Certain statements in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, including statements in "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in Part I, Item 2 of this report, are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements may include: projections of, and matters that affect, net sales, gross profit, gross margin, operating expenses, earnings from operations, non-operating income and expenses, net earnings or cash flows, cash needs and the payment of accrued expenses and liabilities; our expectations regarding supply constraints, our expectations regarding certain trends for our business and that gross margin expansion could continue into future periods as we focus on selling solutions and increasing our services net sales; our expectation that transformation costs are not expected to recur in the longer term; the expected effects of seasonality on our business, including as a result of recent acquisitions; expectations of further consolidation and trends in the Information Technology ("IT") industry; our business strategy and our strategic initiatives, including our efforts to grow our core business in the current environment, develop and grow our global cloud business and build scalable solutions; expectations regarding the impact of partner incentives and changes to partner incentive programs, including our belief that we may not experience significant growth in cloud gross profit in 2025 compared to 2024 as a result of certain partner program changes; our expectations about future benefits of our acquisitions and our plans related thereto, including potential expansion into wider regions; the increasing demand for big data solutions; the availability of competitive sources of products for our purchase and resale; our intentions concerning the payment of dividends; our acquisition strategy and our expectation that we will incur additional acquisition and integration related expenses in executing such strategy; our expectations regarding the impact of inflation, including our expectation that while interest rates will decrease, our anticipation that higher than historical interest rates will continue throughout most of 2025, and our ability to offset the effects of inflation and manage any increase in interest rates; the effects of tariffs and trade policies; projections of capital expenditures; our plans to continue to evolve our IT systems; our expectation that our gross margins will improve as our mix of services and solutions increase; plans relating to share repurchases; our liquidity and the sufficiency of our capital resources, the availability of financing and our needs or plans relating thereto; the effects of new accounting principles and expected dates of adoption; the effect of indemnification obligations; projections about the outcome of ongoing tax audits; our expectations regarding future tax rates and the impact of domestic and global tax legislation, including our expectation that our effective tax rate will return to more typical levels in the foreseeable future; adequate provisions for and our positions and strategies with respect to ongoing and threatened litigation and expected outcomes; our ability to expand our client relationships; our expectations that pricing pressures in the IT industry will continue; our intention to use cash generated in the remainder of 2025 in excess of working capital needs to pay down our ABL facility (as defined in this report) and inventory financing facilities, and for strategic acquisitions; our belief that our office facilities are adequate and that we will be able to extend our current leases or locate substitute facilities on satisfactory terms; our belief that we have adequate provisions for losses; our expectation that we will not incur interest payments under our inventory financing facilities; our expectations that future income will be sufficient to fully recover deferred tax assets; our exposure to off-balance sheet arrangements; statements of belief; and statements of assumptions underlying any of the foregoing. Forward-looking statements are identified by such words as "believe," "anticipate," "expect," "estimate," "intend," "plan," "project," "will," "may" and variations of such words and similar expressions and are inherently subject to risks and uncertainties, some of which cannot be predicted or quantified. Future events and actual results could differ materially from those set forth in, contemplated by, or underlying the forward-looking statements. There can be no assurances that results described in forward-looking statements will be achieved, and actual results could differ materially from those suggested by the forward-looking statements. Some of the important factors that could cause our actual results to differ materially from those projected in any forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, the following, which are discussed in "Risk Factors" in Part I, Item 1A of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2024 and in "Risk Factors" in Part II, Item 1A of this report:

- actions of our competitors, including manufacturers and publishers of products we sell;
- our reliance on our partners for product availability, competitive products to sell and marketing funds and purchasing incentives, which can and do change significantly in the amounts made available and in the requirements year over year;
- our ability to keep pace with rapidly evolving technological advances including generative artificial intelligence and the evolving competitive marketplace;
- general economic conditions, economic uncertainties and changes in geopolitical conditions, including the possibility of a recession or a decline in market activity;
- changes in the IT industry and/or rapid changes in technology;
- our ability to provide high quality services to our clients;
- our reliance on independent shipping companies;
- the risks associated with our international operations;
- supply constraints for products;
- natural disasters or other adverse occurrences, including public health issues such as pandemics or epidemics;
- disruptions in our IT systems and voice and data networks;
- cyberattacks, outages, or third-party breaches of data privacy as well as related breaches of government regulations;
- intellectual property infringement claims and challenges to our copyrights, patents, trademarks and trade names;

- potential liability and competitive risk based on the development, adoption, and use of Generative Artificial Intelligence ("Gen AI");
- legal proceedings, client audits and failure to comply with laws and regulations;
- risks of termination, delays in payment, audits and investigations related to our public sector contracts;
- exposure to changes in, interpretations of, or enforcement trends related to tax rules and regulations;
- our potential to draw down a substantial amount of indebtedness;
- increased debt and interest expense and the possibility of decreased availability of funds under our financing facilities;
- possible significant fluctuations in our future operating results as well as seasonality and variability in client demands;
- potential contractual disputes or collection matters with our clients and third-party suppliers;
- our dependence on certain key personnel and our ability to attract, train and retain skilled teammates;
- risks associated with the integration and operation of acquired businesses, including achievement of expected synergies and benefits; and
- future sales of the Company's common stock or equity-linked securities in the public market could lower the market price for our common stock.

Additionally, there may be other risks described from time to time in the reports that we file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). Any forward-looking statements in this report are made as of the date of this filing and should be considered in light of various important factors, including the risks and uncertainties listed above, as well as others. We assume no obligation to update, and, except as may be required by law, do not intend to update, any forward-looking statements. In the opinion of management, the accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements contain all adjustments necessary to present fairly our financial position as of June 30, 2025 and our results of operations for the three and six months ended June 30, 2025 and 2024 and cash flows for the six months ended June 30, 2025 and 2024. The consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2024 was derived from the audited consolidated balance sheet at such date. The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements and notes have been prepared in accordance with the rules and regulations promulgated by the SEC and consequently do not include all of the disclosures normally required by United States generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP").

The results of operations for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of results for the full year, due in part to the seasonal nature of our business. These unaudited consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements, including the related notes thereto, in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2024.

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Insight Enterprises, Inc. and its wholly owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements. Additionally, these estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of net sales and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. On an ongoing basis, we evaluate our estimates, including those related to sales recognition, anticipated achievement levels under partner funding programs, assumptions related to stock-based compensation valuation, allowances for doubtful accounts and contract assets, valuation of inventories, valuation of acquired intangible assets, litigation-related obligations, valuation allowances for deferred tax assets and impairment of long-lived assets, including purchased intangibles and goodwill, if indicators of potential impairment exist.

Recently Issued Accounting Standards

In November 2024, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standard Update ("ASU") No. 2024-03, "Income Statement - Reporting Comprehensive Income - Expense Disaggregation Disclosures (Subtopic 220-40)". The standard requires public business entities to disclose detailed information about specific types of expenses that are relevant to certain line items on the income statement. The guidance is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2026 and interim reporting periods within annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2027. The requirements can be applied prospectively with the option for retrospective application, and early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact the adoption of this standard will have on its consolidated financial statements.

In December 2023, the FASB issued Accounting Standard Update ASU No. 2023-09, "Income Taxes (Topic 740)". The standard requires reporting entities to provide disaggregated information on their effective tax rate reconciliation and income taxes paid. The standard is intended to aid business leaders and investors to make more informed investment decisions. The guidance is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2024 and can be applied prospectively, with an option for retrospective application, and early adoption is allowed. We did not early adopt this guidance. The updated guidance is not expected to have a material effect on the Company's consolidated financial statements or disclosures.

Recently Adopted Accounting Standards

In November 2023, the FASB issued ASU No. 2023-07, "Segment Reporting (Topic 280): Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures", which requires public entities to disclose information about their reportable segments' significant expenses on an interim and annual basis. The amendments aim to improve interim disclosure requirements, clarify situations where an entity can reveal multiple segment measures of profit or loss, provide new segment disclosure requirements for entities with a single reportable segment, and include other disclosure requirements. The main objective of the amendments is to assist investors in understanding the entity's overall performance and evaluate potential future cash flows. The standard is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2023 and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024 with early adoption being permitted. We adopted the annual requirements of this standard effective January 1, 2024 and adopted the interim period requirements of this standard effective January 1, 2025. The adoption of this standard did not have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements or disclosures.

3. Assets Held for Sale

During the six months ended June 30, 2025, our property in Santa Monica, California met the criteria to be classified as held for sale, within other current assets, and the carrying value of the property was determined to be greater than its estimated fair value less costs to sell. Accordingly, the Company recorded a loss on impairment of a long lived real estate asset of $12,588,000, within selling and administrative expenses. We acquired the Santa Monica property as part of an acquisition in 2019. During the six months ended June 30, 2024, we did not have any assets held for sale.

4. Net Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share ("EPS") is computed by dividing net earnings available to common stockholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during each period. Diluted EPS is computed on the basis of the weighted average number of shares of common stock plus the effect of dilutive potential common shares outstanding during the period using the treasury stock method. Dilutive potential common shares include outstanding restricted stock units ("RSUs") and certain shares underlying our previously outstanding 0.75% Convertible Senior Notes due 2025 (the "Convertible Notes") and the warrants (the "Warrants") relating to the Call Spread Transactions (as defined in Note 4), as applicable. A reconciliation of the denominators of the basic and diluted EPS calculations follows (in thousands, except per share data):

	Three Months Ended June 30,		Six Months Ended June 30,
	2025	2024	2025	2024
Numerator:
Net earnings	$ 46,932	$ 87,444	$ 54,446	$ 154,471
Denominator:
Weighted average shares used to compute basic EPS	31,780	32,565	31,809	32,580
Dilutive potential common shares due to dilutive RSUs, net of tax effect	51	275	114	312
Dilutive potential common shares due to the Convertible Notes	—	3,322	865	3,275
Dilutive potential common shares due to the Warrants	290	2,405	614	2,334
Weighted average shares used to compute diluted EPS	32,121	38,567	33,402	38,501
Net earnings per share:
Basic	$ 1.48	$ 2.69	$ 1.71	$ 4.74
Diluted	$ 1.46	$ 2.27	$ 1.63	$ 4.01

For the three and six months ended June 30, 2025, approximately 212,000 and 135,000, respectively, of our RSUs were excluded from the diluted EPS calculations because their inclusion would have been anti-dilutive. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2024, approximately 4,000 and 15,000, respectively, of our RSUs were excluded from the diluted EPS calculations because their inclusion would have been anti-dilutive. These share-based awards could be dilutive in future periods.

5. Debt, Inventory Financing Facilities, Finance Leases and Other Financing Obligations

Debt

Our long-term debt consists of the following (in thousands):

	June 30, 2025	December 31, 2024
ABL revolving credit facility	$ 832,442	$ 39,000
Senior unsecured notes due 2032	492,550	492,222
Convertible senior notes due 2025	—	332,867
Other financing obligations	13	23
Total	1,325,005	864,112
Less: current portion of long-term debt	(13)	(332,879)
Long-term debt	$ 1,324,992	$ 531,233

On June 16, 2025, we entered into the Fifth Amendment to the Credit Agreement (as amended, the "credit agreement") to modify our senior secured revolving credit facility (the “ABL facility”). The amendment, among other things, includes revisions to remove the credit adjustment spread and clarifications regarding the disposition of accounts. Our maximum borrowing amount under the ABL facility is $1,800,000,000, including a maximum borrowing capacity that could be used for borrowing in certain foreign subsidiaries of $350,000,000. From time to time and at our option, we may request to increase the aggregate amount available for borrowing under the ABL facility by up to an aggregate of the U.S. dollar equivalent of $750,000,000, subject to customary conditions, including receipt of commitments from lenders. The ABL facility is guaranteed by certain of our material subsidiaries and is secured by a lien on certain of our assets and certain of each other borrower’s and each guarantor’s assets. The ABL facility provides for an uncommitted first-in, last-out revolving facility in an aggregate amount of up to $100,000,000. The interest rates applicable to borrowings under the ABL facility are based on the average aggregate excess availability under the ABL facility as set forth on a pricing grid in the credit agreement. The ABL facility matures on July 22, 2027. As of June 30, 2025, eligible accounts receivable and inventory permitted availability to the full $1,800,000,000 facility amount, of which $832,442,000 was outstanding.

The ABL facility contains customary affirmative and negative covenants and events of default. If a default occurs (subject to customary grace periods and materiality thresholds) under the credit agreement, certain actions may be taken, including, but not limited to, possible termination of commitments and required payment of all outstanding principal amounts plus accrued interest and fees payable under the credit agreement. As of June 30, 2025, no such events have occurred.

On May 20, 2024, we issued $500,000,000 aggregate principal amount of 6.625% Senior Notes due 2032 (the "Senior Notes") that mature on May 15, 2032. The Senior Notes are senior unsecured obligations of the Company and guaranteed by each of the Company's existing and future direct and indirect U.S. subsidiaries that is or becomes a guarantor or borrower under the ABL facility, subject to certain exceptions. The net proceeds from the offering were used to repay a portion of the outstanding borrowings under the ABL facility. The Senior Notes were issued pursuant to an indenture (the "Senior Notes Indenture") containing certain covenants that limit the Company's ability to, subject to certain exceptions, create, incur, or assume liens to secure debt, among other things. The Senior Notes bear interest at an annual rate of 6.625% payable semiannually, in arrears, on May 15th and November 15th of each year beginning on November 15, 2024.

The Company may redeem the Senior Notes prior to May 15, 2027, with an amount equal to the net cash proceeds received by the Company from certain equity offerings at a redemption price equal to 106.625% of the principal amount of such notes, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the redemption date, in an aggregate principal amount for all such redemptions not to exceed 40% of the aggregate principal amount of the Senior Notes. The Senior Notes are subject to redemption at specified prices on or after May 15, 2027 plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, on such notes redeemed, to, but excluding, the applicable redemption date. In addition, at any time prior to May 15, 2027, the Company may, on one or more occasions, redeem the Senior Notes in whole or in part, at its option, upon notice, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of such notes plus a "make-whole" premium as specified in the Senior Notes Indenture and accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the redemption date.

If the Company experiences certain change of control events, together with a ratings decline, as described in the Senior Notes Indenture, the Company will be required to make an offer to repurchase some or all of the Senior Notes at a price equal to 101% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the repurchase date.

The Senior Notes are subject to certain customary events of default and acceleration clauses. As of June 30, 2025, no such events have occurred.

The Senior Notes consist of the following balances reported within the consolidated balance sheets (in thousands):

	June 30, 2025	December 31, 2024
Liability:
Principal	$ 500,000	$ 500,000
Less: debt issuance costs, net of accumulated amortization	(7,450)	(7,778)
Net carrying amount	$ 492,550	$ 492,222

Convertible Senior Notes due 2025

In August 2019, we issued $350,000,000 aggregate principal amount of the Convertible Notes that matured on February 15, 2025. The Convertible Notes bore interest at an annual rate of 0.75% payable semiannually, in arrears, on February 15th and August 15th of each year. The Convertible Notes were general unsecured obligations of Insight and were guaranteed on a senior unsecured basis by Insight Direct USA, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Insight.

Upon maturity, the significant majority of Convertible Note holders elected to convert their notes. As a result, the aggregate principal amount of $333,091,000 was settled in cash with the additional amounts due as a result of conversion being settled in shares of our common stock. The conversion rate was 14.6376 shares of common stock per $1,000 principal amount of the Convertible Notes (equivalent to the initial conversion price of approximately $68.32 per share of common stock). We issued 2,832,627 shares upon conversion.

The Convertible Notes consist of the following balances reported within the consolidated balance sheets (in thousands):

	June 30, 2025	December 31, 2024
Liability:
Principal	$ —	$ 333,091
Less: debt issuance costs, net of accumulated amortization	—	(224)
Net carrying amount	$ —	$ 332,867

The effective interest rate on the principal of the Convertible Notes was 0.75%. Interest expense resulting from the Convertible Notes reported within the consolidated statement of operations for the three and six months ended June 30, 2025 and 2024 is made up of contractual coupon interest and amortization of debt issuance costs. Due to the maturity of the Convertible Notes in February 2025, no interest expense was incurred for the three months ended June 30, 2025.

Convertible Note Hedge and Warrant Transaction

In connection and concurrent with the issuance of the Convertible Notes, we entered into certain convertible note hedge and warrant transactions (the "Call Spread Transactions") with respect to the Company's common stock.

The convertible note hedge consisted of an option to purchase up to 5,123,160 common stock shares at a price of $68.32 per share. On February 15, 2025, we executed the convertible note hedge upon the conversion of the Convertible Notes discussed above. Upon execution, we received 2,833,276 shares of common stock, which we used to meet our obligation under the Convertible Notes to issue shares of common stock upon conversion.

Additionally, we sold Warrants to purchase 5,123,160 shares of common stock at a price of $103.12 per share as part of the Call Spread Transactions. The Warrants expired on May 15, 2025 and could only have been exercised at maturity. The Company received aggregate proceeds of approximately $34,440,000 in 2019 for the sale of the Warrants.

On January 6, 2025, we entered into an agreement to settle 2,049,264 of the total 5,123,160 Warrants. These Warrants were settled entirely in cash for $138,892,000 on February 27, 2025. We recorded a liability of approximately $112,590,000 to accrued expenses and other current liabilities upon execution of the agreement. The change in the fair value of the settlement liability through the settlement date of $26,301,000 was recognized in net income.

On February 25, 2025, we entered into an agreement to settle an additional 1,536,948 of the remaining Warrants. These Warrants were settled entirely in cash for $83,072,000 on April 2, 2025. We recorded a liability of approximately $84,304,000 to accrued expenses and other current liabilities upon execution of the agreement. The change in the fair value of the settlement liability through the settlement date of $1,233,000 was recognized in net income.

During the three months ended June 30, 2025, we settled approximately 297,000 of the remaining Warrants in shares. As of June 30, 2025, 1,239,825 Warrants remained outstanding and will be settled in shares over the second half of 2025.

The Call Spread Transactions had no effect on the terms of the Convertible Notes and reduced potential dilution by effectively increasing the initial conversion price of the Convertible Notes to $103.12 per share of the Company's common stock.

Inventory Financing Facilities

We have maximum availability under our unsecured inventory financing facility with MUFG Bank Ltd ("MUFG") of $280,000,000. We have maximum availability under our unsecured inventory financing facility with PNC Bank, N.A. ("PNC") of $375,000,000, including a $25,000,000 facility in Canada (the "Canada facility"). We also have maximum availability under our unsecured inventory financing facility with Wells Fargo in EMEA (the "EMEA facility") of $50,000,000. As of June 30, 2025, our combined inventory financing facilities had a total maximum capacity of $705,000,000, of which $220,791,000 was outstanding.

The inventory financing facilities will remain in effect until they are terminated by any of the parties. If balances are not paid within stated vendor terms (typically 60 days), they will accrue interest at prime plus 2.00% on the MUFG facility, Canadian Overnight Repo Rate Average plus 4.50% on the Canada facility and Term SOFR, EURIBOR, or SONIA, as applicable, plus 4.50% and 0.25% on the PNC (other than the Canada facility) and EMEA facilities, respectively. Amounts outstanding under these facilities are classified separately as accounts payable – inventory financing facilities in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets and within cash flows from financing activities in the accompanying consolidated statements of cash flows. We impute interest on the average daily balance outstanding during these stated vendor terms based on our incremental borrowing rate during the period.

6. Income Taxes

Our effective tax rates for the three and six months ended June 30, 2025 were 26.9% and 34.5%, respectively. Our effective tax rate for the three months ended June 30, 2025 was higher than the United States federal statutory rate of 21.0% due primarily to state income taxes and higher taxes on earnings in foreign jurisdictions, partially offset by tax benefits related to research and development activities. Our effective tax rate for the six months ended June 30, 2025 was higher than the United States federal statutory rate of 21.0% due primarily to the non-deductibility of losses related to the warrant fair value adjustments and the revaluation of earnout liabilities. These increases were partially offset by the reduction in the valuation allowance related to our foreign tax credit carryforward.

Our effective tax rates for the three and six months ended June 30, 2024 were 25.5% and 24.8%, respectively. Our effective tax rate was higher than the United States federal statutory rate of 21.0% due primarily to state income taxes and higher taxes on earnings in foreign jurisdictions, partially offset by excess tax benefits on the settlement of employee share-based compensation, tax benefits related to research and development activities, and tax benefits related to the revaluation of certain acquisition earnout liabilities.

As of June 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024, we had approximately $11,872,000 and $11,060,000, respectively, of unrecognized tax benefits. Of these amounts, approximately $1,534,000 and $1,449,000, respectively, related to accrued interest. In the future, if recognized, the remaining liability associated with uncertain tax positions could affect our effective tax rate. We do not believe there will be changes to our unrecognized tax benefits over the next 12 months that would have a material effect on our effective tax rate.

We are currently under audit in various jurisdictions for tax years 2017 through 2022. Although the timing of the resolutions and/or closures of audits is highly uncertain, it is reasonably possible that the examination phase of these audits may be concluded within the next 12 months, which could increase or decrease the balance of our gross unrecognized tax benefits. However, based on the status of the various examinations in multiple jurisdictions, an estimate of the range of reasonably possible outcomes cannot be made at this time, but the estimated effect on our income tax expense and net earnings is not expected to be significant.

7. Share Repurchase Program

On September 11, 2024, we announced that our Board of Directors authorized the repurchase of up to $300,000,000 of our common stock, in addition to any amount that remained from prior authorizations. As of June 30, 2025, approximately $223,883,000 remained available for repurchases under our share repurchase plan. Our share repurchases may be made on the open market, subject to Rule 10b-18 or in privately negotiated transactions, through block trades, through 10b5-1 plans or otherwise, at management's discretion. The number of shares purchased and the timing of the purchases will be based on market conditions, working capital requirements, general business conditions and other factors. We intend to retire the repurchased shares.

During the three months ended June 30, 2025, we repurchased 600,000 shares of our common stock in a private transaction from ValueAct Capital, an affiliate, at a total cost of $76,118,000 (an average price of $126.86 per share, representing a negotiated 3.95% discount from the closing price of our common stock the day prior to the transaction). During the three months ended June 30, 2024, we did not repurchase any shares of our common stock.

During the six months ended June 30, 2025, we repurchased 600,000 shares of our common stock in a private transaction from ValueAct Capital, an affiliate, at a total cost of $76,118,000 (an average price of $126.86 per share, representing a negotiated 3.95% discount from the closing price of our common stock the day prior to the transaction). During the six months ended June 30, 2024, we repurchased 187,357 shares of our common stock on the open market at a total cost of $35,000,000 (an average price of $186.81 per share). All shares repurchased during the six months ended June 30, 2025 and 2024 were retired.

8. Commitments and Contingencies

Contractual

In the ordinary course of business, we issue performance bonds to secure our performance under certain contracts or state tax requirements. As of June 30, 2025, we had approximately $37,143,000 of performance bonds outstanding. These bonds are issued on our behalf by a surety company on an unsecured basis; however, if the surety company is ever required to pay out under the bonds, we have contractually agreed to reimburse the surety company.

Management believes that payments, if any, related to these performance bonds are not probable at June 30, 2025. Accordingly, we have not accrued any liabilities related to such performance bonds in our consolidated financial statements.

The Company has a minimum required purchase commitment of approximately $100,467,000 pursuant to an agreement primarily related to cloud services. The total purchase commitment is required to be met or exceeded during a 5-year period, starting October 1, 2023 through September 30, 2028. At June 30, 2025, we had a remaining purchase commitment of $67,468,000. If total purchases do not meet the required commitment by September 30, 2028, the shortfall must be prepaid by the Company and can be used for further purchases through September 30, 2029.

The Company has a minimum required purchase commitment of approximately $40,000,000 pursuant to an agreement primarily related to software as a service. The total purchase commitment is required to be met during a 4-year period, starting November 30, 2022 through November 29, 2026. If total purchases do not meet the required commitment by November 29, 2026, the Company can extend the term of the commitment through November 29, 2027. During this extended period, any credit balance will remain available for payment against the usage of the subscribed products. At June 30, 2025 we had a remaining purchase commitment of $13,071,000.

The Company has recorded a contingent liability of approximately $24,592,000 payable to a partner to settle various contractual commitments to resell a minimum amount of cloud services to clients.

Employment Contracts and Severance Plans

We have employment contracts with, and severance plans covering, certain officers and management teammates under which severance payments would become payable in the event of specified terminations without cause or terminations under certain circumstances after a change in control. In addition, vesting of outstanding nonvested RSUs would accelerate following a change in control. If severance payments under the current employment agreements or plan payments were to become payable, the severance payments would generally range from three to twenty-four months of salary.

Indemnifications

From time to time, in the ordinary course of business, we enter into contractual arrangements under which we agree to indemnify either our clients or third-party service providers from certain losses incurred relating to services performed on our behalf or for losses arising from defined events, which may include litigation or claims relating to past performance. These arrangements include, but are not limited to, the indemnification of our clients for certain claims arising out of our performance under our sales contracts, the indemnification of our landlords for certain claims arising from our use of leased facilities and the indemnification of the lenders that provide our credit facilities for certain claims arising from their extension of credit to us. Such indemnification obligations may not be subject to maximum loss clauses.

Management believes that payments, if any, related to these indemnifications are not probable at June 30, 2025. Accordingly, we have not accrued any liabilities related to such indemnifications in our consolidated financial statements.

INSIGHT ENTERPRISES, INC.

We have entered into separate indemnification agreements with certain of our executive officers and with each of our directors. These agreements require us, among other requirements, to indemnify such officers and directors against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments and settlements incurred by such individual in connection with any action arising out of such individual's status or service as our executive officer or director (subject to exceptions such as where the individual failed to act in good faith or in a manner the individual reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Company) and to advance expenses incurred by such individual with respect to which such individual may be entitled to indemnification by us. There are no pending legal proceedings that involve the indemnification of any of the Company's directors or officers.

Contingencies Related to Third-Party Review

From time to time, we are subject to potential claims and assessments from third parties. We are also subject to various governmental, client and partner audits. We continually assess whether or not such claims have merit and warrant accrual. Where appropriate, we accrue estimates of anticipated liabilities in our consolidated financial statements. Such estimates are subject to change and may affect our results of operations and our cash flows.

Legal Proceedings

From time to time, we are party to various legal proceedings incidental to the business, including preference payment claims asserted in client bankruptcy proceedings, indemnification claims, claims of alleged infringement of patents, trademarks, copyrights and other intellectual property rights, employment claims, claims related to services provided, interruptions, or outages, claims of alleged non-compliance with contract provisions and claims related to alleged violations of laws and regulations. We regularly evaluate the status of the legal proceedings in which we are involved to assess whether a loss is probable or there is a reasonable possibility that a loss, or an additional loss, may have been incurred and determine if accruals are required. If accruals are not required, we further evaluate each legal proceeding to assess whether an estimate of possible loss or range of possible loss can be made. Although litigation is inherently unpredictable, we believe that we have adequate provisions for any probable and estimable losses. It is possible, nevertheless, that our consolidated financial position, results of operations or liquidity could be materially and adversely affected in any particular period by the work required pursuant to any legal proceedings or the resolution of any legal proceedings during such period. Legal expenses related to defense of any legal proceeding or the negotiations, settlements, rulings and advice of outside legal counsel in connection with any legal proceedings are expensed as incurred.

The method for determining what information regarding operating segments, products and services, geographic areas of operation and major clients to report is based upon the "management approach," or the way that management organizes the operating segments within a company, for which separate financial information is evaluated regularly by the Chief Operating Decision Maker ("CODM") in deciding how to allocate resources. Our CODM is our Chief Executive Officer, Joyce Mullen.

All significant intercompany transactions are eliminated upon consolidation, and there are no differences between the accounting policies used to measure profit and loss for our segments or on a consolidated basis. Net sales are defined as net sales to external clients. None of our clients exceeded ten percent of consolidated net sales for the three and six months ended June 30, 2025 or 2024.

A portion of our operating segments' selling and administrative expenses arise from shared services and infrastructure that we have historically provided to them in order to realize economies of scale and to use resources efficiently. These expenses, collectively identified as corporate charges, include senior management expenses, internal audit, legal, tax, insurance services, treasury and other corporate infrastructure expenses. Charges are allocated to our operating segments, and the allocations have been determined on a basis that we considered to be a reasonable reflection of the utilization of services provided to or benefits received by the operating segments.

Our CODM uses Adjusted earnings from operations when assessing the performance of and deciding how to allocate resources to the operating segments. For example, Adjusted earnings from operations is a basis for executive variable compensation. Significant selling and administrative expenses primarily reflect personnel costs, including teammate benefits. Our CODM uses an Adjusted measure of earnings from operations which excludes amortization of intangible assets, severance and restructuring expenses, acquisition and integration related expenses and certain other expenses. These other expenses include transformation costs, costs associated with third-party data center outages, net of recoveries, revaluation of earnout liabilities and other non-significant expenses. Our CODM uses comparisons of actual Adjusted earnings from operations against budgets, forecasts and prior periods as a basis for assessing current period segment performance as well as for determining necessary resources to assign, including for determining necessary investments or reductions in resources.

10. Acquisition

Infocenter

Effective May 1, 2024, we acquired 100 percent of the issued and outstanding shares of Infocenter.io ("Infocenter") for a cash purchase price of $265,000,000, net of cash and cash equivalents acquired of $5,103,000, which is comprised of the initial purchase price of $269,477,000 paid in cash upon the acquisition and contractual adjustments to the purchase price of $626,000 paid in July 2024. The total purchase price of $289,200,000 also includes the estimated fair value of earn out payments of approximately $24,200,000, which provide an incentive opportunity for the sellers of up to $106,250,000, based on Infocenter achieving certain EBITDA performance through April 2026. Infocenter is a pure-play ServiceNow Elite Partner dedicated to automating business processes on the Now Platform®. We believe this acquisition enhances our Solutions Integrator offering framework to drive better business outcomes for our clients by enabling them to scale their multicloud environments with modern infrastructure, applications, and unified data and AI platforms.

INSIGHT ENTERPRISES, INC.

The fair value of net assets acquired was approximately $98,084,000, including approximately $123,900,000 of identifiable intangible assets, consisting primarily of customer relationships that will be amortized using the straight-line method over the estimated economic life of ten years. As these intangible assets are not tax deductible, we recognized a related deferred tax liability of approximately $31,832,000. We finalized the purchase price allocation in relation to this acquisition in the second quarter of 2025, with no material changes to our preliminary estimates. Goodwill acquired approximated $191,116,000, which was recorded in our North America operating segment.

We consolidated the results of operations for Infocenter within our North America operating segment since its acquisition on May 1, 2024. Our historical results would not have been materially affected by the acquisition of Infocenter and, accordingly, we have not presented pro forma information as if the acquisition had been completed at the beginning of each period presented in our consolidated statement of operations.

We recognized a gain of $3,298,000 and a loss of $11,902,000 within selling and administrative expenses due to the changes in the estimated fair value of the earnout payments for the three and six months ended June 30, 2025, respectively. On July 1, 2025, we paid approximately $39,602,000 for Infocenter's first earnout period.

11. Subsequent Event

On July 4, 2025, the One Big Beautiful Bill Act ("OBBBA") was signed into law, enacting significant changes to U.S. federal tax law. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of the OBBBA on its consolidated financial statements. We do not expect the legislation to have a material impact on our effective tax rate.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

The following discussion should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and the related notes that appear elsewhere in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. We refer to our customers as "clients," our suppliers as "partners" and our employees as "teammates."

Quarterly Overview

Today, every business is a technology business. We help our clients accelerate their digital journey to modernize their businesses and maximize the value of technology. We serve these clients in North America; Europe, the Middle East and Africa ("EMEA"); and Asia-Pacific ("APAC"). As a Fortune 500-ranked solutions integrator, we enable secure, end-to-end digital transformation and meet the needs of our clients through a comprehensive portfolio of solutions, far-reaching partnerships and 37 years of broad IT expertise. We amplify our solutions and services with global scale, local expertise and our e-commerce experience, enabling our clients to realize their digital ambitions in multiple ways. Our offerings in North America and certain countries in EMEA and APAC include hardware, software and services, including cloud solutions. Our offerings in the remainder of our EMEA and APAC segments consist largely of software and certain software-related services and cloud solutions.

On a consolidated basis, for the three months ended June 30, 2025:

- Net sales of $2.1 billion decreased 3% compared to the three months ended June 30, 2024. The decrease in net sales reflects decreases in software and services net sales, partially offset by an increase in hardware net sales. Excluding the effects of fluctuating foreign currency exchange rates, net sales decreased 4% compared to the second quarter of 2024.
- Gross profit of $442.3 million decreased 2% compared to the three months ended June 30, 2024. Excluding the effects of fluctuating foreign currency exchange rates, gross profit decreased 3% compared to the second quarter of 2024. This decrease was attributable in part to partner program changes.
- Compared to the three months ended June 30, 2024, gross margin expanded approximately 10 basis points to 21.1% of net sales in the three months ended June 30, 2025. This expansion primarily reflects higher margin contributed by hardware net sales compared to the same period in the prior year.
- Earnings from operations decreased 34%, year to year, to $86.5 million in the second quarter of 2025 compared to $131.1 million in the second quarter of 2024. The decrease was primarily due to a decrease in gross profit in the current quarter, combined with an increase in selling and administrative expenses, including a $12.6 million loss on impairment of a real estate asset in the current year quarter and a $25.1 million gain on revaluation of earnout liabilities in the prior year quarter. Excluding the effects of fluctuating foreign currency exchange rates, earnings from operations decreased 34% year to year.
- Net earnings and diluted earnings per share were $46.9 million and $1.46, respectively, for the second quarter of 2025. This compares to net earnings of $87.4 million and diluted earnings per share of $2.27 for the second quarter of 2024. The decrease in net earnings was primarily due to a decrease in earnings from operations and an increase in interest expense, partially offset by a decrease in tax expense in the current year period. Diluted earnings per share decreased 36% year to year, and excluding the effects of fluctuating foreign currency exchange rates, also decreased 36% year to year.

Throughout the "Quarterly Overview" and "Results of Operations" sections of this "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations," we refer to changes in net sales, gross profit, selling and administrative expenses and earnings from operations on a consolidated basis and in North America, EMEA and APAC excluding the effects of fluctuating foreign currency exchange rates, which are financial measures that are adjusted from our financial results prepared in accordance with the United States generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). We believe providing this information excluding the effects of fluctuating foreign currency exchange rates provides valuable supplemental information to investors regarding our underlying business and results of operations, consistent with how we, including our management, evaluate our performance. In computing the changes in amounts and percentages, we compare the current period amount as translated into U.S. dollars under the applicable accounting standards to the prior period amount in local currency translated into U.S. dollars utilizing the weighted average translation rate for the current period. The performance measures excluding the effects of fluctuating foreign currency exchange rates should not be considered a substitute for, or superior to, the measures of financial performance prepared in accordance with GAAP.

Details about segment results of operations can be found in Note 9 to the Consolidated Financial Statements in Part I, Item 1 of this report.

Our discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations is intended to assist in the understanding of our consolidated financial statements, including the changes in certain key items in those consolidated financial statements from period to period and the primary factors that contributed to those changes, as well as how certain critical accounting estimates affect our consolidated financial statements.

Supply Chain, Demand and Inflation Update

We believe inflation contributed to sustained high interest rates on all of our variable rate borrowing facilities in the first half of 2025 consistent with the prior year period. While these interest rates are expected to decrease, we continue to anticipate higher than historical rates throughout most of 2025. We are actively monitoring changes to the global macroeconomic environment, including those impacting our supply chain, demand for our products whether due to tariffs or otherwise and interest rates, and assessing the potential impacts these challenges may have on our current results, financial condition and liquidity. We are also mindful of the potential impact these conditions could have on our clients, partners and prospects in 2025 and beyond.

Critical Accounting Estimates

Our consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP. For a summary of significant accounting policies, see Note 1 to the Consolidated Financial Statements in Part II, Item 8 of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2024. The preparation of these consolidated financial statements requires us to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, net sales and expenses. We base our estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that we believe to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results, however, may differ from estimates we have made. Members of our senior management have discussed the critical accounting estimates and related disclosures with the Audit Committee of our Board of Directors.

There have been no changes to the items disclosed as critical accounting estimates in "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in Part II, Item 7 of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2024.

We generally experience some seasonal trends in our net sales. Software and certain cloud net sales are typically seasonally higher in our second and fourth quarters. Business clients, particularly larger enterprise businesses in the United States, tend to spend more, particularly on product, in our fourth quarter. Sales to the federal government in the United States are often stronger in our third quarter, while sales in the state and local government and education markets are also often stronger in our second quarter. Sales to public sector clients in the United Kingdom are often stronger in our first quarter. These trends create overall variability in our consolidated results.

Our gross profit across the business and related to product versus services sales are, and will continue to be, impacted by partner incentives, which can and do change significantly in the amounts made available and the related product or services sales being incentivized by the partner. Incentives from our largest partners are significant and changes in the incentive requirements, which occur regularly, could impact our results of operations to the extent we are unable to effectively shift our focus and efficiently respond to them. For a discussion of risks associated with our reliance on partners, see "Risk Factors – Risks related to Our Business, Operations and Industry – We rely on our partners for product availability, competitive products to sell and marketing funds and purchasing incentives, which can and do change significantly in the amounts made available and the requirements year over year," in Part I, Item 1A of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2024.

Net sales in North America decreased 3%, or $48.1 million, for the three months ended June 30, 2025 compared to the three months ended June 30, 2024, driven by decreases in software and services net sales, partially offset by an increase in hardware net sales. Software and services net sales decreased 18% and 6%, year to year, respectively. These decreases were partially offset by an increase in hardware net sales of 4%, year over year. The net changes for the three months ended June 30, 2025 were the result of the following:

- The decrease in software net sales was primarily due to changes in certain vendor relationships (shifting us from a principal to an agent role), as well as the continued migration of on-premise software to cloud solutions, in each case, reported net in services net sales.
- The decrease in services net sales was primarily due to a decrease in certain fees from cloud solution offerings. A decline in sales of Insight Delivered services from our organic business, partially offset by an increase in net sales from Infocenter, also contributed to the year to year decrease in services net sales. Our North America organic business excludes Infocenter, which we acquired on May 1, 2024.
- The increase in hardware net sales was primarily due to higher volume of sales to commercial clients due to higher demand. This reflects an increase in both devices and infrastructure net sales.

Net sales in North America decreased 7%, or $252.2 million, for the six months ended June 30, 2025, compared to the six months ended June 30, 2024, driven by decreases in software and services net sales. Software and services net sales decreased by 27% and 6%, respectively, year to year. These decreases were partially offset by an increase in hardware net sales of 3%, year over year. The net changes for the six months ended June 30, 2025 were the result of the following:

- The decrease in software net sales was primarily due to changes in certain vendor relationships (shifting us from a principal to an agent role), a significant transaction in the first quarter of 2024 with no comparable transaction in the current period, as well as the continued migration of on-premise software to cloud solutions, in each case, reported net in services net sales.
- The decrease in services net sales was primarily due to a decrease in certain fees from cloud solution offerings as a result of partner program changes and a decline in sales of Insight Delivered services from our organic business. The decrease in Insight Delivered services from our organic business was partially offset by an increase in net sales from Infocenter. Our North America organic business excludes Infocenter, which we acquired on May 1, 2024.
- The increase in hardware net sales was primarily due to higher volume of sales to commercial clients due to higher demand. This was driven by an increase in device net sales.

Non-Operating Expense (Income).

Interest Expense, Net. Interest expense, net primarily relates to borrowings under our financing facilities and imputed interest under our inventory financing facilities, the Convertible Notes and the Senior Notes, as applicable, partially offset by interest income generated from interest earned on cash and cash equivalent bank balances. Interest expense, net for the three months ended June 30, 2025 increased 58%, or $8.2 million, compared to the three months ended June 30, 2024. This was primarily due to the issuance of the Senior Notes in May 2024, the maturity of the Convertible Notes in February 2025, higher loan balances under our ABL facility and decreased interest income partially offset by lower interest rates. Interest expense, net for the six months ended June 30, 2025 increased 42%, or $11.2 million, compared to the six months ended June 30, 2024. The increase in the six months ended June 30, 2025 was primarily due to a higher loan balance under our ABL facility, the issuance of the Senior Notes, the maturity of the Convertible Notes in February 2025 and decreased interest income, partially offset by the lower interest rates.

Imputed interest under our inventory financing facilities was $2.4 million and $4.8 million for the three and six months ended June 30, 2025, compared to $2.3 million and $4.8 million for the three and six months ended June 30, 2024. For a description of our various financing facilities, see Note 5 to our Consolidated Financial Statements in Part I, Item 1 of this report.

Other Expense (Income), Net. Other expense (income), net primarily reflects a net loss on the revaluation of warrant settlement liabilities of $25.1 million recorded in the six months ended June 30, 2025 in connection with the cash settlement of a portion of the outstanding Warrants, with no comparable activity in the three or six months ended June 30, 2024. For additional information regarding the Warrants, see Note 5 to our Consolidated Financial Statements in Part I, Item 1 of this report.

Income Tax Expense. Our effective tax rate of 26.9% for the three months ended June 30, 2025 was higher than our effective tax rate of 25.5% for the three months ended June 30, 2024. The increase in the effective tax rate for the three months ended June 30, 2025 was primarily due to greater tax benefits from earnout adjustments and higher excess tax benefits on the settlement of employee share-based compensation during the prior year period.

Our effective tax rate of 34.5% for the six months ended June 30, 2025 was higher than our effective tax rate of 24.8% for the six months ended June 30, 2024. The increase in the effective tax rate for the six months ended June 30, 2025 was primarily due to the non-deductibility of both net losses related to fair value adjustments associated with the warrant settlement liabilities and the revaluation of earnout liabilities in the current year period. These increases were partially offset by the reduction in the valuation allowance related to our foreign tax credit carryforward in the current year period.

We believe that this non-GAAP financial measure is useful to investors because it allows for greater transparency, facilitates comparisons to prior periods and to the Company's competitors' results, and assists in forecasting performance for future periods. The non-GAAP financial measure is not prepared in accordance with GAAP and may be different from non-GAAP financial measures presented by other companies. Non-GAAP financial measures should not be considered as a substitute for, or superior to, measures of financial performance prepared in accordance with GAAP.

Cash and Cash Flow

- Our primary uses of cash during the six months ended June 30, 2025 were to fund operations, to fund the cash settlement of a portion of the Warrants, to repurchase shares of our common stock and to repay debt, including the remaining principal balance upon maturity of the Convertible Notes.
- Operating activities used $99.0 million in cash during the six months ended June 30, 2025, compared to cash provided by operating activities of $293.0 million during the six months ended June 30, 2024.
- Capital expenditures were $12.0 million and $18.6 million for the six months ended June 30, 2025 and 2024, respectively.
- During the six months ended June 30, 2025, we repurchased $76.1 million of our common stock compared to $35.0 million of repurchases during the six months ended June 30, 2024.
- We had net borrowings under our ABL facility during the six months ended June 30, 2025 of $780.4 million compared to net repayments of $420.4 million during the six months ended June 30, 2024.
- We had net borrowings under our inventory financing facilities of $2.1 million during the six months ended June 30, 2025 compared to net repayments of $13.0 million during the six months ended June 30, 2024.
- We repaid approximately $333.1 million for the remaining principal balance upon maturity of the Convertible Notes in the six months ended June 30, 2025.
- We paid $222.0 million to settle a portion of the Warrants relating to the Call Spread Transactions associated with the Convertible Notes.

We anticipate that cash flows from operations, together with the funds available under our financing facilities, will be adequate to support our expected cash and working capital requirements for operations, as well as other strategic acquisitions, over the next 12 months and beyond. We expect existing cash and cash flows from operations to continue to be sufficient to fund our operating cash activities and cash commitments for investing and financing activities, such as capital expenditures, strategic acquisitions, repurchases of our common stock, debt repayments and repayment of our inventory financing facilities for the next 12 months. We currently expect to fund known cash commitments beyond the next 12 months through operating cash activities and/or other available financing resources.

Net cash provided by operating activities

- We have an inverted cash cycle resulting from typically paying partners on shorter terms than we provide to our clients. This generally means in periods of growing hardware sales, we typically use cash from operations.
- Cash flow used in operating activities in the first half of 2025 was $99.0 million compared to cash provided by operating activities of $293.0 million in the first half of 2024.
- The decrease in cash provided by operating activities period over period is primarily due to lower net earnings combined with the impact of higher hardware net sales compared to the same period in the prior year. In the first half of 2025, our cash used in operations was also negatively impacted by the delayed timing of certain receipts compared to partner payments. In comparison, in the first half of 2024, our cash generated from operations was positively impacted by the timing of receipts compared to partner payments, as well as the deferral of certain operating payments at June 30, 2024.
- We continue to be impacted by netted costs that we apply to our services net sales to appropriately record net sales that we earn as an agent. These netted costs, while excluded from net sales and cost of goods sold, are processed and applied to accounts receivable and accounts payable in each reporting period. As a result, calculation of our unadjusted cash conversion cycle, including days sales outstanding and days payables outstanding, do not provide an accurate reflection of our cash conversion metric, due to the metric components being inherently inflated. For example, netted costs were $3.6 billion and $2.5 billion in the second quarter of 2025 and 2024, respectively.
- We expect that cash flow from operations will be used, at least partially, to fund working capital as we typically pay our partners on average terms that are shorter than the average terms we grant to our clients in order to take advantage of supplier discounts.
- We intend to use cash generated in the remainder of 2025 in excess of working capital needs to pay down our ABL facility and inventory financing facilities, and for strategic acquisitions.

Net cash used in investing activities

- We paid $264.4 million to acquire Infocenter on May 1, 2024, net of cash and cash equivalents acquired of $5.1 million.
- Capital expenditures were $12.0 million and $18.6 million for the six months ended June 30, 2025 and 2024, respectively.
- We expect capital expenditures for the full year 2025 to be in a range of $30.0 to $35.0 million.

Net cash used in financing activities

- During the six months ended June 30, 2025, we had net borrowings under our ABL facility of $780.4 million, which were primarily used to fund the repayment of the remaining principal balance upon maturity of the Convertible Notes, to settle a portion of the Warrants and to repurchase shares of our common stock.
- During the six months ended June 30, 2024, we had net repayments under our ABL facility that decreased our outstanding long-term debt balance by $420.4 million.
- We had net borrowings under our inventory financing facilities of $2.1 million during the six months ended June 30, 2025 compared to net repayments of $13.0 million during the six months ended June 30, 2024.
- We repaid approximately $333.1 million for the remaining principal balance upon maturity of the Convertible Notes in the six months ended June 30, 2025.
- We repaid approximately $16.9 million principal upon conversion of a portion of the Convertible Notes in the six months ended June 30, 2024.
- We paid $222.0 million to settle a portion of the Warrants relating to the Call Spread Transactions associated with the Convertible Notes in cash in the six months ended June 30, 2025.

On September 11, 2024, we announced that our Board of Directors authorized the repurchase of up to $300.0 million of our common stock, in addition to any amount that remained from prior authorizations. As of June 30, 2025, approximately $223.9 million remained available for repurchases under our share repurchase plan.

In accordance with the share repurchase plan, share repurchases may be made on the open market, subject to Rule 10b-18 or in privately negotiated transactions, through block trades, through 10b5-1 plans or otherwise, at management's discretion. The number of shares purchased, and the timing of the purchases will be based on market conditions, working capital requirements, general business conditions and other factors. We intend to retire the repurchased shares.
