE

Revenue Recognition

The majority of the Company's revenue is derived from product sales. The Company's revenue related to product sales was 98 percent for the three and six months ended June 30, 2026 (98 percent and 97 percent for the three and six months ended June 30, 2025, respectively). The remaining sales were primarily related to the Company's insurance operations and licensing of patents and technologies. Product sales consist of sales of the Company's products to manufacturers and distributors. The Company considers order confirmations or purchase orders, which in some cases are governed by master supply agreements, to be contracts with a customer. The Company enters into licensing arrangements in which it licenses certain rights of its patents and technology to customers. Revenue from the Company's licenses for patents and technology is derived from sales-based royalties and licensing arrangements based on billing schedules established in each contract.

Remaining Performance Obligations

Remaining performance obligations represent the transaction price allocated to unsatisfied or partially unsatisfied performance obligations. At June 30, 2026, the Company had unfulfilled performance obligations of $564 million ($617 million at December 31, 2025) related to the licensing of technology. The Company expects revenue to be recognized for the remaining performance obligations over the next five years.

The Company has additional remaining performance obligations for product sales that have expected durations of one year or less, product sales of materials delivered through a pipeline for which the Company has elected the "right to invoice" practical expedient, and variable consideration attributable to royalties for licenses of patents and technology. The Company has received advance payments from customers related to long-term supply agreements that are deferred and recognized over the life of the contract, with remaining contract terms that range up to 18 years. The Company will have rights to future consideration for revenue recognized when product is delivered to the customer. These payments are included in "Accrued and other current liabilities" and "Other noncurrent obligations" in the consolidated balance sheets.

Disaggregation of Revenue

The Company disaggregates its revenue from contracts with customers by operating segment and business, as the Company believes it best depicts the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of its revenue and cash flows. See details in the tables below:

Contract Assets and Liabilities

The Company receives payments from customers based upon contractual billing schedules. Accounts receivable are recorded when the right to consideration becomes unconditional. Contract assets include amounts related to the Company's contractual right to consideration for completed performance obligations not yet invoiced. Contract liabilities include payments received in advance of performance under the contract and are recognized in revenue when the performance obligations are met. "Contract liabilities - current" primarily reflects deferred revenue from prepayments from customers for product to be delivered in 12 months or less and royalty payments that are deferred and will be recognized in 12 months or less. "Contract liabilities - noncurrent" includes advance payments that the Company has received from customers related to long-term supply agreements and royalty payments that are deferred and recognized over the life of the contract.

Revenue recognized in the first six months of 2026 from amounts included in contract liabilities at the beginning of the period was approximately $125 million (approximately $130 million in the first six months of 2025). In the first six months of 2026 and 2025, the amount of contract assets reclassified to receivables as a result of the right to the transaction consideration becoming unconditional was insignificant.

The following table summarizes contract assets and liabilities at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025:

Contract Assets and Liabilities In millions	Balance Sheet Classification	Jun 30, 2026	Dec 31, 2025

NOTE 4 – RESTRUCTURING AND ASSET RELATED CHARGES - NET

Charges for restructuring programs and other asset related charges, which include asset impairments, are recorded in "Restructuring and asset related charges - net" in the consolidated statements of income. For additional information on the Company's restructuring programs and other asset related charges, see Note 5 to the Consolidated Financial Statements included in the 2025 10-K.

Transform to Outperform

On January 26, 2026, the Dow Inc. Board of Directors ("Board") approved Transform to Outperform, a comprehensive set of actions designed to improve near-term Operating EBITDA by simplifying the Company's operating model, reducing its cost structure and delivering faster growth. The actions, which include a workforce reduction of approximately 4,500 roles, are expected to be substantially complete by the end of 2027. As a result, in the first and second quarters of 2026, the Company recorded pretax charges of $27 million and $445 million, respectively, for severance and related benefits costs, included in "Restructuring and asset related charges - net" in the consolidated statements of income, related to Corporate.

The Company has recorded pretax inception-to-date charges of $472 million for severance and related benefit costs associated with Transform to Outperform and has made related payments of $18 million.

At June 30, 2026, $405 million of the reserve balance was included in "Accrued and other current liabilities" and $49 million was included in "Other noncurrent obligations" in the consolidated balance sheets.

2025 Restructuring Program

On January 27, 2025, the Board approved targeted actions to further achieve the Company's cost reduction initiatives in response to ongoing macroeconomic uncertainty, while reinforcing its long-term competitiveness across the economic cycle. These actions, which included a workforce reduction of approximately 1,500 roles, were substantially complete at June 30, 2026.

On June 30, 2025, the Board approved restructuring actions to rationalize the Company's global asset footprint, including certain actions identified as part of the Company's previously announced strategic review of its European assets and certain corporate and other assets, and to enhance the Company's competitiveness over the economic cycle. The program includes asset write-down and write-off charges, severance and related benefit costs and other exit and disposal costs. The actions related to the shutdown of these assets are expected to be substantially complete by the end of 2027, with associated severance and related benefit cost payments continuing through the first quarter of 2030. In the second quarter of 2026, the Company recorded additional pretax restructuring charges of $58 million, consisting of asset write-downs and write-offs of $8 million and costs associated with exit and disposal activities of $50 million related to a supply commitment. The impact of these charges is shown as "Restructuring and asset related charges - net" in the consolidated statements of income. See Note 19 for additional information on nonrecurring fair value measurements.

The following table summarizes the activities related to the 2025 Restructuring Program, including segment information:

1. Costs associated with exit and disposal activities relate to asset retirement obligations and pension benefit settlement costs.

At June 30, 2026, $53 million of the restructuring reserve balance was included in "Accrued and other current liabilities" ($123 million at December 31, 2025) and $166 million was included in "Other noncurrent obligations" ($140 million at December 31, 2025) in the consolidated balance sheets.

The Company recorded pretax restructuring charges of $920 million inception-to-date under the 2025 Restructuring Program, consisting of severance and related benefit costs of $389 million, asset write-downs and write-offs of $357 million and costs associated with exit and disposal activities of $174 million.

Restructuring implementation costs, primarily decommissioning and demolition activities related to asset actions and costs associated with the Company's restructuring actions, are expected to result in additional cash expenditures of approximately $180 million. Restructuring implementation costs totaled $28 million and $49 million for the three and six months ended June 30, 2026, respectively ($5 million for the three and six months ended June 30, 2025).

Sundry income (expense) - net for TDCC for the three and six months ended June 30, 2026 and 2025 is substantially the same as that of Dow Inc. and, therefore, Sundry income (expense) - net for TDCC is not disclosed separately.

Other Investments
The Company has investments in company-owned life insurance policies, which are recorded at their cash surrender value as of each balance sheet date, as provided below:

Investments in Company-Owned Life Insurance
In millions	Jun 30, 2026	Dec 31, 2025
Gross cash value	$ 503	$ 543
Less: Existing drawdowns [1]	—	197
Less: Accrued interest on drawdowns [2]	—	2
Investments in company-owned life insurance [3]	$ 503	$ 344

1. Classified as "Proceeds from sales and maturities of investments" in the consolidated statements of cash flows.
2. Included in "Sundry income (expense) - net" in the consolidated statements of income.
3. Classified as "Other investments" in the consolidated balance sheets.

The Company repaid its existing drawdown of $197 million during the three months ended June 30, 2026, which was included in “Purchases of investments” in the consolidated statements of cash flows.

Supplier Finance Program
The Company facilitates a supply chain financing ("SCF") program in the ordinary course of business in order to extend payment terms with vendors. Under the terms of this program, a vendor can voluntarily enter into an agreement with a participating financial intermediary to sell its receivables due from the Company. The vendor receives payment from the financial intermediary, and the Company pays the financial intermediary on the terms originally negotiated with the vendor, which generally range from 90 to 120 days. The vendor negotiates the terms of the agreements directly with the financial intermediary and the Company is not a party to that agreement. The financial intermediary may allow the participating vendor to utilize the Company's creditworthiness in establishing credit spreads and associated costs, which may provide the vendor with more favorable terms than they would be able to secure on their own. The Company does not provide guarantees related to the SCF program. At June 30, 2026, outstanding obligations confirmed as valid under the SCF program were $290 million ($239 million at December 31, 2025), included in "Accounts payable – Trade" in the consolidated balance sheets.

NOTE 6 – INCOME TAXES

As the financial statements for Dow Inc. and TDCC are substantially similar, including the provision for income taxes, the following income tax discussion does not include reference to TDCC's provision for income taxes or its effective tax rate.

The Company's effective tax rate fluctuates based on, among other factors, where income is earned, the level of income relative to tax attributes and the level of equity earnings, since most earnings from the Company's equity method investments are taxed at the joint venture level.

The following table provides effective tax rate information for Dow Inc. for the three and six months ended June 30, 2026 and 2025:

Effective Tax Rate Information	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended
Amounts in millions	Jun 30, 2026	Jun 30, 2025	Jun 30, 2026	Jun 30, 2025
Income (loss) before income taxes	$ 871	$ (659)	$ 481	$ (1,033)
Provision for income taxes	$ 69	$ 142	$ 124	$ 58
Effective tax rate	7.9 %	(21.5)%	25.8 %	(5.6)%

The provision for income taxes for the three months ended June 30, 2026 was favorably impacted by changes in the Company's ability to utilize foreign tax credits associated with cash proceeds received in March 2026 related to the Nova Chemicals Corporation ethylene asset matter, partially offset by tax charges related to changes in uncertain tax positions. See Note 12 for additional information about the ethylene asset matter. The provision for income taxes for the six months ended June 30, 2026 was primarily impacted by the geographic mix of earnings. The provision for income taxes for the three and six months ended June 30, 2025 was unfavorably impacted by the recording of valuation allowances in certain foreign jurisdictions of $242 million and losses attributable to jurisdictions for which no tax benefit can be recognized, partially offset by a tax credit of $89 million related to the sale of a portion of the Company's membership interests in Diamond Infrastructure Solutions, resulting in a negative effective tax rate for both periods.

NOTE 7 – EARNINGS PER SHARE CALCULATIONS

The following tables provide earnings per share calculations for Dow Inc. for the three and six months ended June 30, 2026 and 2025. Earnings per share of TDCC is not presented as this information is not required in financial statements of wholly owned subsidiaries.

Net Income (Loss) for Earnings Per Share Calculations	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended
In millions	Jun 30, 2026	Jun 30, 2025	Jun 30, 2026	Jun 30, 2025

Shares in millions	Jun 30, 2026	Jun 30, 2025	Jun 30, 2026	Jun 30, 2025
Weighted-average common shares outstanding - basic	723.5	709.5	722.4	708.2
Plus dilutive effect of equity compensation plans [1]	1.6	—	1.1	—
Weighted-average common shares outstanding - diluted	725.1	709.5	723.5	708.2
Stock units excluded from EPS calculations [2]	15.6	19.6	16.1	17.2

1. The three and six months ended June 30, 2025 reflect a net loss and, as such, the basic share count was used for purposes of calculating earnings per share on a diluted basis.
2. These outstanding stock units were excluded from the calculation of diluted earnings per share because the effect of including them would have been antidilutive.

NOTE 8 – INVENTORIES

The following table provides a breakdown of inventories:

Inventories
In millions	Jun 30, 2026	Dec 31, 2025
Finished goods	$ 4,035	$ 3,737
Work in process	1,638	1,239

Adjustment of inventories to the LIFO basis	(510)	(388)
Total inventories	$ 7,233	$ 6,595

NOTE 9 – NONCONSOLIDATED AFFILIATES

For additional information on the Company’s nonconsolidated affiliates, see Note 11 to the Consolidated Financial Statements included in the 2025 10-K.

The Company's investments in companies accounted for using the equity method ("nonconsolidated affiliates"), by classification in the consolidated balance sheets are shown in the following table:

Investments in Nonconsolidated Affiliates In millions	Jun 30, 2026	Dec 31, 2025
Investment in nonconsolidated affiliates	$ 1,121	$ 1,264
Other noncurrent obligations	(861)	(933)
Net investment in nonconsolidated affiliates	$ 260	$ 331

At June 30, 2026, the Company had a negative investment balance in Sadara Chemical Company ("Sadara") of $793 million included in "Other noncurrent obligations" (negative $901 million at December 31, 2025) in the consolidated balance sheets. In accordance with ASC Topic 323 "Investments—Equity Method and Joint Ventures," the Company suspended recognition of its share of equity losses from Sadara in the first quarter of 2026, as the carrying value of Sadara related liabilities recorded in Dow's consolidated balance sheets (primarily the negative investment balance and guarantee liabilities) reached the total of Dow's existing relevant obligations and commitments. See Notes 12 and 19 for additional information.

At June 30, 2026, the Company had a negative investment balance in EQUATE Petrochemical Company K.S.C.C. of $58 million included in "Other noncurrent obligations" (negative $24 million at December 31, 2025) in the consolidated balance sheets. The increase in the negative investment was driven by dividends distributed to shareholders, net of equity earnings in the first six months of 2026.

NOTE 10 – TRANSFERS OF FINANCIAL ASSETS

Accounts Receivable Programs

The Company maintains accounts receivable facilities with various financial institutions, with committed and uncommitted facilities in the United States, which are set to expire in November 2028 and committed and uncommitted facilities in Europe, which are set to expire in March 2029 (collectively, "the Programs"). Under the terms of the Programs, the Company may sell certain eligible trade accounts receivable at any point in time, up to $900 million for the U.S. committed facility and up to €400 million for the Europe committed facility. Under the terms of the Programs, the Company continues to service the receivables from the customer, but retains no interest in the receivables, and remits payment to the financial institutions. Losses on transfers of receivables were insignificant for the three and six months ended June 30, 2026 and 2025. The Company also provides a guarantee to the financial institutions for the creditworthiness and collection of the receivables in satisfaction of the facility. See Note 12 for additional information related to guarantees.

The Company has access to accounts receivable discounting facilities that cover certain receivables generated from sales in EMEAI, Asia Pacific and Canada (collectively, "the Facilities"). Under the terms of the Facilities, the Company retains no interest in the transferred receivables once sold and receivables are transferred with limited recourse. The Company continues to service the receivables from the customer and remits payment to the Facilities. Losses on transfers of receivables were insignificant for the three and six months ended June 30, 2026 and 2025.

The following table provides a summary of cash flows related to the Programs and the Facilities for the three and six months ended June 30, 2026 and 2025:

Cash Flows Related to Transfers of Accounts Receivable	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended

Debt Covenants and Default Provisions
There were no material changes to the debt covenants and default provisions related to the Company's outstanding long-term debt and primary, private credit agreements in the first six months of 2026. For additional information on the Company's debt covenants and default provisions, see Note 14 to the Consolidated Financial Statements included in the 2025 10-K.

NOTE 12 – COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

A summary of the Company's commitments and contingencies can be found in Note 15 to the Consolidated Financial Statements included in the 2025 10-K, which is incorporated by reference herein.

Environmental Matters
Accruals for environmental matters are recorded when it is probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount of the liability can be reasonably estimated, based on current law and existing technologies. At June 30, 2026, the Company had accrued obligations of $1,005 million for probable environmental remediation and restoration costs ($1,011 million at December 31, 2025), including $231 million for the remediation of Superfund sites ($221 million at December 31, 2025). This is management's best estimate of the costs for remediation and restoration with respect to environmental matters for which the Company has accrued liabilities, although it is reasonably possible that the ultimate cost with respect to these particular matters could range up to approximately two and a half times that amount. Consequently, it is reasonably possible that environmental remediation and restoration costs in excess of amounts accrued could have a material impact on the Company's results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. It is the opinion of the Company's management, however, that the possibility is remote that costs in excess of the range disclosed will have a material impact on the Company's results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. Inherent uncertainties exist in these estimates primarily due to unknown conditions, changing governmental regulations and legal standards regarding liability, and emerging remediation technologies for handling site remediation and restoration. As new or additional information becomes available and/or certain spending trends become known, management will evaluate such information in determination of the current estimate of environmental liability.

Litigation

Asbestos-Related Matters of Union Carbide Corporation

Each quarter, Union Carbide reviews asbestos-related claims filed, settled and dismissed, as well as average settlement and resolution costs by disease category. Union Carbide also considers additional quantitative and qualitative factors such as the nature of pending claims, trial experience of Union Carbide and other asbestos defendants, current spending for defense and processing costs, significant appellate rulings and legislative developments, trends in the tort system, and their respective effects on expected future resolution costs. Union Carbide's management considers these factors in conjunction with the most recent actuarial study and determines whether a change in the estimate is warranted. Based on Union Carbide's review of 2026 activity, it was determined that no adjustment to the accrual was required at June 30, 2026.

Union Carbide's total asbestos-related liability for pending and future claims and defense and processing costs was $663 million at June 30, 2026 ($708 million at December 31, 2025). At June 30, 2026, approximately 32 percent of the recorded claim liability related to pending claims and approximately 68 percent related to future claims.

Gain Contingency - Dow v. Nova Chemicals Corporation Ethylene Asset Matter

In 2019, the Court of King's Bench of Alberta, Canada ("Court") found Nova Chemicals Corporation ("Nova") liable for engaging in a deliberate and continuing course of conduct of conversion, breach of contract, gross negligence and willful misconduct in the operation of the companies' jointly-owned ethylene asset in Joffre, Alberta, Canada ("Ethylene Asset"). As a result of the liability finding, which is now final and non-appealable, the Court signed a judgment ordering Nova to pay $1.43 billion Canadian dollars (equivalent to approximately $1.08 billion U.S. dollars) for damages incurred through 2012. Nova made payment in October 2019. At June 30, 2026, $201 million ($201 million at December 31, 2025) was included in "Other noncurrent obligations" in the Company's consolidated balance sheets related to the disputed portion of the 2019 damages judgment.

On June 10, 2025, the Court signed a separate judgment ordering Nova to pay an additional amount of $1.62 billion Canadian dollars (equivalent to approximately $1.2 billion U.S. dollars) for damages incurred through June 2018, which had not been previously quantified. The Court again found that Nova failed to operate the Ethylene Asset at full capacity during this time, depriving the Company's subsidiaries of millions of pounds of ethylene. On August 11, 2025, the Court also awarded fees of approximately $100 million U.S. dollars, bringing Nova's payment obligation to approximately $1.3 billion U.S. dollars. In March 2026, after Nova's procedural attempt to avoid payment and enforcement measures during its pending appeal on damages was denied, Nova paid $1.4 billion Canadian dollars (equivalent to approximately $1.0 billion U.S. dollars) directly to the Company and remitted withholding tax of $452 million Canadian dollars (equivalent to $331 million U.S. dollars) to the Canada Revenue Agency ("CRA") for the tax account of one of the Company's subsidiaries. The Company sought a refund of the amount remitted to the CRA, which was received in July 2026.

Certain portions of the fees awarded are not appealable and are not in dispute and, in accordance with ASC 450-30 "Gain Contingencies," the Company recorded a $40 million pretax gain in the first quarter of 2026, of which $14 million was included in "Selling, general and administrative expenses" in the consolidated statements of income and $26 million was included in "Sundry income (expense) - net" in the consolidated statements of income and related to Packaging & Specialty Plastics. At June 30, 2026, the Company's consolidated balance sheets included $331 million in "Accounts and notes receivable - Other" related to the withholding tax refund and $119 million and $1,175 million in "Accrued and other liabilities" and "Other noncurrent obligations," respectively, related to the disputed 2025 damages judgment and related fees.

Dow has filed a similar lawsuit against Nova in the Court to recover damages due to lost ethylene volumes from the operation of the Ethylene Asset after June 2018.

Guarantees
The following table provides a summary of the final expiration, maximum future payments and recorded liability included in the consolidated balance sheets for guarantees:

Guarantees	Jun 30, 2026			Dec 31, 2025
In millions	Final Expiration	Maximum Future Payments	Recorded Liability	Final Expiration	Maximum Future Payments	Recorded Liability
Guarantees	2038	$ 1,340	$ 536	2038	$ 1,307	$ 212

Guarantees arise during the ordinary course of business from relationships with customers, accounts receivable facilities and nonconsolidated affiliates when the Company undertakes an obligation to guarantee the performance of others (via delivery of cash or other assets) if specified triggering events occur. With guarantees, such as commercial or financial contracts, non-performance by the guaranteed party triggers the obligation of the Company to make payments to the beneficiary of the guarantee. The majority of the Company's guarantees relate to debt of nonconsolidated affiliates, which have expiration dates ranging from less than one year to 12 years.

The Company maintains accounts receivable facilities with various financial institutions, with committed and uncommitted facilities in the United States and in Europe. Under the terms of the Programs, the Company continues to service the receivables from the customers, but retains no interest in the receivables, and remits payment to the financial institutions. The Company also has access to accounts receivable discounting facilities, under which receivables are transferred with limited recourse. The Company's maximum guaranteed liability for the accounts receivable facilities was zero at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025.

TDCC has entered into guarantee agreements related to Sadara, a nonconsolidated affiliate. Sadara reached an agreement with its lenders to re-profile its outstanding project financing debt in the first quarter of 2021. In conjunction with the debt re-profiling, TDCC currently guarantees approximately $1.2 billion of principal, and the respective interest, of Sadara's project financing debt. Based on current market conditions and continued evaluation, the Company believes there is a more than remote probability that some future performance under the project financing guarantee may be required due to uncertainty in Sadara's cash flows. As part of the debt re-profiling, Sadara established a $500 million revolving credit facility guaranteed by Dow, which would be used to fund Dow's pro-rata share of any potential shortfall. In 2025, Sadara drew $80 million under the revolving credit facility. The term of the revolving credit facility expired in the second quarter of 2026 and the Company remitted cash to satisfy the outstanding $80 million guarantee obligation. This payment is included in "Investments in and loans to nonconsolidated affiliates" in the consolidated statements of cash flows. In the second quarter of 2026, as part of the debt re-profiling commitments, Dow issued a letter of credit for $86 million which expires in the fourth quarter of 2026. See Note 9 for additional information on Dow's investment in Sadara and Note 19 for additional information on fair value measurements.

NOTE 13 – LEASES

For additional information on the Company's leases, see Note 16 to the Consolidated Financial Statements included in the 2025 10-K.

The components of lease cost for operating and finance leases for the three and six months ended June 30, 2026 and 2025 were as follows:

NOTE 15 – NONCONTROLLING INTERESTS

Ownership interests in the Company's subsidiaries held by parties other than the Company are presented separately from the Company's equity in the consolidated balance sheets as "Noncontrolling interests." The amount of consolidated net income attributable to the Company and the noncontrolling interests are both presented on the face of the consolidated statements of income.

The following table summarizes the activity for equity attributable to noncontrolling interests for the three and six months ended June 30, 2026 and 2025:

Noncontrolling Interests	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended
In millions	Jun 30, 2026	Jun 30, 2025	Jun 30, 2026	Jun 30, 2025

The net periodic benefit cost (credit), other than the service cost component, is included in "Sundry income (expense) - net" in the consolidated statements of income.

NOTE 17 – STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION

A summary of the Company's stock-based compensation plans can be found in Note 20 to the Consolidated Financial Statements included in the 2025 10-K.

Stock Incentive Plan

The Company grants stock-based compensation to employees and non-employee directors under the 2019 Stock Incentive Plan, as amended (the "2019 Plan"). The Board approved the second amendment to the 2019 Plan to increase the shares authorized for issuance on February 12, 2026, which was approved by the Company's stockholders at the 2026 Annual Meeting of Stockholders held on April 9, 2026.

Most of the Company's stock-based compensation awards are granted in the first quarter of each year. In the first quarter of 2026, Dow Inc. granted the following stock-based compensation awards to employees:

- 1.8 million stock options with a weighted-average exercise price of $32.65 per share and a weighted-average fair value of $8.00 per share;
- 3.2 million restricted stock units with a weighted-average fair value of $32.64 per share; and
- 2.4 million performance stock units with a weighted-average fair value of $35.62 per share.

There was minimal grant activity in the second quarter of 2026.

Employee Stock Purchase Plan

Under the 2026 annual offering of the 2021 Employee Stock Purchase Plan (the "2021 ESPP"), most employees are eligible to purchase shares of common stock of Dow Inc. valued at up to 10 percent of their annual total base salary or wages. The number of shares purchased will be determined using the amount contributed by the employee divided by the plan price. The plan price of the stock is equal to 85 percent of the fair market value (closing price) of the common stock at March 30, 2026 (beginning) or October 2, 2026 (ending) of the offering period, whichever is lower.

In the first quarter of 2026, employees subscribed to the right to purchase approximately 2.2 million shares under the 2021 ESPP. In the second quarter of 2026, due to the change in the Company's stock price, employees now have the right to purchase approximately 2.9 million shares. The plan price is fixed upon the close of the offering period and will be determined in the fourth quarter of 2026. The shares will be delivered to employees in the fourth quarter of 2026.

NOTE 18 – FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

A summary of the Company's financial instruments, risk management policies, derivative instruments and hedging activities can be found in Note 21 to the Consolidated Financial Statements included in the 2025 10-K.

Refer to Note 19 for a summary of the fair value of financial instruments at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025.

Debt Securities

The Company's investments in debt securities are primarily classified as available-for-sale. The following table provides investing results from available-for-sale securities for the six months ended June 30, 2026 and 2025:

Investing Results	Six Months Ended

1. The Company's held-to-maturity securities primarily relate to treasury bills and time deposits. At June 30, 2026, $577 million is included in "Cash and cash equivalents" ($555 million at December 31, 2025) and $57 million is included in "Other current assets" ($69 million at December 31, 2025) in the consolidated balance sheets.
2. The Company's investments in marketable securities are included in "Other current assets" in the consolidated balance sheets.
3. The Company's investments in debt securities, which are primarily available-for-sale, and equity securities are included in "Other investments" in the consolidated balance sheets.
4. U.S. Treasury obligations, U.S. agency obligations, U.S. agency mortgage-backed securities and other municipalities' obligations.
5. Equity securities with a readily determinable fair value.
6. See Note 18 for classification of derivatives in the consolidated balance sheets.
7. Cost includes fair value hedge adjustment gains of $26 million at June 30, 2026 and $27 million at December 31, 2025 on $6,216 million of debt at June 30, 2026 and $5,538 million at December 31, 2025.
8. Estimated liability for TDCC's guarantee of Sadara's debt, of which $450 million is included in "Other noncurrent obligations" ($132 million at December 31, 2025) and zero is included in "Accrued and other current liabilities" ($80 million at December 31, 2025) in the consolidated balance sheets.

Cost approximates fair value for all other financial instruments.

For equity securities calculated at net asset value per share (or its equivalent), the Company had $106 million in private market securities and $11 million in real estate at June 30, 2026 ($109 million in private market securities and $13 million in real estate at December 31, 2025). There are no redemption restrictions and the unfunded commitments on these investments were $69 million at June 30, 2026 and $65 million at December 31, 2025.

For assets classified as Level 3 measurements, fair value is based on significant unobservable inputs including assumptions where there is little, if any, market activity. The level 3 asset values represent the fair value of an investment in a corporate bond, accounted for as a debt security.

For liabilities classified as Level 3 measurements, fair value is based on significant unobservable inputs including assumptions where there is little, if any, market activity. The fair value of the Company's accrued liability related to the guarantee of Sadara's project financing debt is in proportion to the Company's 35 percent ownership interest in Sadara. The estimated fair value of the project financing debt guarantee was calculated using a "with" and "without" method. The fair value of the debt was calculated "with" the guarantee less the fair value of the debt "without" the guarantee. The "with" and "without" values were calculated using a discounted cash flow method based on contractual cash flows as well as projected prepayments made on the debt by Sadara. During the three months ended March 31, 2026, the fair value of the project financing debt guarantee liability increased by $298 million, which was included in "Equity in earnings (losses) of nonconsolidated affiliates" in the consolidated statements of income. The increase in fair value was primarily attributable to adverse business conditions impacting Sadara's operations, including the ongoing conflicts in the Middle East. See Note 12 for further information on guarantees.

NOTE 20 – VARIABLE INTEREST ENTITIES

A summary of the Company's variable interest entities ("VIEs") not discussed below can be found in Note 23 to the Consolidated Financial Statements included in the 2025 10-K.

Assets and Liabilities of Consolidated VIEs

The Company's consolidated financial statements include the assets, liabilities and results of operations of VIEs for which the Company is the primary beneficiary. The other equity holders' interests are included in "Net income attributable to noncontrolling interests" in the consolidated statements of income and "Noncontrolling interests" in the consolidated balance sheets.

Infrastructure Entity

The Company has variable interests in Diamond Infrastructure Solutions, an entity that owns and operates infrastructure assets at certain Dow locations on the U.S Gulf Coast. The Company's variable interests relate to its membership interest and the service contracts between Diamond Infrastructure Solutions and Dow, under which a majority of the infrastructure services are provided to Dow using pass-through and cost-plus pricing. Diamond Infrastructure Solutions became a variable interest entity effective with the noncontrolling interest transaction on May 1, 2025. Dow is deemed the primary beneficiary as a result of decision rights held as the majority member.

The following table summarizes the carrying amounts of Diamond Infrastructure Solutions' assets and liabilities included in the Company's consolidated balance sheets at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025. Amounts presented are adjusted for intercompany eliminations.

Other noncurrent obligations	327	351
Total liabilities [2]	$ 948	$ 955

1. All assets were restricted at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025. Cash and cash equivalents held by the consolidated VIE is available for use in the ordinary course of business of the VIE entity and is not classified as restricted cash in the consolidated balance sheets.
2. All liabilities were nonrecourse at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025.

Other Consolidated VIEs

In addition, the Company holds variable interests and is the primary beneficiary of other joint ventures and entities. The following table summarizes the carrying amounts of other entities' assets and liabilities included in the Company's consolidated balance sheets at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025:

Dow's measure of profit/loss for segment reporting purposes is Operating EBIT as this is the manner in which the chief executive officer, chief financial officer, general counsel, and senior vice president of corporate development, together the chief operating decision maker ("CODM"), assesses performance and allocates resources for the three operating segments. The CODM compares quarterly results to both the year-ago and sequential periods to assess performance and allocate resources to each segment. The Company defines Operating EBIT as earnings (i.e., "Income (loss) before income taxes") before interest, excluding the impact of significant items. Operating EBIT by segment includes all operating items relating to the businesses; items that principally apply to Dow as a whole are assigned to Corporate.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS.

This Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q is a combined report being filed by Dow Inc. and The Dow Chemical Company and its consolidated subsidiaries (“TDCC” and together with Dow Inc., “Dow” or the "Company") due to the parent/subsidiary relationship between Dow Inc. and TDCC. The information reflected in the report is equally applicable to both Dow Inc. and TDCC, except where otherwise noted. Each of Dow Inc. and TDCC is filing information in this report on its own behalf and neither company makes any representation to the information relating to the other company.

Pursuant to General Instruction H(1)(a) and (b) for Form 10-Q "Omission of Information by Certain Wholly-Owned Subsidiaries," TDCC is filing this Form 10-Q with the reduced disclosure format.

Except as otherwise indicated by the context, the term "Union Carbide" means Union Carbide Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. Additionally, the term "Diamond Infrastructure Solutions" means Dow InfraCo, LLC, an entity that owns and operates infrastructure assets at certain Dow locations on the U.S. Gulf Coast and became a consolidated variable interest entity upon the sale of a portion of the entity's membership interests on May 1, 2025. The term "EMEAI" refers to the geographic region of Europe, Middle East, Africa and India.

Dow's website and its content are not deemed incorporated by reference into this report.

STATEMENT ON MIDDLE EAST CONFLICT

During 2026, geopolitical instability in the Middle East, including the conflict involving Iran, Israel, and the United States and related tensions affecting maritime transit through the Strait of Hormuz, has disrupted global energy and petrochemical supply chains. The Strait of Hormuz remains a critical shipping corridor for crude oil, refined products, natural gas, and chemical feedstocks. Although the intensity and nature of the conflict have changed over time and diplomatic efforts continue, periodic security incidents, shipping restrictions and uncertainty regarding access to regional ports and trade routes have continued to affect global markets. These conditions have contributed to volatility in energy and feedstock prices, disruptions to regional production and logistics networks, longer transit times, and shifts in global trade flows as production and sourcing have been rebalanced to alternative regions. As a result, portions of the global chemical industry have experienced supply constraints, increased transportation and operating costs, and reduced supply chain reliability, particularly in Asia Pacific and Europe. Additionally, the Company's joint ventures located in the Middle East have been directly impacted by the conflict.

The Company operates in cost-advantaged geographic regions, including the U.S. & Canada and Latin America, which have not been directly impacted by the Middle East conflict. Additionally, the Company's feedstock flexibility has allowed the Company to operate its European assets competitively, despite the volatile energy and feedstock environment.

TRANSFORM TO OUTPERFORM

In 2026, the Company announced Transform to Outperform, a comprehensive set of actions designed to improve near-term Operating EBITDA by simplifying the Company’s operating model, reducing its cost structure and delivering faster growth. Transform to Outperform is expected to deliver at least $2 billion near-term Operating EBITDA improvement from productivity improvements and growth and is accretive to the $1 billion structural cost reductions announced in the first quarter of 2025. In the first half of 2026, the Company delivered $190 million in Operating EBITDA improvement from Transform to Outperform.

OUTLOOK

In the second half of 2026, Dow will continue to build a more agile and resilient company that sets a new competitive standard. The Company will do so by advancing three priorities: growth and innovation in attractive end markets, investing in and strengthening its portfolio, and ensuring balanced capital allocation. Aligned to this, Transform to Outperform is delivering improvements in both growth and productivity, and the Company expects the impact of these efforts to ramp significantly throughout the remainder of this year and into 2027. Taken together, Dow's collective actions are focused on enhancing the long-term value the Company delivers across the cycle.

OVERVIEW

The following is a summary of the results for the three months ended June 30, 2026:

- The Company reported net sales in the second quarter of 2026 of $12.1 billion, up 20 percent from $10.1 billion in the second quarter of 2025; Packaging & Specialty Plastics (up 27 percent), Industrial Intermediates & Infrastructure (up 14 percent) and Performance Materials & Coatings (up 11 percent). Net sales increased in all geographic regions; Latin America (up 41 percent), the U.S. & Canada and EMEAI (both up 20 percent), and Asia Pacific (up 5 percent).
- Local price increased 20 percent compared with the second quarter of 2025 and was up in all operating segments; Packaging & Specialty Plastics (up 30 percent), Industrial Intermediates & Infrastructure (up 15 percent) and Performance Materials & Coatings (up 4 percent). Local price was up in all geographic regions; Latin America (up 32 percent), EMEAI (up 21 percent), the U.S. & Canada (up 17 percent) and Asia Pacific (up 14 percent).
- Currency had a favorable impact of 1 percent on net sales compared with the second quarter of 2025, driven by EMEAI (up 3 percent).
- Volume decreased 1 percent compared with the second quarter of 2025 and was mixed by operating segment; Packaging & Specialty Plastics (down 4 percent), Industrial Intermediates & Infrastructure (down 2 percent) and Performance Materials & Coatings (up 6 percent). Volume increased in Latin America (up 9 percent) and in the U.S. & Canada (up 3 percent) and was more than offset by a decrease in Asia Pacific (down 9 percent) and EMEAI (down 4 percent).
- Restructuring and asset related charges - net was $503 million in the second quarter of 2026, compared with $591 million in the second quarter of 2025. The second quarter of 2026 included pretax charges related to severance and related benefit costs associated with Transform to Outperform, as well as exit and disposal costs and asset write-downs and write-offs associated with the 2025 Restructuring Program. The second quarter of 2025 included asset write-downs and write-offs, severance and related benefits costs, and exit and disposal costs related to asset actions associated with the 2025 Restructuring Program.
- Equity in earnings (losses) of nonconsolidated affiliates was earnings of $36 million in the second quarter of 2026, compared with equity in losses of nonconsolidated affiliates of $30 million in the second quarter of 2025. The increase in equity earnings was primarily driven by the Company's suspension of the recognition of its share of equity losses from the Sadara joint venture in 2026.
- Net income attributable to noncontrolling interests was $81 million in the second quarter of 2026, compared with $34 million in the second quarter of 2025. The increase reflects the ownership interest in Diamond Infrastructure Solutions held by InfraPark Holdings, LLC ("InfraPark"), a subsidiary of a fund managed by Macquarie Asset Management. InfraPark purchased 40 percent of the membership interests in Diamond Infrastructure Solutions in the second quarter of 2025 and an additional 9 percent in the third quarter of 2025.
- Net income (loss) available for Dow Inc. and TDCC common stockholder(s) was income of $721 million and $715 million, respectively, in the second quarter of 2026, compared with a loss of $835 million and $816 million, respectively, in the second quarter of 2025. Earnings (loss) per share for Dow Inc. was earnings of $0.99 per share in the second quarter of 2026, compared with a loss of $1.18 per share in the second quarter of 2025.
- Cash provided by operating activities - continuing operations was $1,324 million in the second quarter of 2026, up $1,794 million compared with the second quarter of 2025. The increase is primarily driven by improved earnings in the second quarter of 2026.
- On April 9, 2026, Dow Inc. announced results from the 2026 Annual Stockholder Meeting, including the election of all incumbent directors to its Board of Directors ("Board").
- On April 9, 2026, Dow Inc. announced that its Board declared a dividend of $0.35 per share, payable on June 12, 2026, to shareholders of record as of May 29, 2026. This marks the 459th consecutive dividend paid by the Company or its affiliates since 1912.
- On April 14, 2026, Dow Inc. announced that its Board appointed Karen S. Carter as Chief Executive Officer of the Company, effective July 1, 2026. Ms. Carter succeeded Jim Fitterling, who transitioned from Chief Executive Officer to Executive Chair, effective July 1, 2026. The Board also appointed Karen S. Carter to serve as a Director of the Board, effective July 1, 2026.
- At June 30, 2026, the Company had approximately 32,800 employees.

In addition, the following events occurred subsequent to the second quarter of 2026:

- On July 15, 2026, the Company received a refund from the Canada Revenue Agency of $452 million Canadian dollars (equivalent to approximately $318 million U.S. dollars) associated with withholding taxes on the judgment paid by Nova Chemicals Corporation ("Nova") in connection with a legal matter in the first quarter of 2026.

Net sales increased in all operating segments and all geographic regions except Asia Pacific. Local price increased in all geographic regions and in Packaging & Specialty Plastics (up 10 percent) and Industrial Intermediates & Infrastructure (up 3 percent) and was flat in Performance Materials & Coatings. Volume decreased 1 percent, driven by Asia Pacific (down 5 percent), EMEAI (down 4 percent) and U.S. & Canada (down 1 percent), partially offset by increases in Latin America (up 9 percent). Volume decreased in Packaging & Specialty Plastics (down 3 percent) and Industrial Intermediates & Infrastructure (down 3 percent) and increased in Performance Materials & Coatings (up 4 percent). Currency favorably impacted net sales by 2 percent, driven by EMEAI (up 6 percent) and Asia Pacific (up 1 percent). Excluding the Hydrocarbons & Energy business, net sales increased 8 percent.

Cost of Sales
Cost of sales ("COS") was $9.9 billion in the second quarter of 2026, compared with $9.5 billion in the second quarter of 2025. COS increased in the second quarter of 2026 primarily due to the impact of performance-based compensation costs, higher logistics costs, and higher raw material, feedstock and energy costs, partially offset by the Company's cost reduction initiatives. For the first six months of 2026, COS was $19.1 billion compared with $19.3 billion in the first six months of 2025. COS for the first six months of 2026 decreased primarily due to the Company's cost reduction initiatives and lower raw material, feedstock and energy costs, partially offset by higher performance-based compensation costs and higher logistics costs. COS as a percentage of net sales was 82.1 percent in the second quarter of 2026 (94.2 percent in the second quarter of 2025) and 87.2 percent for the first six months of 2026 (93.9 percent for the first six months of 2025).

Research and Development Expenses
Research and development ("R&D") expenses totaled $207 million in the second quarter of 2026, compared with $188 million in the second quarter of 2025. R&D expenses increased in the second quarter of 2026 primarily due to higher performance-based compensation costs which more than offset the impact of the Company's cost reduction initiatives. R&D expenses for the first six months of 2026 and 2025 were $388 million as higher performance-based compensation costs were offset by the Company's cost reduction initiatives.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses
Selling, general and administrative ("SG&A") expenses totaled $535 million in the second quarter of 2026, compared with $347 million in the second quarter of 2025. SG&A expenses increased in the second quarter of 2026 primarily due to costs to achieve Transform to Outperform and higher performance-based compensation costs which more than offset the Company's cost reduction initiatives. For the first six months of 2026, SG&A expenses were $952 million, compared with $713 million in the first six months of 2025. SG&A expenses for the first six months of 2026 increased primarily due to costs to achieve Transform to Outperform and higher performance-based compensation costs, partially offset by the Company's cost reduction initiatives.

Amortization of Intangibles
Amortization of intangibles was $40 million in the second quarter of 2026 compared with $63 million in the second quarter of 2025. In the first six months of 2026, amortization of intangibles was $86 million, compared with $139 million in the first six months of 2025. Amortization of intangibles decreased primarily due to certain intangible assets becoming fully amortized in 2025.

Restructuring and Asset Related Charges - Net
Transform to Outperform
On January 26, 2026, the Dow Inc. Board of Directors ("Board") approved Transform to Outperform, a comprehensive set of actions designed to improve near-term Operating EBITDA by simplifying the Company's operating model, reducing its cost structure and delivering faster growth. As a result of these actions, in the first quarter of 2026, the Company recorded pretax charges of $27 million for severance and related benefit costs, related to Corporate. In the second quarter of 2026, the Company recorded pretax charges of $445 million for severance and related benefit costs, related to Corporate. See Note 4 to the Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information.

2025 Restructuring Program
On January 27, 2025, the Board approved targeted actions to further achieve the Company's cost reduction initiatives in response to ongoing macroeconomic uncertainty, while reinforcing its long-term competitiveness across the economic cycle. As a result of these actions, in the first quarter of 2025, the Company recorded pretax charges of $207 million for severance and related benefits costs, related to Corporate.

On June 30, 2025, the Board approved restructuring actions to rationalize the Company's global asset footprint, including certain actions identified as part of the Company's previously announced strategic review of its European assets and certain corporate and other assets, and to enhance the Company's competitiveness over the economic cycle. The program includes asset write-down and write-off charges, severance and related benefit costs and other exit and disposal costs. As a result of these actions, in the second quarter of 2025, the Company recorded pretax restructuring charges of $591 million, consisting of severance and related benefit costs of $154 million, asset write-downs and write-offs of $334 million and costs associated with exit and disposal activities of $103 million. Restructuring charges by segment were as follows: $158 million in Packaging & Specialty Plastics, $89 million in Industrial Intermediates & Infrastructure, $147 million in Performance Materials & Coatings and $197 million in Corporate. In the second quarter of 2026, the Company recorded additional pretax restructuring charges of $58 million, consisting of asset write-downs and write-offs of $8 million and costs associated with exit and disposal activities of $50 million. Restructuring charges by segment were as follows: $1 million in Industrial Intermediates & Infrastructure and $57 million in Performance Materials & Coatings. See Note 4 to the Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information.

2023 Restructuring Program
Actions related to the restructuring program approved by the Board on January 25, 2023 were complete at the end of the second quarter of 2025. In the first quarter of 2025, the Company recorded an additional pretax restructuring charge of $5 million for asset write-downs and write-offs and an asset related credit adjustment of $4 million, related to Industrial Intermediates & Infrastructure. See Note 4 to the Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information.

Equity in Earnings (Losses) of Nonconsolidated Affiliates
The Company's share of equity in earnings of nonconsolidated affiliates was $36 million in the second quarter of 2026, compared with equity in losses of nonconsolidated affiliates of $30 million in the second quarter of 2025, driven by the Company's suspension of the recognition of its share of equity losses from the Sadara joint venture in 2026. The Company's share of equity in losses of nonconsolidated affiliates was $267 million for the first six months of 2026, compared with equity in losses of nonconsolidated affiliates of $50 million for the first six months of 2025. The increase was primarily related to an adjustment to the Company's liability associated with its guarantee of Sadara's project financing debt and was related to Packaging & Specialty Plastics ($81 million) and Industrial Intermediates & Infrastructure ($211 million). This was partially offset by the Company suspending recognition of its share of equity losses from Sadara in 2026. Cash dividends from nonconsolidated affiliates were $276 million for the first six months of 2026, compared with $170 million for the first six months of 2025. See Notes 9 and 12 for additional information.

Sundry Income (Expense) – Net
Sundry income (expense) - net for the three months ended June 30, 2026 was income of $125 million and $118 million for Dow Inc. and TDCC, respectively, compared with income of $147 million and $163 million, respectively, for the three months ended June 30, 2025. The second quarter of 2026 included gains on the sales of other assets and investments, foreign currency exchange gains, and non-operating pension and postretirement benefit plan credits. The second quarter of 2025 included a gain from the divestiture of the Company's soil fumigation product line, non-operating pension and postretirement benefit plan credits, and foreign currency exchange gains. See Notes 5 and 16 to the Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information.

Sundry income (expense) - net for the six months ended June 30, 2026 was income of $246 million and $239 million for Dow Inc. and TDCC, respectively, compared with income of $160 million and $176 million, respectively, for the six months ended June 30, 2025. The first six months of 2026 included gains on the sales of other assets and investments, foreign currency exchange gains, non-operating pension and postretirement benefit plan credits, and a gain associated with the Nova ethylene asset matter. The first six months of 2025 included a gain from the divestiture of the Company's soil fumigation product line, non-operating pension and postretirement benefit plan credits, and foreign currency exchange gains, partially offset by a loss on early extinguishment of debt. See Notes 5, 12 and 16 to the Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information.

Interest Expense and Amortization of Debt Discount
Interest expense and amortization of debt discount was $210 million in the second quarter of 2026, compared with $209 million in the second quarter of 2025. Interest expense and amortization of debt discount was $429 million in the first six months of 2026, compared with $425 million in the first six months of 2025. See Liquidity and Capital Resources in Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations for additional information.

Provision for Income Taxes
The Company's effective tax rate fluctuates based on, among other factors, where income is earned, the level of income relative to tax attributes and the level of equity earnings, since most earnings from the Company's equity method investments are taxed at the joint venture level. In the second quarter of 2026, the Company reported a provision for income taxes of $69 million, resulting in an effective tax rate of 7.9 percent. In the second quarter of 2025, the Company reported a provision for income taxes of $142 million, resulting in a negative effective tax rate of 21.5 percent. For the first six months of 2026, the Company reported a provision for income taxes of $124 million, resulting in an effective tax rate of 25.8 percent. For the first six months of 2025, the Company reported a provision for income taxes of $58 million, resulting in a negative effective tax rate of 5.6 percent. The reported provision for income taxes and effective tax rates for TDCC are substantially similar.

The provision for income taxes for the second quarter of 2026 was favorably impacted by changes in the Company's ability to utilize foreign tax credits associated with cash proceeds received in March 2026 related to the Nova ethylene asset matter, partially offset by tax charges related to changes in uncertain tax positions. The provision for income taxes for the first six months of 2026 was primarily impacted by the geographic mix of earnings. The provision for income taxes for the second quarter and first six months of 2025 was unfavorably impacted by the recording of valuation allowances in certain foreign jurisdictions of $242 million and losses attributable to jurisdictions for which no tax benefit can be recognized, partially offset by a tax credit of $89 million related to the sale of a portion of the Company's membership interests in Diamond Infrastructure Solutions, resulting in a negative effective tax rate for both periods.

Net Income Attributable to Noncontrolling Interests
Net income attributable to noncontrolling interests was $81 million in the second quarter of 2026, compared with $34 million in the second quarter of 2025. Net income attributable to noncontrolling interests was $169 million in the first six months of 2026, compared with $51 million for the first six months of 2025. The increase in net income attributable to noncontrolling interests reflects the ownership interest in Diamond Infrastructure Solutions held by InfraPark, which purchased 40 percent of the membership interests in Diamond Infrastructure Solutions in the second quarter of 2025 and an additional 9 percent in the third quarter of 2025. See Notes 15 and 20 to the Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information.

Net Income (Loss) Available for Common Stockholder(s)
Dow Inc.
Net income (loss) available for Dow Inc. common stockholders was income of $721 million, or $0.99 per share, in the second quarter of 2026, compared with a loss of $835 million, or $1.18 per share, in the second quarter of 2025. Net income (loss) available for Dow Inc. common stockholders was income of $188 million, or $0.25 per share, in the first six months of 2026, compared with a loss of $1,142 million, or $1.62 per share, in the first six months of 2025. See Note 7 to the Consolidated Financial Statements for details on Dow Inc.'s earnings per share calculations.

TDCC
Net income (loss) available for the TDCC common stockholder was income of $715 million in the second quarter of 2026, compared with a loss of $816 million in the second quarter of 2025. Net income (loss) available for the TDCC common stockholder was income of $184 million in the first six months of 2026, compared with a loss of $1,121 million in the first six months of 2025. TDCC's common shares are owned solely by Dow Inc.

SEGMENT RESULTS

For further discussion of the Company's segments, see Part I, Item 1. Business of the combined Dow Inc. and TDCC Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025 ("2025 10-K"), filed with the SEC on February 3, 2026.

Dow's measure of profit/loss for segment reporting purposes is Operating EBIT as this is the manner in which the chief executive officer, chief financial officer, general counsel, and senior vice president of corporate development, together the chief operating decision maker ("CODM"), assesses performance and allocates resources for the three operating segments. The CODM compares quarterly results to both the year-ago and sequential periods to assess performance and allocate resources to each segment. The Company defines Operating EBIT as earnings (i.e., "Income (loss) before income taxes") before interest, excluding the impact of significant items. Operating EBIT by segment includes all operating items relating to the businesses; items that principally apply to Dow as a whole are assigned to Corporate. See Note 21 to the Consolidated Financial Statements for reconciliations of these measures.

Packaging & Specialty Plastics net sales were $6,385 million in the second quarter of 2026, up 27 percent from net sales of $5,025 million in the second quarter of 2025, with local price up 30 percent, currency up 1 percent, and volume down 4 percent. Local price increased in Packaging and Specialty Plastics in all geographic regions, driven by higher polyethylene prices. Local price increased in Hydrocarbons & Energy, driven by olefins and aromatics in the U.S. & Canada and EMEAI. Currency had a favorable impact on sales in both businesses and was driven by EMEAI. Volume decreased in Packaging and Specialty Plastics, driven by polyethylene declines in Asia Pacific and EMEAI impacted by the Middle East conflict. Volume decreased in Hydrocarbons & Energy due to planned maintenance activity in the U.S. Gulf Coast and the impact of idling an ethylene cracker in EMEAI in mid-2025, which successfully restarted in June 2026.

Operating EBIT was $1,278 million in the second quarter of 2026, up $1,207 million from Operating EBIT of $71 million in the second quarter of 2025. Operating EBIT increased primarily due to higher selling prices and the impact of the Company's self-help initiatives, partially offset by higher planned maintenance and performance-based compensation costs.

Packaging & Specialty Plastics net sales were $11,304 million in the first six months of 2026, up 9 percent from net sales of $10,335 million in the first six months of 2025, with local price up 10 percent, currency up 2 percent, and volume down 3 percent. Local price increased in Packaging and Specialty Plastics in all geographic regions, driven by higher pricing of polyethylene. Local price increased in Hydrocarbons & Energy, driven by olefins and aromatics in EMEAI and the U.S. & Canada. Currency had a favorable impact on sales in both businesses and was primarily driven by EMEAI. Volume was flat in Packaging and Specialty Plastics as higher volumes in polyethylene were offset by lower non-recurring licensing sales. Volume decreased in Hydrocarbons & Energy due to planned maintenance activity in the U.S. Gulf Coast and the impact of idling an ethylene cracker in EMEAI in mid-2025, which successfully restarted in June.

Operating EBIT was $1,486 million in the first six months of 2026, up $1,073 million from Operating EBIT of $413 million in the first six months of 2025. Operating EBIT increased primarily due to higher selling prices and the impact of the Company's self-help initiatives, partially offset by higher planned maintenance and performance-based compensation costs.

Industrial Intermediates & Infrastructure net sales were $3,166 million in the second quarter of 2026, up 14 percent from net sales of $2,786 million in the second quarter of 2025, with local price up 15 percent, currency up 1 percent, and volume down 2 percent. Local prices increased across both businesses and all geographic regions. Currency had a favorable impact on sales and was driven by EMEAI. Volume decreased in Polyurethanes & Construction Chemicals, primarily in Asia Pacific and EMEAI due to the impact of the Middle East conflict, which more than offset increased volume in industrial market applications. Volume increased in Industrial Solutions, primarily in the U.S. & Canada, driven by increased demand for energy applications and higher volumes from recent alkoxylation investments, which more than offset declines in Asia Pacific and EMEAI primarily due to the impact of the conflict in the Middle East.

Operating EBIT was $246 million in the second quarter of 2026, up $431 million from an Operating EBIT loss of $185 million in the second quarter of 2025. Operating EBIT increased as higher margins, the impact of the Company’s self-help initiatives, lower planned maintenance activity and the suspension of the recognition of equity losses from Sadara more than offset the impact of higher performance-based compensation costs.

Industrial Intermediates & Infrastructure net sales were $5,792 million in the first six months of 2026, up 3 percent from net sales of $5,641 million in the first six months of 2025, with local price up 3 percent, currency up 3 percent, and volume down 3 percent. Local price increased in both businesses and across all geographic regions. Currency had a favorable impact on sales in both businesses and was driven by EMEAI. Volume decreased in Polyurethanes & Construction Chemicals due to the impact of the Middle East conflict, which more than offset increased volume in industrial market applications. Volume decreased in Industrial Solutions as the impact of the conflict in the Middle East more than offset increases in energy applications and higher volumes from recent alkoxylation investments.

Operating EBIT was $128 million in the first six months of 2026, up $441 million from Operating EBIT loss of $313 million in the first six months of 2025. Operating EBIT increased primarily due to higher margins, the impact of the Company’s self-help initiatives, lower planned maintenance activity and the suspension of the recognition of equity losses from Sadara, which more than offset the impact of higher performance-based compensation costs.

Performance Materials & Coatings net sales were $2,361 million in the second quarter of 2026, up 11 percent from net sales of $2,129 million in the second quarter of 2025, with volume up 6 percent, local price up 4 percent, and a favorable currency impact of 1 percent. Coatings & Performance Monomers volume increased across all geographic regions, driven by higher demand for acrylic monomers. Volume increased in Consumer Solutions in all geographic regions, primarily in downstream silicones, led by home care and consumer and electronics. Local price in Coatings & Performance Monomers increased across all geographic regions, primarily in acrylic monomers and architectural coatings. Local price was flat in Consumer Solutions with gains in Asia Pacific and EMEAI offset by declines in the U.S. & Canada and Latin America. Local price gains in downstream silicones, driven by consumer and electronics, were offset by declines in upstream siloxanes.

Operating EBIT was $133 million in the second quarter of 2026, down $19 million from Operating EBIT of $152 million in the second quarter of 2025. Operating EBIT decreased as higher performance-based compensation costs, planned maintenance activity, and fixed costs impacted by the closure of the Barry, U.K., siloxanes plant more than offset higher demand, reduced intangible asset amortization expenses in Consumer Solutions, and the impact of the Company's self-help initiatives.

Performance Materials & Coatings net sales were $4,441 million in the first six months of 2026, up 6 percent from net sales of $4,200 million in the first six months of 2025, with volume up 4 percent, a favorable currency impact of 2 percent, and local price flat. Coatings & Performance Monomers volume increased across all geographic regions, driven by higher demand for acrylic monomers. Volume increased in Consumer Solutions in all geographic regions except EMEAI. Volume increased primarily in downstream silicones, led by consumer and electronics and home care. The favorable currency impact was driven by EMEAI and Asia Pacific in both businesses. Local price in Coatings & Performance Monomers increased across all geographic regions except Asia Pacific, primarily in acrylic monomers. Local price decreased in Consumer Solutions due to declines in upstream siloxanes.

Operating EBIT was $250 million in the first six months of 2026, up $49 million from Operating EBIT of $201 million in the first six months of 2025. Operating EBIT increased in both businesses primarily due to higher sales volume, the impact of the Company's self-help initiatives, and reduced intangible asset amortization expenses in Consumer Solutions, which more than offset higher performance-based compensation costs.

CORPORATE

Corporate	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended

Operating EBIT	$ (9)	$ (59)	$ (62)	$ (92)
Equity earnings	$ 1	$ 1	$ 2	$ —

Net sales for Corporate, which primarily relate to the Company's insurance operations, were $180 million in the second quarter of 2026, an increase from net sales of $164 million in the second quarter of 2025. Net sales were $349 million in the first six months of 2026, a decrease from net sales of $359 million in the first six months of 2025.

Operating EBIT was a loss of $9 million in the second quarter of 2026, compared with a loss of $59 million in the second quarter of 2025. Operating EBIT increased primarily due to increased investment gains and the benefit of the Company's cost reduction initiatives. Operating EBIT was a loss of $62 million in the first six months of 2026, compared with a loss of $92 million in the first six months of 2025. Operating EBIT increased due to increased investment gains and the impact of the Company's cost reduction initiatives, partially offset by higher environmental expenses.

CHANGES IN FINANCIAL CONDITION

The Company had cash and cash equivalents of $3,973 million at June 30, 2026 and $3,816 million at December 31, 2025, of which $1,875 million at June 30, 2026 and $2,636 million at December 31, 2025 was held by subsidiaries in foreign countries, including U.S. territories. For each of its foreign subsidiaries, Dow makes an assertion regarding the amount of earnings intended for permanent reinvestment, with the balance available to be repatriated to the United States.

Cash held by foreign subsidiaries for permanent reinvestment is generally used to finance the subsidiaries' operational activities and future foreign investments. Dow has the ability to repatriate additional funds to the United States, which could result in an adjustment to the tax liability for foreign withholding taxes, foreign and/or U.S. state income taxes and the impact of foreign currency movements. At June 30, 2026, management believed that sufficient liquidity was available in the United States. The Company has and expects to continue repatriating certain funds from its non-U.S. subsidiaries that are not needed to finance local operations; however, these particular repatriation activities have not and are not expected to result in a significant incremental tax liability to the Company.

The Company's cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities, as reflected in the consolidated statements of cash flows, are summarized in the following table:

Cash Flow Summary	Dow Inc.		TDCC

Financing activities	$ (807)	$ 1,341	$ (816)	$ 1,346

Cash Flows from Operating Activities

Cash provided by operating activities from continuing operations in the first six months of 2026 was primarily driven by the Company's cash earnings, a cash receipt from Nova related to a judgment on the ethylene asset matter and dividends from equity method investments, partially offset by cash used for working capital, income tax payments and performance-based compensation. Cash used for operating activities from continuing operations in the first six months of 2025 was primarily driven by cash used for working capital and performance-based compensation, which were partially offset by the Company's cash earnings and dividends from equity method investments.

Cash provided by (used for) operating activities from discontinued operations in the first six months of 2026 and 2025 reflected cash payments and receipts for certain agreements and matters related to the separation from DowDuPont Inc. ("DowDuPont").

Cash Flows from Investing Activities
Cash used for investing activities in the first six months of 2026 and 2025 was primarily for capital expenditures and purchases of investments, which were partially offset by proceeds from sales and maturities of investments. The first six months of 2026 also included cash outflows to nonconsolidated affiliates primarily related to Sadara (see Note 12 for additional information). The first six months of 2025 also included a cash inflow related to the sale of the soil fumigation product line and certain related assets.

The Company's capital expenditures were $1,135 million in the first six months of 2026, compared with $1,347 million in the first six months of 2025. The Company expects full year capital spending to be approximately $2.5 billion, including capital spending related to the construction of the Fort Saskatchewan Path2Zero project. As evidenced across this and prior economic cycles, the Company will proactively adjust its spending as economic conditions evolve.

Cash Flows from Financing Activities
Cash used for financing activities in the first six months of 2026 for Dow Inc. was primarily related to dividends paid to stockholders, payments on long-term debt and distributions to noncontrolling interests. TDCC included cash outflows for dividends paid to Dow Inc. Cash provided by financing activities in the first six months of 2025 was primarily related to proceeds from the sale of a minority stake in the Company's consolidated infrastructure entity and proceeds from the issuance of long-term debt, which were partially offset by payments on long-term debt. In addition, Dow Inc. included cash outflows for dividends paid to stockholders and TDCC included cash outflows for dividends paid to Dow Inc.

Dow Inc. Non-GAAP Cash Flow Measures
Free Cash Flow
Dow defines Free Cash Flow as "Cash provided by operating activities - continuing operations," less capital expenditures. Under this definition, Free Cash Flow represents the cash generated by Dow from operations after investing in its asset base. Free Cash Flow, combined with cash balances and other sources of liquidity, represents the cash available to fund obligations and provide returns to shareholders. Free Cash Flow is an integral financial measure used in the Company's financial planning process.

Operating EBITDA
Dow defines Operating EBITDA as earnings (i.e., "Income (loss) before income taxes") before interest, depreciation and amortization, excluding the impact of significant items.

Cash Flow Conversion (Cash Flow from Operations to Operating EBITDA)
Dow defines Cash Flow Conversion (Cash Flow from Operations to Operating EBITDA) as "Cash provided by (used for) operating activities - continuing operations," divided by Operating EBITDA. Management believes Cash Flow Conversion is an important financial metric as it helps the Company determine how efficiently it is converting its earnings into cash flow.

These financial measures are not recognized in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP") and should not be viewed as alternatives to GAAP financial measures of performance. All companies do not calculate non-GAAP financial measures in the same manner and, accordingly, Dow's definitions may not be consistent with the methodologies used by other companies.

1. The six months ended June 30, 2026 includes costs to achieve and severance and related benefit costs associated with Transform to Outperform; a loss due to change in fair value of the estimated liability associated with the Company's guarantee of Sadara's project financing debt; asset charges and exit and disposal costs associated with the Company's 2025 Restructuring Program; and implementation costs associated with the Company's 2025 Restructuring Program; partially offset by a gain associated with a legal matter with Nova and amounts associated with agreements entered into with DuPont and Corteva as part of the separation and distribution. The six months ended June 30, 2025 includes severance and related benefit costs and impairment charges related to the 2025 Restructuring Program; implementation costs associated with the Company's 2025 Restructuring Program and the sale of membership interests of Diamond Infrastructure Solutions; a gain on the sale of the Company's soil fumigation product line; a gain associated with the reassessment of liabilities for certain accrued Groundwater Matters, partially offset by the settlement of a separate claim related to Groundwater Matters; charges associated with agreements entered into with DuPont and Corteva as part of the separation and distribution; charges related to an arbitration agreement for historical product claims from a divested business; a loss on early extinguishment of debt; restructuring charges and implementation and efficiency costs associated with the Company's 2023 Restructuring Program. See Note 21 to the Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information.
2. Cash flow from operations to net income is not applicable for the six months ended June 30, 2025 due to a net loss for the period.

Liquidity & Financial Flexibility
The Company's primary source of incremental liquidity is cash flows from operating activities. The generation of cash from operations over the economic cycle and the Company's ability to access capital markets is expected to meet the Company's cash requirements for working capital, capital expenditures, debt maturities, contributions to pension plans, dividend distributions to stockholders, share repurchases and other needs. In addition to cash from operating activities, the Company's current liquidity sources also include TDCC's U.S. and Euromarket commercial paper programs, committed and uncommitted credit facilities, committed accounts receivable facilities, a medium-term notes program, a U.S. retail note program ("InterNotes®") and other debt markets.

The Company continues to maintain a strong financial position with all of its committed credit facilities undrawn and fully available at June 30, 2026. Cash and committed and available forms of liquidity were $13.5 billion at June 30, 2026. The Company also has no substantive long-term debt maturities due until 2029. As a well-known seasoned issuer, the Company has ready access to debt capital markets, subject to market conditions, as an additional source of liquidity. Additional details on sources of liquidity are as follows:

Commercial Paper
TDCC issues promissory notes under its U.S. and Euromarket commercial paper programs. TDCC had no commercial paper outstanding at June 30, 2026. TDCC maintains access to the commercial paper market at competitive rates. Amounts outstanding under TDCC's commercial paper programs during the period may be greater or less than the amount reported at the end of the period. TDCC did not issue commercial paper subsequent to June 30, 2026.

Committed Credit Facilities
The Company also has the ability to access liquidity through TDCC's committed and available credit facilities. At June 30, 2026, TDCC had total committed and available credit facilities of $8.2 billion.

Uncommitted Credit Facilities
The Company has entered into various uncommitted bilateral credit arrangements as a potential source of excess liquidity. These lines can be used to support short-term liquidity needs and for general purposes. The Company had no drawdowns outstanding at June 30, 2026.

Accounts Receivable Securitization Facilities
In addition to the above credit facilities, the Company maintains a committed accounts receivable facility in the United States where eligible trade accounts receivable, up to $900 million, may be sold at any point in time and is set to expire in November 2028. The Company also maintains a committed accounts receivable facility in Europe where eligible trade accounts receivable, up to €400 million, may be sold at any point in time and is set to expire in March 2029. In the first six months of 2026, there were no sales of receivables under the committed accounts receivable facilities ($106 million in sales of receivables in the first six months of 2025). No sold receivables were outstanding with the facilities at June 30, 2026.

In addition, the Company has an uncommitted accounts receivable facility in the United States providing additional liquidity, set to expire in November 2028. The Company also maintains an uncommitted accounts receivable facility in Europe providing additional liquidity, set to expire in March 2029. There were no sales of receivables under the uncommitted accounts receivable facilities in the first six months of 2026 ($147 million in sales of receivables in the first six months of 2025). No sold receivables were outstanding with the facilities at June 30, 2026. See Note 10 to the Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information.

Early Settlement of Letters of Credit
The Company utilizes, from time-to-time, letters of credit discounting programs to manage and expedite the settlement of letters of credit in certain regions. These letters of credit are associated with accounts receivable and the Company retains no interest in the transferred letters of credit or receivables once sold.

Accounts Receivable Discounting Facilities
The Company has access to accounts receivable discounting facilities, under which receivables are transferred with limited recourse. The Company retains no interest in the transferred receivables once sold. There were no sales of receivables under the discounting facilities in the first six months of 2026 ($285 million sales of receivables in the first six months of 2025). No sold receivables were outstanding with the facilities at June 30, 2026. See Note 10 to the Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information.

The Company maintains these facilities and also participates in certain customers' supply chain financing and other early pay programs as a routine source of working capital.

Company-Owned Life Insurance
The Company has investments in company-owned life insurance ("COLI") policies, which are recorded at their cash surrender value as of each balance sheet date. The Company has the ability to monetize its investment in its COLI policies as an additional source of liquidity. At December 31, 2025, the Company had monetized $197 million of its existing COLI policies' surrender value. In the second quarter of 2026, the Company repaid the drawdown against the cash surrender value, which resulted in no monetization of its existing COLI policies' surrender value at June 30, 2026. See Note 5 to the Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information.

Debt
As the Company continues to maintain its strong balance sheet and financial flexibility, management is focused on net debt (a non-GAAP financial measure), as the Company believes this is the best representation of its financial leverage at this point in time. As shown in the following table, net debt is equal to total gross debt minus "Cash and cash equivalents" and "Marketable securities."

Total Debt	Dow Inc.		TDCC
In millions	Jun 30, 2026	Dec 31, 2025	Jun 30, 2026	Dec 31, 2025

Gross debt as a percent of total capitalization	50.9 %	50.9 %	50.6 %	50.6 %
Net debt as a percent of total capitalization	43.9 %	44.3 %	43.6 %	44.1 %

1. Included in "Other current assets" in the consolidated balance sheets.

The Company may at any time repurchase certain debt securities in the open market or in privately negotiated transactions subject to: the applicable terms under which any such debt securities were issued, certain internal approvals of the Company, and applicable laws and regulations of the relevant jurisdiction in which any such potential transactions might take place. This in no way obligates the Company to make any such repurchases nor should it be considered an offer to do so.

TDCC's public debt instruments and primary, private credit agreements contain, among other provisions, certain customary restrictive covenant and default provisions. TDCC's most significant debt covenant with regard to its financial position is the obligation to maintain the ratio of its consolidated indebtedness to consolidated capitalization at no greater than 0.70 to 1.00 at any time the aggregate outstanding amount of loans under the Five Year Competitive Advance and Revolving Credit Facility Agreement ("Revolving Credit Agreement") equals or exceeds $500 million. The ratio of TDCC's consolidated indebtedness to consolidated capitalization as defined in the Revolving Credit Agreement was 0.48 to 1.00 at June 30, 2026. Management believes TDCC was in compliance with all of its covenants and default provisions at June 30, 2026. For information on TDCC's debt covenants and default provisions, see Note 14 to the Consolidated Financial Statements included in the 2025 10-K. There were no material changes to the debt covenants and default provisions related to TDCC's outstanding long-term debt and primary, private credit agreements in the first six months of 2026.

In the second quarter of 2026, the Company redeemed $12 million aggregate principal amount of 6.30 percent notes due March 2033, $10 million aggregate principal amount of 5.65 percent notes due March 2036, $20 million aggregate principal amount of 5.25 percent notes due November 2041, $12 million aggregate principal amount of 5.55 percent notes due November 2048, $10 million aggregate principal amount of 6.90 percent notes due May 2053, and $13 million aggregate principal amount of 5.95 percent notes due March 2055. As a result of the redemption, the Company recognized a pretax gain on the early extinguishment of debt of $3 million, included in "Sundry income (expense) - net" in the consolidated statements of income.

In the first six months of 2026, the Company issued an aggregate principal amount of $81 million of InterNotes®. Additionally, the Company repaid $54 million of long-term debt.

While taking into consideration the current economic environment, management expects that the Company will continue to have sufficient liquidity and financial flexibility to meet all of its business obligations.

Credit Ratings
At June 30, 2026, TDCC's credit ratings were as follows:

Credit Ratings	Long-Term Rating	Short-Term Rating	Outlook
Fitch Ratings	BBB	F2	Stable
Moody's Ratings	Baa3	P-3	Negative
Standard & Poor's	BBB-	A-3	Negative

On February 18, 2026, Standard & Poor's announced a long-term credit rating change for TDCC from BBB to BBB- and a short-term credit rating change from A-2 to A-3, with its outlook remaining negative. On February 27, 2026, Moody's Ratings announced a long-term credit rating change for TDCC from Baa2 to Baa3 and a short-term credit rating change from P-2 to P-3, with its outlook remaining negative. The credit rating agencies' decisions reflect the impact of market conditions on the Company's operating results and cash flow, while recognizing the Company's liquidity, strong asset base and strategic cost actions. On March 16, 2026, Fitch Ratings affirmed TDCC's BBB and F2 rating, with its outlook remaining stable.

Dividends
Dow Inc.
Dow Inc. has paid dividends on a quarterly basis since the separation from DowDuPont and expects to continue to do so, subject to approval by the Board. The following table summarizes dividends declared and paid to common stockholders of record in 2026:

Dow Inc. Dividends Declared and Paid
Declaration Date	Record Date	Payment Date	Amount (per share)
February 12, 2026	February 27, 2026	March 13, 2026	$ 0.35
April 9, 2026	May 29, 2026	June 12, 2026	$ 0.35

TDCC
TDCC has committed to fund Dow Inc.'s dividends paid to common stockholders and share repurchases, as approved by the Board, as well as certain governance expenses. Funding is accomplished through intercompany loans. TDCC's Board reviews and determines a dividend distribution to Dow Inc. to settle the intercompany loans. For the three months ended June 30, 2026, TDCC declared and paid a dividend to Dow Inc. of $257 million ($514 million dividend declared and paid to Dow Inc. for the six months ended June 30, 2026). At June 30, 2026, TDCC's intercompany loan balance with Dow Inc. was insignificant.

Share Repurchase Program
On April 13, 2022, the Board approved a share repurchase program authorizing up to $3 billion for the repurchase of the Company's common stock, with no expiration date. The Company did not repurchase any of its common stock in the first six months of 2026 or 2025. At June 30, 2026, approximately $931 million of the share repurchase program authorization remained available for repurchases. As previously announced, the Company intends to repurchase shares at a minimum to cover dilution over the economic cycle. The Company may from time to time expand its share repurchases beyond dilution, based on a number of factors including macroeconomic conditions, free cash flow generation, and the Dow share price. Any share repurchases, when coupled with the Company's dividends, are intended to implement the long-term strategy of targeting shareholder remuneration of approximately 65 percent of Operating Net Income over the economic cycle.

Pension Plans
The Company has both funded and unfunded defined benefit pension plans in the United States and a number of other countries. The Company's funding policy is to contribute to funded plans when pension laws and/or economics either require or encourage funding. See Note 16 to the Consolidated Financial Statements and Note 19 to the Consolidated Financial Statements included in the 2025 10-K for additional information related to the Company's pension plans.

Restructuring and Transform to Outperform
The 2025 Restructuring Program is expected to result in additional cash expenditures of approximately $405 million primarily over the next three years and consists primarily of severance and related benefits costs, implementation costs related to decommissioning and demolition and additional costs associated with exit and disposal activities.

Restructuring implementation costs totaled $28 million and $49 million for the three and six months ended June 30, 2026, respectively ($5 million for the three and six months ended June 30, 2025).

Transform to Outperform is expected to result in additional cash expenditures of approximately $1 billion over the next two years and consists of severance and related benefit costs, implementation costs, and other costs incurred to achieve the intended uplift in Operating EBITDA. Costs to achieve totaled $81 million and $134 million for the three and six months ended June 30, 2026.

The Company expects to incur additional costs in the future related to its restructuring activities, which will be recognized as incurred. The Company also expects to incur additional employee-related costs, including involuntary termination benefits related to its other optimization activities, including Transform to Outperform. These costs cannot be reasonably estimated at this time. See Note 4 to the Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information on the Company's restructuring activities.

Contractual Obligations
Information related to the Company's contractual obligations, commercial commitments and expected cash requirements for interest can be found in Notes 14, 15, 16 and 19 to the Consolidated Financial Statements included in the 2025 10-K. With the exception of the items noted below, there have been no material changes in the Company's contractual obligations since December 31, 2025.

Contractual Obligations at Jun 30, 2026	Payments Due In

1. Cash requirements for interest on long-term debt was calculated using current interest rates at June 30, 2026, and includes $98 million of various floating rate notes.
2. Includes imputed interest of $303 million.
3. Includes liabilities related to asbestos litigation, environmental remediation, legal matters and other noncurrent liabilities. Also includes the updated fair value of the project financing debt guarantee liability with Sadara, which increased $298 million in the first quarter of 2026. In addition to these items, Dow Inc. includes liabilities related to noncurrent obligations with DuPont de Nemours, Inc. and Corteva, Inc. The table excludes uncertain tax positions due to uncertainties in the timing of the effective settlement of tax positions with the respective taxing authorities. The table also excludes deferred revenue as it does not represent future cash requirements arising from contractual payment obligations.

Fair Value Measurements
See Note 19 to the Consolidated Financial Statements for information concerning fair value measurements.

OTHER MATTERS

Critical Accounting Estimates
The preparation of financial statements and related disclosures in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make judgments, assumptions and estimates that affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. Note 1 to the Consolidated Financial Statements included in the 2025 10-K describes the significant accounting policies and methods used in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements. The Company's critical accounting policies that are impacted by judgments, assumptions and estimates are described in Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations included in the 2025 10-K. Since December 31, 2025, there have been no material changes in the Company's accounting policies that are impacted by judgments, assumptions and estimates.

Asbestos-Related Matters of Union Carbide Corporation
Union Carbide is and has been involved in a large number of asbestos-related suits filed primarily in state courts during the past several decades. These suits principally allege personal injury resulting from exposure to asbestos-containing products and frequently seek both actual and punitive damages. The alleged claims primarily relate to products that Union Carbide sold in the past, alleged exposure to asbestos-containing products located on Union Carbide's premises, and Union Carbide's responsibility for asbestos suits filed against a former Union Carbide subsidiary, Amchem Products, Inc. ("Amchem"). In many cases, plaintiffs are unable to demonstrate that they have suffered any compensable loss as a result of such exposure, or that injuries incurred in fact resulted from exposure to Union Carbide's products.

The table below provides information regarding asbestos-related claims pending against Union Carbide and Amchem based on criteria developed by Union Carbide and its external consultants:

Asbestos-Related Claim Activity	2026	2025
Claims unresolved at Jan 1	7,158	5,813
Claims filed	2,131	2,195
Claims settled, dismissed or otherwise resolved	(1,799)	(1,456)
Claims unresolved at Jun 30	7,490	6,552
Claimants with claims against both Union Carbide and Amchem	(1,117)	(1,118)
Individual claimants at Jun 30	6,373	5,434

Plaintiffs' lawyers often sue numerous defendants in individual lawsuits or on behalf of numerous claimants. As a result, the damages alleged are not expressly identified as to Union Carbide, Amchem or any other particular defendant, even when specific damages are alleged with respect to a specific disease or injury. For these reasons and based upon Union Carbide's litigation and settlement experience, Union Carbide does not consider the damages alleged against Union Carbide and Amchem to be a meaningful factor in its determination of any potential asbestos-related liability.

For additional information, see Asbestos-Related Matters of Union Carbide Corporation in Note 12 to the Consolidated Financial Statements; Part II, Item 1. Legal Proceedings; and Note 15 to the Consolidated Financial Statements included in the 2025 10-K.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

See Note 18 to the Consolidated Financial Statements and Part II, Item 7A. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk in the combined Dow Inc. and TDCC Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2025, for information on the Company's utilization of financial instruments and an analysis of the sensitivity of these instruments.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures
As of the end of the period covered by this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, Dow Inc. and The Dow Chemical Company (the "Companies") carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of the Companies' Disclosure Committee and the Companies' management, including the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Companies' disclosure controls and procedures pursuant to paragraph (b) of Exchange Act Rules 13a-15 and 15d-15. Based upon that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer concluded that the Companies' disclosure controls and procedures were effective.

Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting
There were no changes in the Companies' internal control over financial reporting identified in connection with the evaluation required by paragraph (d) of Exchange Act Rules 13a-15 and 15d-15 that was conducted during the quarter ended June 30, 2026, that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Companies' internal control over financial reporting.

PART II – OTHER INFORMATION

ITEM 1. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

Asbestos-Related Matters of Union Carbide Corporation
No material developments regarding this matter occurred in the first six months of 2026. For a current status of this matter, see Note 12 to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Securities Litigation
On August 29, 2025, a putative securities class action was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan alleging violations of Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. On March 31, 2026, an amended complaint was filed naming the Company, its then Chief Executive Officer, and its Chief Financial Officer as defendants. The amended complaint alleges that the defendants made false and misleading statements regarding the Company's ability to sustain its dividend, which allegedly caused the Company's securities to trade at artificially inflated prices. The action seeks unspecified compensatory damages.

Four putative shareholder derivative actions were filed in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan on September 5, 2025, September 11, 2025, September 18, 2025, and November 21, 2025, which are based on alleged facts and circumstances similar to the above-referenced securities class action, and name the Company's then Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, then Chief Operating Officer, and members of its Board of Directors, as defendants. A shareholder derivative action based on similar facts and circumstances was also filed in the Delaware Court of Chancery on April 20, 2026, naming the same individuals as the Michigan derivatives suits, except the then Chief Operating Officer. The five derivative actions assert claims for violations of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, breach of fiduciary duty, and other claims, and seek to recover damages on behalf of the Company. All of the derivative actions either have been stayed or are in the process of being stayed pending resolution of defendants' motion to dismiss the securities class action case.

Environmental Proceedings
On February 13, 2026, the State of Texas filed a complaint related to Union Carbide and Dow Hydrocarbons and Resources LLC in the civil district court of Travis County, Texas, on behalf of the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality relating to wastewater discharges from Union Carbide's site in Seadrift, Texas. The complaint alleges violations of the site's wastewater permit, the Texas Water Code and the Texas Solid Waste Disposal Act.

On February 26, 2026, the Company entered into a settlement agreement with the Dutch Public Prosecutor in the Netherlands in which the Company agreed to pay a fine of approximately $1.2 million to resolve certain process safety and environmental non-compliance events that occurred at the Company's Terneuzen, the Netherlands site during the period of 2019 to 2021. The fine was paid in full in the second quarter of 2026.

ITEM 1A. RISK FACTORS

Since December 31, 2025, there have been no material changes to the Company's Risk Factors, except as noted below, which was updated in the first and second quarters of 2026:

Global Economic Considerations: The Company operates in a global, competitive environment which gives rise to operating and market risk exposure.
The Company sells its broad range of products and services in a competitive, global environment, and competes worldwide for sales on the basis of product quality, price, technology and customer service. Increased levels of worldwide competition have resulted in lower prices and lower sales volume, which have had a negative impact on the Company's results of operations. While global trade disruptions caused by the conflict in the Middle East may provide opportunities for the Company to increase certain sales prices and volumes in the near term, the conflict and its impacts continue to evolve and are expected to remain volatile, and there is no guarantee any such increases will continue. To address these challenges amidst the ongoing macroeconomic uncertainty, the Company has taken and continues to take targeted cost reduction initiatives and other actions to advance its balanced capital allocation approach and enhance financial flexibility. The Company will continue to seek additional actions to mitigate the impact of macroeconomic uncertainty. Unforeseen macroeconomic conditions could result in additional actions and could adversely affect equity performance until market conditions improve. For additional information, see Part I Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations and Note 4 to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Sales of the Company's products are also subject to extensive federal, state, local and foreign laws and regulations; trade agreements; import and export controls; taxes; and duties and tariffs. The imposition of additional regulations, controls, taxes, duties and tariffs or changes to bilateral and regional trade agreements could also result in lower sales volume, which could negatively impact the Company's results of operations.

During 2025, the United States changed its long-standing trade policies and announced significant new tariffs, with certain exceptions, on virtually all imported goods. These actions triggered the negotiation of new trade agreements with certain U.S. trading partners, resulting in the reduction of certain of the newly imposed tariffs. Several U.S. trading partners also imposed retaliatory tariffs on U.S. imports. While certain U.S. tariffs were struck down by the U.S. Supreme Court in February 2026, the United States subsequently announced additional new tariffs on virtually all nonexempt imports, and current U.S. tariff rates remain substantially above pre-2025 levels. Shifts in tariffs, trade agreements, import/export restrictions, trade sanctions, sector specific trade barriers, and other governmental trade actions, whether enacted by the United States or other countries, especially those instituted in the Company's significant markets or markets where its significant customers or suppliers are located, and the associated uncertainty of long-term trade policies, could impact the Company's sales volume, sales price, and production and other costs. Changes in trade policies may also cause disruptions to material sourcing and availability, global supply chains and logistics and access to end markets. Additionally, changes in U.S. trade policy and associated responses from trading partners may create shifts in global market dynamics, disrupt the long-term planning process for governments and private enterprises and result in continued global financial market volatility. The impact of these changes in trade policies and the resulting trade and market uncertainty could have a negative impact on the Company's results of operations. Tariffs and trade policies are expected to continue to evolve, and the United States, other countries and international trade bodies may institute new tariffs or more restrictive trade policies or remedies and, as a result, the Company may face additional uncertainties and adverse impacts on its business, financial condition and results of operations.

Economic conditions around the world, and in certain industries and geographic regions in which the Company does business, also impact sales price and volume and the efficacy of the Company's supply chain. For example, long-term market uncertainty, economic impacts driven by trade policies and inflationary pressures, and higher relative input costs have reduced demand for the Company's products in recent years. Adverse economic conditions have also caused supply chain constraints. These factors have had a negative impact on the Company's results of operations. Political conditions or tensions; war, invasion or conflict, including new and ongoing conflicts in the Middle East, such as the conflict between the United States, Israel and Iran, which began in February 2026 and has resulted in volatility and disruption of the global energy market, and the ongoing conflict between Russia and Ukraine; terrorism; epidemics; pandemics; or political instability in the geographic regions or industries in which the Company operates or sells its products, have created and could continue to create volatility in global demand for the Company's products, and have disrupted and could continue to disrupt the supply chains, assets or operations of the Company and/or its joint ventures.

The Russia-Ukraine conflict has been ongoing for more than four years since Russia's February 2022 invasion of Ukraine, and although there have been recent efforts to seek a resolution, it remains unclear if these will be successful. In light of sanctions imposed by the United States, Canada, the European Union and other countries as a result of this conflict, Dow ceased in-bound investment to Russia and maintains reasonable, risk-based measures to ship into Russia only limited goods that comply with applicable legal restrictions. These actions have not had and are not expected to have a material impact on the Company's financial condition or results of operations. The situation remains fluid and the ongoing conflict may result in additional economic sanctions or other measures, which could have a negative impact on the Company's financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. These impacts could include decreased sales; supply chain and logistics disruptions; volatility in foreign exchange rates and interest rates; inflationary pressures on and availability of raw materials and energy, most notably in Europe; and heightened cybersecurity threats. Further, the intensity and duration of conflicts in the Middle East, including the recent conflict between the United States, Israel and Iran, and the potential for the expansion of hostilities in the region, are difficult to predict and could disrupt the Company's supply chains and operations, which could have a negative impact on the Company's results of operations.

In addition, volatility and disruption of financial markets could limit the ability of Dow's customers and suppliers to obtain adequate financing to maintain operations, which could result in a decrease in sales volume and have a negative impact on the Company's results of operations. The Company's global business operations also give rise to market risk exposure related to changes in inflation, foreign currency exchange rates, including the impact of foreign currency exchange rates resulting from highly inflationary economies such as Argentina, interest rates, commodity prices and other market factors such as equity prices. To manage such risks, the Company enters into hedging and other investment transactions, where deemed appropriate, pursuant to established guidelines and policies. If the Company fails to effectively manage such risks, it could have a negative impact on its results of operations.
